COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S MOTION FOR IN CAMERA TREATMENT OF SENSITIVE PERSONAL AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 3.45, and the Court's May 28, 2014 Scheduling Order, Complaint Counsel respectfully file this Motion for In Camera Treatment of Sensitive Personal and Financial Information.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S MOTION FOR IN CAMERA TREATMENT OF SENSITIVE PERSONAL AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

I. BACKGROUND

From at least 2009 through 2012, Respondents have operated Jerk.com, a website that invited people to create profiles about others and rate the profiled person a “Jerk” or “not a Jerk.” The website had as many as 85 million unique pages profiling individuals. (See CX0151-012; CX0153-002)¹ According to Complaint Counsel’s evidence, approximately 29 million of those profiles contained a photo of the profiled subject, an estimated 4.75 million of which were photos of children who appeared to be under age 10. (CX0063-002 ¶ 9, ¶ 10) Numerous photos showed consumers in personal moments with their families, including children in bathtubs and a mother nursing her newborn. (See CX0259-024–030) Some profiles also displayed individually identifying information about the profiled person, such as address, email address, or phone number. (See CX0048; CX0259)

On April 7, 2014, the Commission issued a Complaint alleging that Respondents violated Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act by falsely representing that the content on Jerk.com was created by Jerk.com users and reflected those users’ views of the individuals profiled on the site (Count I), and that by purchasing a membership to Jerk.com, users would obtain additional paid features (Count II). Fact discovery opened on May 28 and closed on November 17. The evidentiary hearing (or “trial”) is set for January 27, 2015. In preparation for that hearing, Complaint Counsel respectfully move the Court to grant permanent in camera treatment to the sensitive personal and financial information described below.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Commission Rule of Practice (“Rule”) 3.45(b), the Court shall order that material be accorded permanent in camera treatment if the material constitutes “sensitive personal information.” 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b). “Sensitive personal information” includes, but is not limited to, “an individual’s Social Security number, taxpayer identification number, financial account number, credit card or debit card number, driver’s license number, state issued identification number, passport number, date of birth (other than year), and any sensitive health information identifiable by individual, such as an individual’s medical records.” Id. In addition to the listed categories of information, this Court has previously found individuals’ names and addresses, among other information, to constitute sensitive personal information. See, e.g., In re LabMD, Inc., No. 9357, 2014 WL 2331029, at *1, (FTC May 6, 2014); In re ProMedica Health Sys., No. 9346, 2011 WL 1896771, at *1 (FTC May 25, 2011).² In addition to protecting sensitive personal information, this Court may “make any other order which justice requires to protect a party or other person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense.” 16 C.F.R. § 3.31(d).

² Federal courts also require litigants to redact personal data identifiers from public filings. See, e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2(a); C.D. Cal. R. R. 5.2-1.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Should Protect Consumers' Sensitive Personal Information.

Complaint Counsel seek permanent in camera treatment for the following categories of sensitive personal information of consumers who have complained about Jerk.com or whose Jerk.com profiles were captured by FTC staff as part of this investigation: (1) names, (2) photographs, (3) telephone numbers, (4) addresses, (5) e-mail addresses, and (6) online usernames.³ The Commission has granted in camera protection to such information in other cases. See, e.g., In re LabMD, Inc., No. 9357, 2014 WL 2331029, at *1 (F.T.C. May 6, 2014) (according permanent in camera treatment to, inter alia, individuals' names, addresses, dates of birth).

1. Consumer Complaints and Testimony

The first set of documents for which Complaint Counsel seek permanent in camera protection consists of consumers' complaints about Jerk.com, including requests to have profiles removed from Jerk.com. As outlined in Attachment A,⁴ these documents include:

- Consumer declarations about experiences with Jerk.com, and corresponding attachments, submitted by consumers as part of this case (CX0001–CX0040);
- Consumer deposition testimony about experiences with Jerk.com, taken as part of this case, and corresponding exhibits (CX447–CX0449, CX0450);

⁴ Attachment A is a list of exhibits, and the sensitive personal or financial information contained therein, for which Complaint Counsel seek permanent in camera treatment, as well as copies of these exhibits containing Complaint Counsel's proposed redactions.

- Complaints by consumers about Jerk.com or removal requests to law enforcement authorities (CX0550–CX0563, CX565–CX0608, CX0610–CX0620, CX0622–CX0624, CX0626–CX0627); to Jerk.com’s server provider (CX0403), to Jerk, LLC’s attorney (CX0529–CX0545, CX0745–CX0762, CX0764–CX0765, CX0775–CX0776), and to Jerk, LLC’s registered agent (CX0042);
- Police incident report about a minor who was profiled on Jerk.com (CX0044);⁵ and
- Complaint Counsel’s Final Proposed Exhibit List and Final Witness List.⁶

Courts have traditionally accorded strong protection against public disclosure to the identities of voluntary witnesses and informants. See Forrester v. United States Dep’t of Labor, 433 F. Supp. 987, 989 (S.D.N.Y. 1977) (recognizing that “public policy requires that individuals may furnish investigative information to the government with complete candor and without the understandable tendency to hedge or withhold information out of fear that their names and the information they provide will later be open to public view”). Similarly, the Commission’s strong interest in protecting the personal information of consumer complainants has been widely recognized by the courts.⁷ Personally identifying information in consumers’ complaints submitted to the FTC, such as the categories listed above, have received protection from disclosure in light of the “substantial privacy interest of protecting victims . . . from abuse, harassment, and embarrassment given the very real risk of their being identified.” Ayuda, Inc. v.

⁷ See, e.g., Lakin Law Firm, P.C. v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122, 1124 (7th Cir. 2003) (“The personal privacy interests of consumers did not disappear when they complained to the FTC.”); Carter Fullerton & Hayes LLC v. FTC, 520 F. Supp. 2d 134, 144-45 (D.D.C. 2007) (upholding the FTC, --- F. Supp. 3d ---, 2014 WL 4829574, at *10 (D.D.C. Sept. 30, 2014) (shielding from release under FOIA “personal identifying information in the form of names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses” of complainants in the FTC’s Consumer Sentinel database). As one district court recently explained, “consumers who are victims, and consequently also are whistleblowers and witnesses, face potential backlash if identified in the form of embarrassment, becoming a ‘mark’ for similar schemes in the future, and retribution from the alleged wrongdoer.” Id. The court also cautioned that “[i]f an individual is identified through his or her personal information, the release of such information may result in economic and physical danger to the accused, as well as potential embarrassment and harassment.” Id.

The consumer complainants here would face these same risks if their identities linked to their complaints are exposed. Many of these consumers complained about Jerk.com precisely because the profiles of them displayed on Jerk.com resulted in harassment, embarrassment, professional injury, and threats to personal safety for them and their children. For example, several consumers complained about the threats posed to their professional reputations by the Jerk.com profiles of them.⁸ One consumer testified about the negative impact to his small business from having been profiled on Jerk.com,⁹ and another reported that the Jerk.com profile

⁸ See, e.g., CX0540 (“The news of this site using my name and image has caused me great deal of stress, embarrassment and concern that it may effect [sic] my ability to obtain employment in the future”); CX0541 (“having my name connected to this site has caused serious professional consequences.”).

⁹ CX450-24:18–23 (“So I felt like up until Jerk.com, I had a really -- you know, my company and myself had a good reputation online. And then once I saw the Jerk.com thing, it really just,

of her came up during two job interviews.¹⁰ Consumers also reported health problems,¹¹ as well as risks to their safety stemming from being profiled.¹² Because an estimated 4.74 million of the profiles contained photos of young children (see CX0063-002 ¶ 10),¹³ consumers have also voiced concerns about the safety of their children.¹⁴ One mother reported fears that a past stalker would be able to identify her minor daughter,¹⁵ while another complained that she was “very concerned for my safety and the well-being of my family especially being that of an active duty military member.”¹⁶ Publicly exposing these consumers’ private concerns through this litigation would magnify the very same risks about which they had complained, and would thereby

¹⁰ CX0544-001 (“I am trying to find a job closer to home, as I commute an hour back and forth to work and the jerk.com site has come up in two interviews”).

¹¹ See, e.g., CX0615-001(reporting having to see several psychologists about the Jerk.com posting of him); CX0028-002 ¶ 8 (“[D]iscovering a jerk.com profile associated with it was traumatic and had a negative impact on my health.”); CX0036-001 ¶ 3 (“I was mortified and embarrassed”); CX0536-001 (“I’ve been having sleepless nights since the day I saw his profile in your website and I keep on crying on why there are people who never stop torturing me”).

¹² See, e.g., CX0538 (“my health and safety are in jeopardy”); CX0535-001 (“I was hoping you could help me get a threat to me and my property removed from Jerk.com”); CX0596-001 (“Jerk.com has made a profile for me on their website. . . I feel unsafe and victimized by this website.”); CX0598-001 (“The reason I need my page removed is because my father who is in jail is coming out and I worry about my safety”).

¹³ See also CX0048; CX0259 (Jerk.com screen captures); CX0036-001 ¶¶ 3-4 (consumer declaration); CX0617 (consumer complaint).

penalize them for complaining to the agency. Moreover, since the Jerk.com profiles at issue are no longer displayed online,¹⁷ the public release of this information would add further damage by prolonging or resurrecting the potential risks to the consumer complainants.

Conversely, protecting the complainants' identities through in camera treatment would avert additional harassment, retaliation, or other personal and professional injury, without shielding from public scrutiny the substance of their complaints. Ordering in camera treatment for complainants' sensitive personal information is even more appropriate since this information is not relevant to the disposition of this case. See In re Basic Research, LLC, No. 9318, 2006 FTC LEXIS 14, at *5-6 (2006) (permitting the redaction of “[i]nformation concerning particular [consumers’] names or other [personal] data” because it “is not relevant” (internal citation and quotation marks omitted)). The complainants' personally identifying information has no bearing on either the Complaint's allegations or Respondents' defenses, and its protection would neither prejudice Respondents nor impede the public's ability to understand the arguments or evidence presented.

2. Screen and Video Captures of Jerk.com

The second set of trial exhibits for which Complaint Counsel seek permanent in camera protection of sensitive personal information consists of screen and video captures of consumer profiles displayed on Jerk.com documented by FTC staff between May 2012 and March 2013:

¹⁷ CX0295-023: 18-19 (statement by John Fanning's attorney at the Scheduling Conference: “the Web site has been down for some significant amount of time”).

CX0271, CX0810.¹⁹

The consumers recorded in these captures neither knew that their profiles—and the sensitive information contained therein—were being documented as part of a law enforcement investigation, nor granted their consent to the captures. These captures took place before the filing of the Complaint; they were not intended for public dissemination. But, since the current online version of Jerk.com no longer displays these profiles (see CX0295-023: 18-19), and Respondents have not provided Jerk.com profile screenshots or code for the site in response to discovery requests (see CX0297-003 ¶¶ 5, 6; CX0777-002 ¶¶ 5, 6), these captures remain the best reliable means of presenting to the Court what was displayed on Jerk.com.

The risks to these consumers from having their identifiable Jerk.com profiles publicly released is similar to the risk to the consumer complainants described in section III.A.1. In light of the numerous complaints received by the FTC expressing consumers' emotional distress, economic harm, and concerns about safety stemming from having a profile of themselves displayed on Jerk.com, it is reasonable to conclude that at least some of the hundreds of consumers profiled in the FTC's captures would share the same risks and suffer the same harm if their personally identifiable Jerk.com profiles resurfaced because of this action. Additionally, given the large number of profiles captured, it is impracticable for Complaint Counsel to locate and interview each of these consumers to determine whether the release of their sensitive information in connection with their past Jerk.com profiles would pose a threat.²⁰

¹⁹ For CX0049, CX0050, CX0053, CX0064–CX0070, and CX0260–CX0263, CX0265–CX0270, which contain the profiles of hundreds of consumers and would be unduly burdensome to redact, Complaint Counsel request permanent in camera treatment for the exhibits in their entirety.

The fact that these captured profiles are no longer publicly accessible further weighs against resurrecting them now, in the context of this case. And, as with the consumer complainants, protecting the sensitive information of the consumers in the captured profiles would not affect the full and fair disposition of this matter.

B. The Court Should Protect Sensitive Personal Financial Information.

Complaint Counsel seek permanent in camera treatment for the following categories of sensitive personal financial information: (1) financial account numbers, (2) credit card or debit card numbers, (3) financial transaction numbers, (4) tax identification numbers, (5) dates of birth, and (6) personal signatures.²¹ As listed in Attachment A, the trial exhibits for which Complaint Counsel specifically seek in camera treatment for sensitive personal financial information include:

- Records and contracts from Immediion, LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Stripe, Inc., PayPal, Inc., Harvard Business Services, Inc., Intellius Inc., and a Jerk, LLC consultant, (CX0402, CX0411–CX0419, CX0421–CX0425, CX0427–CX0428, CX0494, CX0735,

²⁰ For this reason, Complaint Counsel also seek a limited exemption for these exhibits from Rule 3.45(b)'s requirement to "provide, for each piece of such evidence [for which in camera treatment is sought] and affixed to such evidence, the name and address of any person who should be notified in the event the Commission intends to disclose in camera information in a final decision." While Complaint Counsel's Attachment B identifies the contact information for persons who would be affected by the disclosure of the sensitive personal information described in Section III.A.1, providing contact information for the hundreds of persons displayed in the FTC's captures of Jerk.com profiles—people with whom Complaint Counsel have had no contact—would be overly burdensome.

CX0770–773), including a tax form for Jerk, LLC (CX0507);²²

- Emails and other documents showing financial account, credit card, or debit card numbers (CX0091, CX0119, CX0238, CX0240, CX0481, CX0738);
- Personal checks (CX0237, CX0241–CX0247); and
- Video captures and credit card statements showing FTC staff purchases (CX0050, CX0051, CX0053, CX0054, CX0262–CX0264).²³

Rule 3.45 identifies dates of birth, financial account, tax identification, and credit card or debit card numbers as sensitive personal information. Financial transaction numbers and personal signatures, while not listed in the Rule, also constitute sensitive personal information because they are individually identifiable pieces of information, the disclosure of which would expose the associated individual to increased, unnecessary risk of identity theft, fraud, and other financial harm. See, e.g., True the Vote v. Hosemann, No. 3:14-CV-532-NFA, 2014 WL 4273332, at *25-26 (S.D. Miss. Aug. 29, 2014) (recognizing, in light of growing concerns of identity theft, the threat posed by combining pieces of personal information to obtain “a host of other highly personal information about an individual, particularly in this day of computers with vast searching powers”). Absent this litigation, this information would not ordinarily be released in the public domain. Nor would in camera treatment of this information undermine the full and fair resolution of this case. Complaint Counsel therefore requests permanent in camera treatment for any sensitive personal financial information disclosed in this matter.

²³ Complaint Counsel seeks permanent in camera treatment for CX0050, CX0051, CX0053, CX0054, CX0262–CX0263 in their entirety because full redaction of the sensitive financial information in those videos would require redaction of that information from each single frame of the video. Given that each video contains thousands of frame, full redaction of the information would be unduly burdensome.

C. A Limited Set of Sensitive Personal Information In The Evidentiary Record Should Be Protected.

In addition to the above requests for in camera treatment of sensitive personal and financial information in specific exhibits, Complaint Counsel request permanent in camera treatment for the following categories of sensitive personal information contained in any other part of this action's evidentiary record: (1) personal phone numbers, (2) home addresses, (3) personal e-mail addresses, and (4) personal online usernames.²⁴ This sensitive information is contained in numerous places throughout the record, including deposition testimony (see, e.g., CX0744-25: 4–5), declarations (see, e.g., CX464-001 ¶ 4), and documents (see, e.g., CX0192, CX0306, CX0666). Several of the witnesses who have provided this information are witnesses who worked for or invested in Jerk, LLC. (See CX0057, CX0089–CX0090, CX0302– CX0303, CX0464–CX0465, CX0629–CX0630) The disclosure of individually identifiable information of persons connected with a target of a government enforcement action could subject these persons to increased, unnecessary risk of harassment and retaliation. See Fund for Constitutional Gov't v. Nat'l Archives & Records Serv., 485 F. Supp. 1, 6 (D.D.C. 1979) (recognizing that “the mere connection of an individual’s name with a well-known investigation may be both embarrassing and damaging”); see also Ayuda, 2014 WL 4829574, at *10 (describing the threat of “economic and physical danger . . . as well as potential embarrassment and harassment” posed by releasing personally identifying information of persons “associated with a federal agency’s crime enforcement effort”).

Providing a list at this stage of all exhibits containing this sensitive personal information is infeasible and unnecessary. In light of Jerk, LLC’s recent reemergence in this action, Complaint Counsel cannot predict whether it will come forward with previously undiscovered materials to be introduced into evidence. Nor can Complaint Counsel predict the content of trial testimony. Moreover, the limited categories of information at issue are so clearly recognizable that the parties should face no difficulty in identifying them in any given evidentiary material. Recognizing this Court’s preference against adjudicating piecemeal requests for in camera treatment, see In Re McWane, No. 9351, Trial Tr. at 2235:6-8 (Sept. 14, 2012), Complaint Counsel request that the Court grant in camera treatment to the requested categories of personal sensitive information for any material to be introduced into the evidentiary record in this matter.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Complaint Counsel request that the Court grant this Motion for In Camera Treatment.

CX0001

MARKED CONFIDENTIAL

DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in New York, NY. The following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. In May 2012, I attempted to obtain a membership with Jerk.com. I registered with the website and paid $30 for a standard membership. My payment was processed under my MasterCard issued by Bank of America, and my electronic statement discloses that the payment was completed on May 30, 2012. A true and correct copy of that statement entry (with unrelated transactions redacted) is attached to this Declaration as [REDACTED] Attachment A. As part of my registration, I provided Jerk.com with my email address at Gmail. After I provided Jerk.com with my billing information, I was taken to a webpage that stated "Congratulations! You have registered a new account with standard membership. Please visit your email to retrieve your password." A true and correct copy of that webpage is attached to this Declaration as [REDACTED] Attachment B.

3. After paying $30 to Jerk.com, I monitored my email account for an email message from Jerk.com. I checked all my email folders, including the spam folder. I never received an email message from the company and, thus, never received the promised password needed to access my Jerk.com membership.

4. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on November 1st, 2012, in New York, New York.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in Rio Rancho, New 3 Mexico. The following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if
4 called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. Around the end of 2010, a friend of mine told me that she had seen
6 my photo on a strange website on the Internet. Sure enough, when I googled
7 myself, I found that there was a profile of me on the website jerk.com.

8 3. The profile displayed an old Facebook photo of me. Each time I
9 refreshed the page, new questions would pop up on my profile, like "Do you think
10 [REDACTED] is a jerk?", "Is [REDACTED] a bad friend?", and "Do you think [REDACTED] would 11 steal from you?"

12 4. There was a button next to my photo that said, "To Claim This Photo, 13 Click Here." I clicked on the link and it brought me to a customer service page, 14 which requested $29.95 to send an inquiry about the photo or the website. It was 15 very bizarre to me.

16 5. I did not pay any money to the website, and I could not find any other
17 way to contact jerk.com to remove my profile. I did research on the website and 18 found hundreds of complaints by other customers who had paid money and were 19 unable to remove their profiles.

20 6. I looked around the website and there were photos of young people
21 and children with really horrific, insulting comments about them. For example,
22 there was one profile of a 14-year-old girl that called her a "skank" and a "whore."
23 There was also an option where you could pay to vote someone as "Jerk of the 24 Day."

25 7. I was deeply offended by this website and felt very violated. My 26 photo is still on the website, and it continues to upset and bother me.

27 8. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 28 correct. Executed on October 23, 2012, in New Mexico.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Kansas City, Missouri. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness,
4 I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In early 2012, I was searching for job opportunities, and a friend
6 recommended that I do a Google search of my name to see what results come up
7 when prospective employers research me. I thought all the results would be
8 positive, because I have won a lot of awards for my work in Kansas City, but I
9 discovered when I performed the search that my name was on a website called 10 jerk.com.

11 3. I found this very upsetting. Just the idea of associating my name with 12 a website called "jerk.com" could have a very negative connotation for potential
13 employers. When I clicked on the website, my profile said that I was not a jerk.

14 4. The profile also contained photos of me from my Facebook and 15 LinkedIn profiles, as well as from my personal website. There were also links to 16 my Facebook and LinkedIn profiles.

17 5. I wanted to take down my profile immediately, so I searched the 18 website for ways to remove myself. The website said that if you became a member
19 of jerk.com for about $2 to $5 a month, you could make changes to your profile. I
20 decided to make a payment of $1.99 to the website with my American Express 21 credit card.

22 6. After I paid, there were no new features available to me to remove my 23 profile. The benefit they promised - the ability to remove or change your profile -
24 was nowhere to be found. I could not even delete my photo. Instead, I was 25 brought to a page that said, in effect, just because the website says you are a jerk
26 does not really mean you are a jerk, so deal with the people who posted it yourself.

27 7. Soon after, I tried to cancel the transaction on the website, but I kept
28 hitting "dead" pages that were either expired or non-functional. I called American

1 Express to cancel and refund my transaction with jerk.com. American Express
2 credited the $1.99 to me, but I had to get a new credit card and change my billing
3 address, because I had provided that information to jerk.com.

4 8. I tried to use the “contact us” feature on the website, but the page did
5 not work. I filed complaints to Google, the Iowa Attorney General’s Office, and 6 the Federal Trade Commission.

7 9. I have continued to monitor my profile on jerk.com, and new
8 information continues to be added, including photos and content from my LinkedIn
9 page.

10 10. I have been devastated by my experience with jerk.com. I am trying 11 to find a job and make a career change, and because my name and photo are on this
12 website, I don't know what to do.

13 11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 14 correct. Executed on 10/10/, 2012, in Missouri.

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in San Pedro, California. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness,
4 I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In May 2012, I did a Google search of my name to see what type of 6 information about me was on the Internet. This is when I discovered that I had a
7 profile on the website jerk.com. The search result said, "Is [REDACTED] a jerk?"

8 3. I clicked on the link and it brought me to a jerk.com profile with my 9 name and photo on it. The photo was from an old Facebook profile that I had since
10 closed, and it was a photo of me ~~with my children~~. I had never heard of this 11 website and never gave them permission to post my name or photo.

12 4. I tried to remove my profile by clicking the "Remove Me" button on 13 the website. However, it did not allow me to remove my profile. When I clicked
14 the button, it brought me to a screen requesting my credit card information. The 15 screen said that if I paid the website money, I would be able to remove my profile
16 and my money would be refunded. I do not recall the exact amount requested, but 17 I decided to not provide my credit card information.

18 5. I also wanted to contact the website through the customer support 19 page on the website, but they requested $25.00 to contact them. I refused to pay to 20 contact customer support.

21 6. Instead, I did some research on jerk.com on the Internet and found an 22 e-mail address that was supposed to be their customer service e-mail account
23 (support@jerk.com). I e-mailed this address over five times, requesting that my 24 profile be taken down and stating that it was illegal for them to use my name and 25 photo without my permission. I never received any response.

26 7. I also filed a complaint with the Better Business Bureau in Delaware.
27 The BBB wrote me a letter that said it had difficulty contacting the company
28 because its address was just a P.O. Box in Delaware.

8. About a month later, I noticed that my photo had been taken down from the website, but my name ~~is~~^{was} still there. I am not sure if this is because I sent so many e-mails or not.

4 9. This experience really affected me. I was in a state of deep depression
5 for weeks after learning about my profile. I am a stable woman, I have been
6 married for fifteen years, and I am a good person. Why am I on jerk.com?

7 10. It is devastating that there is a website that is destroying people's good
8 character. Some people can commit suicide because of what is on this website.

9 11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 10 correct. Executed on 11/16/2012, 2012, in California.

DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Berkeley, California. The following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.
2. In November 2011, I was looking for employment opportunities. I conducted a Google search of my name to see what results would come up when prospective employers research me.
3. One of the Google search results showed that I was on a website called www.jerk.com. I clicked the link and I found a profile with my photo, name, address, and phone number. The profile also showed that I received one "jerk" vote. My information was put on the website without my permission or knowledge. I believe jerk.com obtained and used my photo from my Facebook page illegally without my permission. I felt frustrated, invaded and violated.
4. I tried to remove my profile by clicking on a page that said I could remove my name from the website if I paid jerk.com $25.00. I did not want to pay this money, so instead I wrote jerk.com a letter. I sent the letter via certified mail to DMCA Complaints, Jerk LLC, 16192 Coastal Hwy. Lewes, DE 19958 USA, which was the address I found on their website. A true and correct copy of the letter I wrote to jerk.com is attached as [REDACTED] Attachment A. The letter was returned to me as "undeliverable" because the address was "unknown" and no forwarding address was available.
5. Because I was looking for work and had been unemployed for quite some time, I felt my profile on this website was affecting my employment chances. I finally decided to pay $25.00 to remove my profile. To my shocking surprise, once I paid the money, jerk.com did not remove my name, photo, or profile from the website. My profile did not change. I felt cheated.

6. Running out of options, I turned to my attorney, Jim Feeney, for advice. A true and correct copy of the email I sent to Jim is attached as [REDACTED] Attachment B.

7. Jerk.com made me feel powerless. Not only did they disregard my rights to my personal information, they also took my money. To this day, I still remember this horrific experience.

8. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 10/5/12, 2012, in California.

Regarding: Unauthorized use of our photograph on the Jerk.com web site

Per the instructions on your web site regarding copy write infringement, I am writing to you now to request that you remove our photograph from your web site. We did not authorize the use of this photograph of us, which was illegally taken from one of our Facebook profiles. It is listed as ' [REDACTED] .' Please remove this profile ASAP.

We do not see the need to pay you a membership fee in order to request this profile removal online. If necessary we will work with our lawyer, cc'd in this letter, to take legal action and sue your company for defamation and unauthorized use of a private, personal picture. We would also contact the Better Business Bureau and State Attorney General's office if we do not see this profile removed from your web site soon.

Thanks in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: Checking in
To: [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]. HOpe you had a nice weekend. Just wanted to see if you knew a way for me to get this web site to take down my profile and unauthorized use of photo of me and my wife/then-fiance: <http://www.jerk.com/profile> [REDACTED]

Their web site has detailed instructions: <http://jerk.com/copyright.php>

I did as they said and sent the attached letter, but it was returned undeliverable, address unknown, no forwarding address, so I then followed their other instructions and went ahead and paid their $25 extortion money to send an email to them, in which I again request that they remove my profile, citing the unauthorized use of my photo for personal use only, etc. But the profile and photo is still up. My wife also filed an online complaint with the ICC but no word back yet.

Any way to take legal action (or at least threaten it)?

Your advice would be greatly appreciated.

Many thanks,

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Washington, District of 3 Columbia. The following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if
4 called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. One day at work during April 2012, my co-workers and I decided to 6 do a Google search of our names on the internet. One of my co-workers told me
7 that my name was on a website called jerk.com.

8 3. I visited the website and thought it was very strange. The jerk.com
9 profile contained a Facebook photo of me and displayed my first and last name. I
10 had never heard of this website and never gave anyone permission to use my name
11 or photograph. I decided to ignore the website for the time being.

12 4. A few weeks later, I decided to revisit the website. I work for an
13 elected official on Capitol Hill, and I had just finished a meeting on cybersecurity
14 with two men. I walked by them and noticed that they were looking at their 15 smartphones and giggling about something. It made me feel uncomfortable and I
16 had a feeling it had something to do with my jerk.com profile.

17 5. I searched my name on Google again, and this time, when I clicked on 18 ^{from the Google Search} the link entitled "Is [REDACTED] a jerk?", I was brought ^{directly} to a jerk.com web page that was 19 loaded with vile, hardcore pornography. There were about two columns of more
20 than 10 disturbing pornographic images of women and other body parts, and I
21 refused to look through the whole page. It was gross.

22 6. My name did not appear on the page with the pornographic images,
23 but that page was linked directly to my name on a Google search. I was horrified
24 and disturbed to have these images connected to my name.

25 7. I proceeded to do research on jerk.com on the internet, but avoided
26 going back to the actual website. On the internet I learned that I would have to pay
27 jerk.com to remove my name, which I absolutely did not want to do. Instead, I
28 filed a complaint with Google, asking them to remove this website associated with

| my name.

2 8. I searched my name two or three more times after I filed the 3 complaint, and the porn images were still associated with my jerk.com profile.
4 However, a month later in May 2012, the page disappeared. When I clicked on the 5 search result in Google, I was brought to a page that said, “██████████ has 6 asked for this profile and URL to be removed.” Today, the profile is no longer 7 there.

8 9. Jerk.com really affected me. I have completely removed myself from 9 all social media. This experience really demonstrates the power and dangers of the 10 Internet. Jerk.com is an internet bully. I had the emotional capacity and efficacy
11 to deal with this situation, but I worry about how it could affect other victims, 12 especially children.

13 10. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 14 correct. Executed on November 14th, 2012, in the District of Columbia.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Saint Paul, Minnesota. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and
4 would competently testify thereto.

5 2. After doing a Google search on my name in 2012, I discovered a profile of me
6 under jerk.com as one of the top five Google hits under my full name.

7 3. When I visited jerk.com, I found a photo of me and my husband that I uploaded to 8 Facebook in November 2009. This picture clearly was taken from my Facebook page even 9 though that page is only accessible to people I have accepted as friends. The jerk.com profile
10 contained no other information on me other than this photo. I did not authorize anyone to post 11 my information on jerk.com and do not know how my photo appeared on this website.

12 4. While viewing my profile on jerk.com, I clicked on a link labeled "Remove Me."
13 This link took me to a page informing me that my profile could not be deleted.

14 5. I subsequently tried to contact the company through the "Contact Us" link on 15 jerk.com to ask that my profile be removed. The Contact Us link took me to a form. After 16 filling in my name, email address, and a message requesting that my profile be removed, I found
17 that the message could not be sent, and I was asked to provide my credit card information. I did 18 not provide my credit card number, but hoped that my request had been received.

19 6. After filling out the form provided, I heard nothing from the company, and went 20 back to check jerk.com to see if my profile was still visible on the website. Even though I could 21 access jerk.com, I could not access my profile because it showed up as blocked. I could not
22 access that profile from my computer for some time. In a subsequent visit to the website using a
23 different computer, however, I found that my profile had not been removed and was no longer
24 blocked.

1 7. While on the website, I noticed that the company suggests that people pay to have
2 their profiles removed. This sounded like a scam, so I contacted the Minnesota Attorney
3 General's Office for help.

4 8. In February 2012, I asked the Minnesota Attorney General's Office for help to 5 have my profile removed from jerk.com. In a letter dated March 9, 2012, the Attorney General's 6 Office asked Jerk LLC to respond to my request that my profile be removed from jerk.com.
7 True and correct copies of this letter, as well as the Attorney General's letter to me
8 acknowledging my complaint and enclosing the Office's letter to Jerk LLC, are attached as 9 Attachments A and B, respectively, to this declaration.

10 9. In spite of being contacted several times by the Attorney General's Office, Jerk
11 LLC did not respond until April 20, 2012. True and correct copies of the Attorney General's 12 further requests for a response from Jerk LLC, and the Attorney General's letters enclosing
13 copies of these letters to me, are attached as Attachments C, D, E and F to this declaration.

14 10. In the April 20, 2012 letter, the attorney for Jerk LLC questioned the basis for my 15 removal request, and informed the Attorney General's Office that the company could find no
16 record of my profile on its website. A true and correct copy of this letter from Jerk LLC's
17 attorney, and the letter sent to me by the Attorney General's Office enclosing this response, are 18 attached to this declaration as Attachments G and H, respectively.

19 11. I informed the Attorney General's Office that, contrary to Jerk's assertion, my 20 profile was still being displayed on the jerk.com website. The Attorney General's Office again
21 wrote to Jerk LLC on my behalf and asked the company to remove my profile from the website.
22 True and correct copies of this letter, dated June 4, 2012, and the letter the Attorney General sent 23 to me enclosing this letter, are attached to this declaration as Exhibits I and J, respectively.

24 12. On August 10, 2012, the Attorney General's Office sent another letter to Jerk
25 LLC asking the company to respond to its June 4th letter. True and correct copies of this letter

1 and the letter the Attorney General's Office sent to me enclosing this letter, are attached to this
2 declaration as Exhibits K and L, respectively.

3 13. On October 24, 2012, the attorney for Jerk LLC wrote a response to the Attorney
4 General's Office, and refused to remove my profile from jerk.com. True and correct copies of
5 this letter of refusal, and the letter the Attorney General's Office sent to me enclosing this letter,
6 are attached to this declaration as Exhibits M and N, respectively.

7 14. On November 8, 2012, I attempted to contact Jerk LLC's attorney, Maria Speth,
8 by telephone. I was hoping to have a conversation with her regarding the removal of the 9 jerk.com profile that was created under my name. I left Ms. Speth a voicemail requesting that 10 she please contact me regarding my profile. I received a voicemail on November 12th from a
11 woman named Debbie who was from Ms. Speth's office. Debbie's voicemail stated that Ms.
12 Speth had asked her to return my call. Debbie stated that Ms. Speth was legal counsel for Jerk
13 LLC and that Ms. Speth cannot make any decision regarding the posting of my profile. And she 14 suggested that I look at the jerk.com website under the contact information. Therefore, I was not 15 allowed to speak with Ms. Speth.

16 15. In March 2013, I searched my name again on Google to see if the jerk.com result
17 was still there. I found that a new picture from my Facebook page was posted on my jerk.com
18 profile, and the previous picture was gone. This new picture shows me and my husband, mother, 19 and mother-in-law in September 2012. I don't know how jerk.com got this picture because my 20 Facebook page has always been private to friends only.

21 16. In April 2013, I did another Google search and did not see any hits for jerk.com
22 with my name. When I searched my name on jerk.com, my name did not pop up. The website
23 never went past the search bar page and just came up as a black background. I am not sure if 24 their search page is not working or if my name is no longer searchable.

Declaration of [REDACTED]

1 17. I have spent around 20 to 40 hours trying to remove my jerk.com profile. My
2 experience proves that Jerk LLC is not interested in taking steps to remove my profile. I am
3 worried about this because I am an author. If people search me and the search results show a
4 jerk.com entry, it really affects my business. This website is basically an invitation to others to 5 write about me. I am also irritated by the pictures because they^{also} show my family members ~~and~~ ~~without their prior approval.~~
6 drag them into the website. And they charge money to ~~get a profile removed. This is also~~
~~They require remove a profile, which is~~

Dear Sir or Madam:

This Office was contacted by Ms. [REDACTED] a Minnesota citizen.

Ms. [REDACTED] states that a profile regarding her and her husband is listed on the website www.jerk.com. Ms. [REDACTED] states that the profile contains her name and a picture from her Facebook account. Ms. [REDACTED] would like the profile removed from www.jerk.com.

I ask that you review this matter as quickly as possible and address Ms. [REDACTED] concerns. I ask that you send a written response to this Office within ten (10) days of receiving this letter. Please provide a response to this Office at the following address:

Chuck Ferguson

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

I thank you for your e-mail correspondence dated February 25, 2012, and for providing your address on February 29, 2012.

You ran a Google search on your name and found a profile for you and your husband on the website www.jerk.com ("Jerk.com"), which contained a picture from your Facebook account. You clicked the "remove" link on the profile and were told that the profile could not be deleted. You subsequently attempted to contact Jerk.com through its "contact us" link, but after completing your message and providing your name and e-mail address, you could not send the message and were asked to provide your credit card information. Jerk.com has since blocked your IP address and you are unable to access the profile. You want Jerk.com to delete the profile and ask for any assistance this Office can provide.

I understand your concerns. It must be very frustrating to have your information posted on this type of website. The problem must only be made worse by having to pay a fee to have control over the information. I can tell you the following, which I hope will be helpful:

First, I enclose a letter we sent to Jerk, LLC asking it to address your concerns. We will let you know of its response.

Second, while the Internet has many positive aspects, it also has a darker side. Indeed, scam artists are increasingly misusing photos and posting false information about individuals and companies online in an attempt to defraud. This practice, known as "brand fraud," "brand abuse," or "brand jacking," can tarnish a company or citizen's reputation.

Third, under the federal Communications Decency Act, an entity has broad immunity from liability for the information published on its website, as long as the website operator itself does not create or alter the content of that information. In light of the widespread and often permanent nature of publishing such information on the Internet, better regulation of these businesses is necessary. Some have suggested that one way this might be accomplished is to require the websites to provide a simple mechanism for consumers to remove their information from the website. Another proposal is to require consumers to take affirmative steps to "opt-in" before these types of websites can publish or otherwise use consumers' information.

Fifth, I have sent a copy of this letter to Deputy Attorney General Nate Brennaman, who I recently asked to look into this type of practice.

Finally, I enclose an insert, How the Attorney General's Office Can Help, that explains in some more detail the ways in which this Office tries to help people with consumer complaints. Dear Sir/Madam:

This is the third time this Office is sending Jerk, LLC a letter regarding the concerns we received from Ms. [REDACTED]. To date, we have not received any response from Jerk, LLC. This matter deserves the courtesy of a response, and this Office expects that a company that does business in Minnesota will respond to concerns raised by Minnesota citizens in a timely fashion.

I enclose a copy of our initial correspondence for your review. I ask that you please direct your immediate attention to this matter and respond to me within five business days of this letter. If you have any questions, please contact me immediately.

I should note that this Office does maintain files regarding consumer complaints, and our files will reflect your response or any failure to respond. I would appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

Your File No.: [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Swanson, Mr. Stepan and Mr. Ferguson;

This firm has been retained by Jerk, LLC to respond to your letters of March 9, 2012 and March 28, 2012. I left a voice message at your office last week, but I have not received a return call.

Your letter does not explain the basis for your request that Jerk, LLC remove a profile regarding [REDACTED]. It seems highly unusual that the Attorney General has made such a request. Please let me know whether there is a connection to an active case or investigation, or if you contend that my client has violated any law.

Also, you should know that upon receipt of your letter, my client searched for the profile of [REDACTED] and was unable to find any such profile. It may have been removed using a tool available on the website.

I look forward to hearing from you regarding the reason for your request as well as confirmation that this matter is closed.

Sincerely,

JABURG & WILK, P.C.

COPY

Dear Sir/Madam:

This Office was contacted by Ms. [REDACTED] regarding a matter she has with Jerk, LLC.

In its letter dated April 20, 2012, Jerk indicates that it had no record of a profile on its website relating to Ms. [REDACTED]. Despite this Ms. [REDACTED] indicates that she recently found that a profile using her image and likeness without her permission continues to be displayed on Jerk.com. I ask that Jerk LLC. remove the profile in question immediately.

I ask that you respond to this Office in writing within ten (10) days of receiving this letter.

Re: Jerk, LLC, Jaburg/Wilk,
File No: [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]:

I enclose a copy of correspondence I received from Jaburg/Wilk for Jerk, LLC. Unfortunately, as you can see, Jerk, LLC, does not appear willing to resolve your concerns as you have requested. Thus, at this juncture, I thought I would provide you with the following information.

If you are aware of any new information or material discrepancies that you would like me to review, I ask that you let me know.

In addition, I should note that because we are not a regulatory agency, we do not have the authority to order an organization to respond to an individual consumer complaint or to take a particular course of action in a given case. That having been said, we do retain a record of all consumer complaints—and we use this information both to inform the public about problem areas and, in some cases where a pattern or practice of complaints shows that the public interest has been impacted by illegal conduct, to file lawsuits in the name of the State of Minnesota to enforce State laws. Thus, even though the organization has not responded favorably to your individual situation, we do very much appreciate receiving your correspondence.

I thank you again for contacting this Office. If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

MARKED CONFIDENTIAL

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Franklin, Wisconsin. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness,
4 I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In September 2011, I performed a search of my first and last name on 6 Google out of curiosity. Far down the list of search results, I saw that my name
7 appeared on a website called jerk.com. The title of the search result was, “[REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED] is a Jerk.”

9 3. I clicked on the link, and it brought me to jerk.com’s website. There,
10 I found a photo of me with my ex-boyfriend, which I had posted only on Facebook
11 and set to “private.” I do not know how the photo got on this website. Under my 12 photo, there were buttons that allowed viewers to vote whether I was a jerk or not.
13 There were several votes labeling me as a jerk.

14 4. I was shocked and frustrated that I was on this website. I tried to edit
15 the profile, but I could not make any changes. I even tried to counterbalance the 16 negative votes against me by attempting to vote myself as “not a jerk,” but that 17 button would not work. Only the “jerk” button worked.

18 5. I desperately wanted to eliminate my name, photo, and profile from 19 jerk.com. I explored the website, searching for a way to remove my profile. At 20 several points, the website asked me to submit my credit card information in order
21 to make a change to my profile. I cannot remember if it was the “membership”
22 button, or the “customer service” button that triggered this payment prompt.
23 I recall that the message about changing my profile included a request for a credit
24 card payment through PayPal. I believed I could edit my profile if I paid jerk.com
25 the requested fee, so I set up a PayPal account in order to make a payment.

26 6. I paid between $10.00 and $25.00 to jerk.com through PayPal in an 27 attempt to remove my profile from the website. I cannot remember the specific 28 amount. Immediately after I made the payment, I found that there were no new
[REDACTED]

1 features available to me that would allow me to remove my profile. I kept trying,
2 and at one point, a pop-up window appeared that said, "Are you having fun yet?"
3 At that moment, I knew the website was a scam.

4 7. I went to the customer service page to file a complaint. The website
5 asked for another $10.00 to $25.00 to speak to customer service, but I did not pay.
6 I did a Google search to find the company's contact information, and found a
7 telephone number and e-mail address. The phone number was out of service, and I
8 received no response to my e-mail.

9 8. I filed a dispute with PayPal for the payments I made to jerk.com. I
10 cannot remember the exact total amount I paid to the website, but I estimate it to be 11 about $25.00. I also filed complaints with the Better Business Bureau, the 12 Wisconsin Attorney General's Office, and a local attorney. To date, I have not 13 been able to remove my photo or profile from the website.

14 9. More recently, I discovered that someone called me an "incest
15 survivor" on my jerk.com profile, and this profile now comes up as the first search
16 result when a Google search of my name is done. There is also a new hyperlink on 17 the profile that links to my LinkedIn profile.

18 10. Every time I look at the website I cry. It really interferes with my 19 social life, as I am a single mother and currently dating. It is slanderous and 20 horrifying, and I just want to find out who is posting this stuff and punish them.

21 11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 22 correct. Executed on October 19, 2012, in Wisconsin.

to Natalie

Hello Natalie,

I spent some time this evening reviewing my records and the website and was able to confirm a few things:

I did pay $30.00 in February of this year to buy a standard subscription which was explained on the site to be the path to changing or removing the information that I had found about me. Before you take the steps to join, there is a click option to remove your information, which leads you to another page telling you you can't remove it. It leads to a notice that in part states "No one's profile is ever removed because jerk is based on a free open Internet searching database and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet" It also tells you that you must subscribe to create a dispute, and that subscription cost is $30.00, which I did do. If you click the "Contact Us" option, it circles around to this message again, or you can opt to pay another $25.00 to request a removal, which they have basically told you is impossible, and is discerned entirely at their discretion. What a contradiction! They also have a "Gold" subscription option which is under development and the fee is undisclosed. I tried to remove my pictures again today after I gave them my email address and telephone number and created and account allowing me to sign in. I could not access any of the posted information about me even though it linked me to it.

Ironically, the website is full of information about copyright infringement and they have an address you can write to: DMCA complaints, Jerk LLC, 16192 Coastal Hwy, Lewes, DE 19958, which I suspect is bogus as well.

As far as the fees, I was charged on my credit card, but due to the contact I made with my card company, they credited my account back, but I was not refunded by either Pay Pal, or Jerk.com. I do have documentation now of my dispute with Pay Pal (reference numbers, transaction #'s) to substantiate this. Cowards.

Thank you for your help. I hope you are able to bring some justice to this ugly and immature site. I saddens me so much when I deal with people everyday who are struggling to maintain a quality of life and life itself sometimes, to know that there are useless people out there that serve no meaningful purpose other than to act so ruthlessly, with no dignity or regard.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in Dearborn, Michigan. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness,
4 I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In early 2012, my younger brother, who is twelve years old, told me
6 that he did a Google search of his name. He told me he discovered that there was a
7 profile of him on the website jerk.com. He indicated that the profile came up as 8 the second or third search result on Google.

9 3. I visited the website jerk.com and found a profile for my younger
10 brother. The profile displayed a photo taken of my brother when he was eleven
11 years old. The photo was taken from a Facebook account, and my brother told me
12 that he never gave anyone permission to use it on jerk.com. The profile also 13 revealed his name and his age.

14 4. My brother appeared to be very upset about the profile. He told me he 15 tried to log in to jerk.com with every e-mail address he had, but he could not get in 16 to the website to remove his name or photo. It appears that someone else created 17 the profile, and he told me that he did not know who did it.

18 5. We wanted to contact jerk.com's customer service to try to remove 19 my brother's profile, but it said on the website that we had to pay $25.00 to talk to 20 someone. We did not end up paying any money to jerk.com.

21 6. I did some research about jerk.com on the Internet and found that 22 there were thousands of complaints against this company. I never got the chance 23 to complain to anyone at jerk.com because there was no way to contact the 24 company.

25 7. In February 2012, I filed a complaint with the Better Business Bureau
26 in Delaware on behalf of my brother. The BBB told us that they contacted the 27 company about our complaint, but no one from jerk.com ever got back in touch
28 with them. No one from Jerk ever contacted me.

1 8. As of October 2012, my little brother's profile is still on jerk.com.
2 There is one vote that claims he is "not a jerk," but the profile is still very upsetting
3 to my brother and my family.

4 9. I've noticed that my brother has really been affected by his experience
5 with jerk.com. For a twelve-year-old who is almost starting high school and who 6 knows that his name is on that website, ^{it has damaged} it has just killed his self-esteem. The 7 whole website is a horrible idea and I believe Jerk should at least allow kids to 8 remove themselves from the website.

9 10. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and 10 correct. Executed on October 26, 2012, in Michigan.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in Belmont, California. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and
4 would competently testify thereto.

5 2. I learned about the jerk.com profile of me when an aunt told my mom about it.
6 When I did a Google search of my name, the profile came up as one of the top ten results with 7 the listing “[REDACTED] is a jerk.”

8 3. When I visited jerk.com, I found a profile of me that had a photograph of my 9 cousin and me that I posted to Facebook. I was devastated.

10 4. On this site, you could add jerks or post all kinds of other messages. The jerk
11 profile of me showed several votes that I was “a jerk” and some votes that I was “not a jerk.” I
12 think my aunt submitted the “not a jerk” votes because she felt compelled to put something
13 positive on the site. There were also some votes on my personal characteristics. A true and 14 correct copy of this profile is attached to this declaration as Attachment A.

15 5. When I first saw the profile, I thought someone I knew in the past might have 16 posted the photograph because I had uploaded it to Facebook years ago when I was still on 17 Facebook. Since my account had been closed for years, someone who knew me from before
18 probably took that Facebook picture and then posted it to jerk.com. Facebook is the only place
19 where I posted the photo, and I always used Facebook’s most restrictive privacy settings.

20 6. Jerk.com also required you to pay to have your profile removed. I paid the 21 amount required to contact the company’s customer support, but never received an email
22 response. Around the same time I contacted jerk.com, I also contacted the Better Business
23 Bureau (BBB) and Google about the website.

24 7. About two weeks after I contacted jerk.com, my profile was taken down, but the 25 Google search link to the profile remained. Instead of taking down the link, Google sent my

1 complaint to the Chilling Effects, which then publicly displayed my complaint on its website. A
2 true and correct copy of my complaint to Google posted on the Chilling Effects website is
3 attached as Attachment B.

4 8. I am a very private person with a unique name, so discovering a jerk.com profile
5 associated with it was traumatic and had a negative impact on my health. I knew that recruiters
6 and potential employers routinely use Google to check a person's online reputation, which 7 anyone could also do for personal reasons, and they would be exposed to this site's damaging
8 profile. My relationship with the Internet also has changed in that I avoid any search that could 9 bring this profile up, avoid social media, and I have taken steps to protect my reputation online.

10 9. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Topic Frequently Asked Questions \(and Answers\)

FAQ: Questions and Answers

[\[back to notice text\]](#)

Question: Why does a search engine get DMCA takedown notices for materials in its search listings?

Answer: Many copyright claimants are making complaints under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, Section 512(d), a safe-harbor for providers of "information location tools." These safe harbors give providers immunity from liability for users' possible copyright infringement -- if they "expeditiously" remove material when they get complaints. Whether or not the provider would have been liable for infringement by users' materials it links to, the provider can avoid the possibility of a lawsuit for money damages by following the DMCA's takedown procedure when it gets a complaint. The person whose information was removed can file a counter-notification if he or she believes the complaint was erroneous.

Question: What does a service provider have to do in order to qualify for safe harbor protection?

Answer: In addition to informing its customers of its policies (discussed above), a service provider must follow the proper notice and takedown procedures (discussed above) and also meet several other requirements in order to qualify for exemption under the safe harbor provisions.

In order to facilitate the notification process in cases of infringement, ISPs which allow users to store information on their networks, such as a web hosting service, must designate an agent that will receive the notices from copyright owners that its network contains material which infringes their intellectual property rights. The service provider must then notify the Copyright Office of the agent's name and address and make that information publicly available on its web site. [512(c)(2)]

Finally, the service provider must not have knowledge that the material or activity is infringing or of the fact that the infringing material exists on its network. [512(c)(1)(A)], [512(d)(1)(A)]. If it does discover such material before being contacted by the copyright owners, it is instructed to remove, or disable access to, the material itself. [512(c)(1)(A)(iii)], [512(d)(1)(C)]. The service provider must not gain any financial benefit that is attributable to the infringing material.

Question: What are the provisions of 17 U.S.C. Section 512(c)(3) & 512(d)(3)?

Answer: Section 512(c)(3) sets out the elements for notification under the DMCA. Subsection A (17 U.S.C. 512(c)(3)(A)) states that to be effective a notification must include: 1) a physical/electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the infringed right; 2) identification of the copyrighted works claimed to have been infringed; 3) identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed; 4) information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party (e.g., the address, telephone number, or email address); 5) a statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material is not authorized by the copyright owner; and 6) a statement that information in the complaint is accurate and that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner. Subsection B (17 U.S.C. 512(c)(3)(B)) states that if the complaining party does not substantially comply with these requirements the notice will not serve as actual notice for the purpose of Section 512.

Section 512(d)(3), which applies to "information location tools" such as search engines and directories, incorporates the above requirements; however, instead of the identification of the allegedly infringing material, the notification must identify the reference or link to the material claimed to be infringing.

Question: Does a service provider have to follow the safe harbor procedures?

Answer: No. An ISP may choose not to follow the DMCA takedown process, and do without the safe harbor. If it would not be liable under pre-DMCA copyright law (for example, because it is not contributorily or vicariously liable, or because there is no underlying copyright infringement), it can still raise those same defenses if it is sued.

Question: How do I file a DMCA counter-notice?

Answer: If you believe your material was removed because of mistake or misidentification, you can file a "counter notification" asking the service provider to put it back up. Chilling Effects offers a form to build your own counter-notice.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in Albany, NY. The following statements
3 are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently
4 testify thereto:

5 1. When I was on sick leave in late 2010, I did a Google search of my name and 6 found a Jerk.com link with my name on the ^{1st} ~~2nd~~ page of the Google search results.

7 2. When I clicked on the Jerk.com link, I found a profile with my full name, the 8 name of my high school, a picture from Facebook, and several ads next to the profile. The 9 website allowed you to "buy" and "sell" any of my information, and the profile also contained
10 horrible statements about me, including sexual ones. No one had voted on whether I was a jerk
11 or not, but someone did vote that I was not appreciative. ~~My son later tried to help me by voting~~
12 ~~for good qualities, like that I was agreeable.~~

13 3. When I first saw the Jerk profile, I thought that someone who knew me had put 14 me there. I work in human resources, so there are always people who are angry because they 15 weren't hired or because they were fired. I also thought that maybe some old boyfriend or 16 people I had relationships with posted this information. When I told my sister about the profile,
17 her first reaction was to ask whether I made anyone angry lately.

18 4. I also thought that maybe Jerk.com got my picture from Facebook. I am sure that 19 the profile picture was from Facebook because Facebook is the only social network I've ever
20 joined, and I have not posted that picture anywhere else. I have always set my Facebook page
21 set to "Friends only."

22 5. I immediately tried to remove my profile. I looked at Jerk's "About Us" and 23 "Remove Me" pages, but these pretty much said that Jerk would not do anything about the 24 profile. It also said that you would have to pay $25 to remove the profile. I also contacted
25 Google and Facebook, but they told me they can't do anything about a third party's website and

1 that I should go ask Jerk. For some time, I spent almost every hour of every weekend and 2 weeknight emailing Google to remove the link to my Jerk.com profile. with under my name

3 6. I also un-joined all Facebook groups and deleted some of my Facebook entries
4 because I thought doing that might remove the information from the Jerk profile. Eventually,
5 some of my information, like my high school, was gone from Jerk. The Site

9 8. This invasion of privacy by Jerk¹⁰ really cut like a knife. When I first saw the profile in 2010, I was on sick leave. Learning about the profile and the horrible, untrue
10 statements about me on the profile made me ~~more depressed~~¹¹ unhappy. I was also searching for jobs and 11 felt that my presence on the website meant I was done. I know that HR people do Google
12 searches, and I do not think any hiring person would have hired me if they saw ~~my~~¹³ profile. I was 13 also worried that my overseas family may see the profile with all that negative information. As a
14 result of Jerk, I am turned off from the Internet and use it a lot less now.
15

15 10. I am also angry that websites like Jerk do not get my consent before putting me on 16 their website.

17 11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on December 20th, 2013, in Albany, New York.

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in South Lyon, Michigan. The following
3 statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness I could and would 4 competently testify thereto.

5 2. In May of 2011, due to the rise in popularity of social networking sites, I
6 performed a Google search of my son's nick name and last name. At this time my son was 7 thirteen years old. The first Google search result on the list was for my son's name on 8 www.Jerk.be.

9 3. I clicked on the Google search link, and it took me to a profile web page of my 10 son's name on www.Jerk.be. At the top of the site was my son's nick name and last name.
11 Below this was a photo of my son with a "jerk" ranking. The site also contained incorrect
12 information about my son's age, address and other personal information.

13 4. I was furious that my son's photo was on this site without my or my son's
14 permission.

15 5. I speculate one of my son's Facebook friends shared their address book with 16 www.Jerk.be. I believe the developers of www.Jerk.be then created profile web pages for each 17 of the address book entries, including my son.

18 6. While looking at www.Jerk.be, I found many profiles with pictures of young 19 children.

20 7. I clicked on the "Remove Me" tab. On this page, along with the support@jerk.be 21 email address, the following was displayed:

22 Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a
23 jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks.
24 Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a

8. On May 8, 2011, I sent an email to support@jerk.be demanding the removal of my son from the www.Jerk.be website. A true and correct copy of this email with my son's nick name redacted is attached as [REDACTED] Attachment A.

9. On May 9, 2011, I returned to the www.Jerk.be website and my son's photo and the incorrect personal information had been removed, but his name was still there. A true and correct copy of the current Google search results and jerk profile with my son's nick name and images redacted is attached as [REDACTED] Attachment B.

10. Based on my research of www.Jerk.be, I found that www.Jerk.be's first web address was www.Jerk.com and then changed to www.Jerk.be. On or about November 2011, www.Jerk.be changed back to www.Jerk.com.

11. On May 10, 2011, I filed a complaint against Jerk LLC with the Internet Crime Complaint Center. A true and correct copy of my complaint, with my personal information redacted, is attached as [REDACTED] Attachment C.

The main content area features a large, redacted profile picture. Below it, the word "REDACTED" is displayed. To the right, there are sections for "reports and stories" and a "+ post a report" button. Further down, there's a "view more" link followed by a large, mostly blank white space.

2 1. My name is [REDACTED], and I declare as follows:

3 2. After doing a Google search on my name around winter 2011, I discovered a
4 profile of me on Jerk.com as one of the top Google hits under my full name. I had never heard
5 of Jerk.com before this search.6 3. When I clicked on the link to Jerk.com from my Google search, I found a profile
7 with my name and a photo of me with my husband and my two infant children. My children
8 were about two and half years old and four months old in that picture. The profile had no other
9 information about me or my family, other than some polls where people could vote if I was a
10 "Jerk" or not, but no one had voted. Initially, I was worried that someone had created the 11 Jerk.com profile against me. I was mortified and embarrassed that my name and the photo of me
12 with my children were on this website.13 4. I recognized that photo because it was the same one I had uploaded to my 14 Facebook profile in the past. The photo used on the Jerk.com profile was clearly taken from my 15 Facebook page even though my Facebook privacy settings were set so that my profile was only 16 accessible to people I had accepted as friends. I have always been very careful about my 17 Facebook privacy settings and made sure that only friends could see my profile. Not even 18 friends of friends were allowed to see my profile. But Jerk.com is a public website where 19 anyone could see the picture of me and my children. I did not authorize anyone to post my 20 information on Jerk.com and do not know how my Facebook photo appeared on this website. I
21 never saw or downloaded an application on Facebook relating to Jerk.22 5. After discovering this Jerk.com profile, I immediately tried everything I could 23 think of to remove my name and photo. I went through the Jerk.com website and tried several 24 different ways to contact them, including calling the number they provided on the website,
25 emailing them, and even writing them a letter. I was unable to reach anyone at Jerk.com about 26 the profile, and they never responded to my numerous attempts to contact them.27 6. While on searching Jerk.com for a way to remove my name and photo, I noticed
28

DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

1 that the company suggests that people pay to have their profiles removed. This looked like some
2 sort of paid membership to access to profile information. They were asking for $30 just to talk
3 to someone. I did some research online and found that many other people had similar complaints
4 to mine, and the people who had paid Jerk never actually got their information removed. My
5 husband and I agreed not to pay for a membership with Jerk.com because we felt that this
6 company was just trying to solicit people for money to get their names and photos off its website.

7 7. After my attempts to contact Jerk.com were unsuccessful, I sent also complaints
8 to various groups, including the Federal Trade Commission. I just wanted my children's photo
9 off that website.

10 8. Since first finding the Jerk.com profile, I have searched for it a few other times.
11 Several months ago, I searched my name on Google to see if the Jerk.com result was still there,
12 and it was. Then later this year, I did another Google search and did not see any hits for 13 Jerk.com with my name. I do not know if Jerk.com actually removed the profile about me, or if 14 it just did not show up in the Google search.

15 9. I have spent around 20 hours trying to remove the Jerk.com profile, but Jerk never 16 did anything to respond to my concerns or help me remove my profile. I am worried about this 17 because the Jerk.com profile could harm my ability to return to my job as a social worker if 18 people search me and the search results show a Jerk.com entry. But mostly I am worried about
19 this as a mother. I am very upset that my infant children's photograph was used on this website
20 without my consent or knowledge, and that Jerk.com would take no action to remove this photo
21 and profile—other than by soliciting money from my family to get a paid Jerk.com membership.
22

23 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Easton, Connecticut. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and
4 would competently testify thereto.

5 2. I have a Google alert set for my name, and one day, I received a Google alert with 6 my name in a link to jerk.com. The search result was within the first few pages.

7 3. When I visited jerk.com, I saw a profile with my full name and a photograph of 8 me as a child. I immediately thought that someone who didn't like me put me on there. The 9 website bragged about success stories of posting and rating "jerks," and these stories were like 10 ads encouraging people to post and rate more people. I was alarmed. I thought that someone 11 was messing with me.

12 4. I then noticed that the photo of me was a Facebook profile picture. I started
13 thinking that someone may have scraped the picture from Facebook. I have had a Facebook
14 account since 2005 and always use the highest privacy settings possible. But since Facebook
15 profile pictures are always public, there was no setting to hide that profile picture.

16 5. I felt that jerk.com was some sort of extortion scheme. The site was very cocky
17 about how it had the right to use photos from the Internet. There was also no way to get in 18 touch. You had to pay something to have them read your email. I contacted jerk.com's domain
19 registrant, but it told me that I contacted the wrong party.

20 6. In February 2011, I contacted Facebook alerting them to the scraping of Facebook
21 profile photos by jerk.com. A few days later, I received a message back informing me that
22 Facebook could not control the actions of third parties and suggested that I contact jerk.com
23 directly to request removal of my profile.

24 7. My experience with jerk.com was time consuming and nerve-wracking. I spent at 25 least 30 or more hours researching how to request takedowns. It bothered me that the website

1 encouraged others to post stuff about me. It also scared me that someone could search my name
2 and see this result pop up, causing harm to my personal and professional reputation.

3 8. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I am a contractor in San Francisco, CA. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and
4 would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In February 2012, I was searching the Internet and typed my name into the 6 Google search engine. One of the top search results was a website called jerk.com, I clicked on 7 the link to jerk.com and discovered a profile containing my name and defamatory information.
8 I did not authorize jerk.com to create a profile about me. I believe a customer who allegedly 9 committed fraud against me and 15 other contractors posted the inaccurate information about me
10 on jerk.com to discourage our collection efforts.

11 3. I was concerned that potential clients who searched my name on Google
12 would see my jerk.com profile and I wanted the defamatory remarks removed. I recall there was 13 a link at the top of the website that said "Remove Me." I clicked on the "Remove Me" link and a 14 message appeared saying nothing on jerk.com could be removed.

15 4. I continued to search for ways to remove my jerk.com profile. I did not see any 16 way to contact the owners of the website. I read a statement on jerk.com that indicated I could
17 remove information from my profile by joining jerk.com. My impression from the membership
18 description on jerk.com was that I would receive a password that would enable me to delete
19 content on my profile. Although I did not want to support jerk.com and the website's
20 extortionate practices, I was concerned about my business reputation so I paid jerk.com $30 for 21 an annual membership. After I paid the fee, nothing changed. I did not receive special access to 22 my jerk.com profile. I checked my email folders, including my spam folders, but did not receive 23 a password for my jerk.com membership. I checked my bank statement and confirmed that 24 jerk.com withdrew $30 from my account. The membership was a complete waste.

1 5. As of today, my profile is still visible on jerk.com and I have not received a
2 password to activate my jerk.com membership. I believe the inaccurate comments about my on 3 jerk.com have negatively affected my business.

2 1. My name is [REDACTED] I reside in Salter Path, North Carolina.

3 The following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a
4 witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In April 2012, I decided to do a Google search of my name on the 6 Internet. One of the search results said, "Is [REDACTED] a jerk?" I clicked on the 7 link and it brought me to jerk.com.

8 3. There was a profile of me on the website that featured my name and 9 personal information about me taken from my Facebook profile, such as the 10 schools I went to, the fact that I am retired, and my birthdate. There was no photo
11 of me on the profile. There were also options to vote if I was a jerk or not, but no
12 votes had been recorded. I never gave anyone permission to post this information 13 about me.

14 4. I wanted to remove my profile, and I clicked on a link with 15 instructions on how to remove myself. It brought me to a page that featured 16 several psychology and self-help books and courses on conflict resolution. The 17 page stated that I could only remove my profile if I purchased these books, which 18 cost $90.00.

19 5. I thought this was strange and I did not pay any money to the website.
20 I did not attempt to make any complaint to jerk.com because I don't remember
21 seeing any customer service page or button on the site. I did file complaints with 22 Facebook and Google because that is where my information was stolen from.

23 6. About a month later, I tried to visit my profile, but when I clicked on 24 the Google link, I was brought to a page that said in red letters that my profile no
25 longer existed.

26 7. I was very offended by this website. No one likes to be called a jerk,
27 and even though the website did not explicitly call me a jerk, that is what it implied
28 and I found it very offensive. I believe this is a form of bullying and extortion.

1 DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]

2 1. My name is [REDACTED]. I reside in Charlestown, Massachusetts. The
3 following statements are within my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness,
4 I could and would competently testify thereto.

5 2. In 2010, I discovered that someone created a profile of my fifteen-
6 year-old daughter on the website jerk.com. My daughter and I had been Googling
7 each other's names for fun when we found the profile. It was the first search result
8 under her name, and the website labeled her a "jerk."

9 3. We clicked on the profile and there was a photo of a woman with red
10 hair who was not my daughter. It was very scary and shocking to us both. Over 11 time, I monitored the profile and things got worse. Someone began posting real 12 photos of my daughter that were taken from Facebook and MySpace. Our home 13 address, information about my daughter's school, and our home phone number were 14 also added to the profile.

15 4. The worst part was the character assassination and comments on the 16 profile under my daughter's photos. Someone posted threatening and sexually-17 driven, perverse comments about my daughter. We truly felt hurt, threatened, and 18 frightened.

19 5. I monitored the website and tried to delete the profile by clicking the 20 "Remove Me" button. When I clicked the button, a payment screen would appear 21 requesting a $30.00 payment by credit card.

22 6. I was desperate to remove my daughter from the website, and I paid 23 the $30.00 charge three times in an attempt to delete the profile, for a total of 24 $90.00. Each time, nothing changed. My daughter's profile, photos, and negative
25 comments about her remained on jerk.com. When I clicked on "Remove Me," I 26 was brought to a page that said that jerk.com could not promise that any 27 information would be deleted from the website. There were no features available to 28 actually delete the profile. I decided to change my credit card number after it did not

1 work on the third try.

2 7. I wanted to make a complaint to the website, but it requested a $25.00
3 charge for contacting customer service, which I did not want to do after paying 4 $90.00 to no avail. There was no easy way to contact anyone associated with the 5 website. I filed complaints with Google and the Internet Crime Complaint Center in 6 2012.

7 8. To this day, my daughter's profile is still on jerk.com. It is absolutely
8 the cruelest form of bullying and it has devastated my daughter. She has had to go
9 to therapy because of this experience, and she feels invaded and abused. She is 10 suffering from situational depression because of this website.

11 9. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

1 DECLARATION OF CRAIG KAUFFMAN

2 1. My name is Craig Kauffman. I am an investigator with the Federal Trade
3 Commission ("FTC"), a position I have held for approximately 25 years. My business address is 4 901 Market Street, Suite 570, San Francisco, California, 94103. The following statements are 5 within my personal knowledge.

6 2. As an investigator, my duties include monitoring and investigating persons or 7 companies that are suspected of engaging in unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 8 the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, and other laws
9 or rules enforced by the FTC. I participated in the Commission's investigation of Jerk LLC
10 ("Jerk"). In the course of this investigation, I have acquired personal knowledge and 11 information about the facts stated herein.

12 I. ATTACHMENT INDEX

13 3. The following is an index of the documents attached to my declaration:

Kauffman Ex.	Description
A	website www.jerk.com as it appeared on May 1, 2012
B	5/1/12 video of the website www.jerk.com (saved on lodged DVD accompanying this declaration)
C	5/12/12 video showing purchase of $30 membership to Jerk (saved on lodged DVD accompanying this declaration)
D	Credit card statement showing purchase of $30 membership to Jerk
E	Contents of email folders showing no messages from Jerk
F	5/11/12 video showing payment of $25 customer support fee to Jerk (saved on lodged DVD accompanying this declaration)
G	Credit card statement showing two $25 payments to Jerk

24 II. WEBSITE

25 4. On May 1, 2012, I accessed the website www.jerk.com. I used the software
26 program Adobe Acrobat 9 Professional ("Adobe") to capture the contents of www.jerk.com.
27 One of Adobe's numerous software tools allows users to convert the contents of a web page into 28 a PDF file. The conversion process includes any JPEG images, text files, image maps, as well as

1 other associated files from the original web page. Attached as Kauffman Attachment A is a true
2 and correct copy of the website www.jerk.com as captured on May 1, 2012, using Adobe
3 software.

4 5. On May 1, 2012, I used the software program Camtasia to record a real-time
5 video of the images on my computer screen. I accessed the website www.jerk.com and clicked
6 on various links on the website, including "Post a Jerk," "Remove Me," "Track People," "Am I a
7 Jerk," and "School." I immediately saved the Camtasia video on my computer as a Windows
8 Media file. On August 31, 2012, I burned the video to the DVD accompanying this declaration.
9 A true and correct copy of the video I created on May 1, 2012 of the website www.jerk.com is 10 saved as Kauffman Attachment B on the DVD lodged with this declaration.

III. SUBSCRIPTION

A. Creation of Undercover Accounts

13 6. On May 9, 2012, I accessed the website www.hotmail.com and created a free
14 hotmail email account, valdictorian@hotmail.com, for a fictitious consumer named Val
15 Dictorian. I am the only person with the password to this hotmail account. I have not deleted or 16 modified any messages sent to this hotmail account.

17 7. On May 11, 2012, I accessed the website www.jerk.com and created a user
18 profile for Val Dictorian. Val Dictorian is the only profile I created on Jerk.

19 8. As part of my duties as an investigator, I have access to an undercover credit card
20 that FTC staff use for investigations. I made all the purchases described in this declaration with 21 the undercover credit card.

B. Purchase of $30 Membership to Jerk

23 9. On May 16, 2012, I accessed the website www.jerk.com and clicked on the link
24 titled "Track People" and then on the link titled "LOG IN." When I clicked on "LOG IN," I was 25 directed to a page that stated:

26 "Welcome to Jerk. Looking for the latest scoop on a world filled with Jerks?
27 Want to join millions of people who already use Jerk for important updates fo
28 business, dating, and more? Don't worry we have room for one more!

1 Subscribers on Jerk yourself [sic] and receive free benefits including:

2 1. Fast notifications of postings about you!

3 2. Updates on people you know and are tracking.

4 3. Search for people you know, and read about people you are interested in.

5 4. Enter comments and reviews for people you interact with.

6 5. Help others avoid the wrong people.

7 6. Praise those who help you and move good people closer to sainthood!"

8 10. The page also contained a button titled "Subscribe" directly below the description

9 of Jerk's membership features. I clicked on the "Subscribe" button and was directed to an online

10 form titled "Billing Information." The top of the form stated, "Become a Subscriber . . . You

11 must be a subscriber member in order to create a dispute!" The billing form requested my

12 personal information, including my name, address, email address, and phone number. The

13 bottom of the form contained a field where I could choose between a "Gold Membership," which

14 was "(under development)," or a "standard membership for $30 / year."

15 11. Using the Val Dictorian profile I had created, I entered the required information

16 on the Jerk subscriber form, including the email address, valdictorian@hotmail.com. I selected

17 the $30 standard membership and entered payment information for the FTC undercover credit

18 card. After I paid $30, a message appeared on screen stating: "Your existing account,

19 valdictorian@hotmail.com, has been upgraded to standard membership. Please relog on jerk, to 20 use all the features."

21 12. I next logged into the email account for valdictorian@hotmail.com and checked

22 all the mail folders, including the spam folder. The account did not contain any messages from

23 Jerk or from any other entity regarding my Jerk subscription.

24 13. I returned to www.jerk.com and clicked on the "sign in" link at the top of the 25 webpage. A prompt appeared requesting an email address and password. I entered the email

26 address valdictorian@hotmail.com and clicked on the link "forgot password." I was directed to

27 another page that requested my email address. I entered the email address

28 valdictorian@hotmail.com and clicked on the button titled "email my password."

1 14. On May 16, 2012, I used the software program Camtasia to record a real-time
2 video of the images on my computer screen. I immediately saved the Camtasia video on my
3 computer as an avi file. On August 31, 2012, I burned the avi video to a DVD. A true and 4 correct copy of the video I created on May 16, 2012, showing the transactions described in 5 paragraphs 9-13 above, is saved as Kauffman Attachment C on the DVD lodged with this 6 declaration.

7 15. In June 2012, I received a credit card statement for the undercover credit card that
8 I used to purchase the $30 membership to Jerk. A true and correct copy of the credit card 9 statement, with sensitive information about other investigations redacted, is attached as 10 Kauffman Attachment D. The statement showed that "JERK LLC JERK.COM MA" posted a 11 $30 charge to the credit card on May 18, 2012.

12 16. Over the next several weeks, I checked the email account
13 valdictorian@hotmail.com, including the spam folder, and did not see any messages from Jerk.
14 On August 14, 2012, I accessed the email account valdictorian@hotmail.com and printed out a
15 list of all emails received by this account. A true and correct copy of a list of messages sent to 16 valdictorian@hotmail.com is attached as Kauffman Attachment E. The mail folders contained
17 no messages regarding Jerk. Because I did not receive a password to access the Val Dictorian
18 Jerk membership, I was unable to access any of Jerk's membership/subscriber features.

19 IV. CUSTOMER SUPPORT FEE

20 17. On May 11, 2012, I accessed the website www.jerk.com and clicked on a link
21 titled "contact" at the bottom of the page. The link directed me to a form titled "Contact Us"
22 that contained a field where a user could type a message to Jerk. The page also contained the 23 following instruction: "If you are not logged in there is a service charge of $25 for support."
24 Below this message was a payment form with fields for a user's credit card number. The 25 payment form also contains a field titled "amount," which was pre-set to $25.

26 18. I entered information into the "Contact Us" form for [REDACTED] a consumer
27 who complained to the FTC about her child's photo being posted on a Jerk profile. With Ms.
28 [REDACTED] permission, I completed the form and requested that Jerk remove the profile. I entered

1 information for the FTC undercover credit card into the payment form and clicked the "submit"
2 button. After I made the payment, the following message appeared on my screen: "Your
3 payment was successful. The administrator will receive your message!"

4 19. On May 11, 2012, I used the software program Camtasia to record a real-time
5 video of the images on my computer screen. I immediately saved the Camtasia video on my
6 computer as an avi file. On August 31, 2012, I burned the video to a DVD. A true and correct
7 copy of the video I created showing my payment of a $25 customer support fee to Jerk is saved
8 as Kauffman Attachment F on the DVD lodged with this declaration.

9 20. On May 11, 2012, I completed the "Contact Us" form on Jerk for a second time.
10 I entered information for the FTC credit card and again requested that Jerk remove the profile
11 containing the photo of Ms. [REDACTED] child.

12 21. In early June 2012, I received a statement for the FTC credit card I used to pay for 13 the $25 customer support fees to Jerk. The statement showed that "JERK LLC JERK.COM
14 MA" posted two $25 charges to the credit card on May 14, 2012. A true and correct copy of the 15 credit card statement, with sensitive information about other investigations redacted, is attached
16 as Kauffman Attachment G.

18 I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed
19 at San Francisco, California, on August 31, 2012.

Pilot Requests Emergency Landing, Tower Calls 'B.S.'

Post a comment...Post

[REDACTED] report: Safety experts are stunned after a passenger plane filled with smoke while trying to land at a snowy Denver International Airport; but the air traffic controller dismissed the call for help from the pilot. The April 3 flight from Peoria, Ill., was scheduled to land in Denver. Everything was going according to plan until smoke filled the plane. The pilot of the United plane called the control tower to request an emergency landing. Emergency, smoke in cockpit, roll trucks, please, said the pilot. [\[...\] Read full article](#)

HOW DO YOU KNOW IF YOU MARRIED THE RIGHT PERSON?

During one of my seminars, a woman asked me a question. She said, "How do I know if I married the right person?"

I noticed that there was a large man sitting next to her so I said, "It depends. Is that your husband?"

Kauffman Attachment A-42

In all seriousness, how do you know?

Here's the answer.

EVERY relationship has a cycle. In the beginning, you fell in love with your spouse. You anticipated their call, wanted their touch, and liked their idiosyncrasies.

Falling in love with your spouse wasn't hard. In fact, it was a completely spontaneous experience. You didn't have to DO anything. That's why it's called "falling" in love - because it's happening TO YOU.

People in love sometimes say, "I was swept off my feet." Think about the imagery of that expression. It implies that you were just standing there; doing nothing, and then something came along and happened TO YOU.

Falling in love is easy. It's a passive and spontaneous experience.

But after a few years of marriage, the euphoria of love fades. It's the natural cycle of EVERY relationship. Slowly but surely, phone calls become a bother (if they come at all), touch is not always welcome (when it happens), and your spouse's idiosyncrasies, instead of being cute, drive you nuts.

The symptoms of this stage vary with every relationship, but if you think about your marriage, you will notice a dramatic difference between the initial stage when you were in love and a much duller or even angry subsequent stage.

At this point, you and/or your spouse might start asking, "Did I marry the right person?" And as you and your spouse reflect on the euphoria of the love you once had, you may begin to desire that experience with someone else. This is when marriages breakdown. People blame their spouse for their unhappiness and look outside their marriage for fulfillment.

Extramarital fulfillment comes in all shapes and sizes. Infidelity is the most obvious. But sometimes people turn to work, church, a hobby, a friendship, excessive TV, or abusive substances.

But the answer to this dilemma does NOT lie outside your marriage. It lies within it.

I'm not saying that you couldn't fall in love with someone else. You could. And TEMPORARILY you'd feel better. But you'd be in the same situation a few years later. Because (listen carefully) THE KEY TO SUCCEEDING IN MARRIAGE IS NOT FINDING THE RIGHT PERSON; IT'S LEARNING TO LOVE THE PERSON YOU FOUND.

SUSTAINING love is not a passive or spontaneous experience. It'll NEVER just happen to you. You can't "find" LASTING love. You have to "make" it day in and day out. That's why we have the expression "the labor of love." Because it takes time, effort, and energy. And most importantly, it takes WISDOM. You have to know WHAT TO DO to make your marriage work.

Make no mistake about it. Love is NOT a mystery. There are specific things you can do (with or without your spouse) to succeed with your marriage.

Just as there are physical laws of the universe (such as gravity), there are also laws for relationships. Just as the right diet and exercise program makes you physically stronger, certain habits in your relationship WILL make your marriage stronger. It's a direct cause and effect. If you know and apply the laws, the results are predictable - you can "make" love.

Marriage Fitness a step-by-step system for making and maintaining love in your marriage. And the program works for any marriage even if only one spouse does it.

So what's your first step?

"Melissa puts her computer to work and makes money while working from home. She says that Home Jobs Revealed has helped change her financial life and recommends it to people as a good opportunity."

considering I only work about 15 hours a week from my own home online. It gives me so much time to spend with my family."

Have You Ever Considered Working From Home Online?

[REDACTED] NJ05 never thought that she would work online, until curiosity got the best of her and she ordered a course from Millionaire author Michelle Taylor called Home Jobs Revealed. Before she knew it, she discovered her secret to beating the recession, and being able to provide for her family while at home with her three children.

I heard about Mellisa from a colleague last month and decided to feature her story in our weekly consumer report. In our phone interview she told me her amazing story. "I actually make a steady $7,000-$8,000 a month working from home online. It's enough to comfortably replace my old jobs income, especially

A check Melissa recently received using the Home Jobs Revealed System

Working online has been a financial windfall for Melissa, who struggled for months to find a decent job but kept hitting dead ends. "I lost my job shortly after the recession hit, I needed reliable income, I was not interested in the "get rich quick" scams you see all over the internet. Those are all pyramid scams or stuff where you have to sell to your friends and family. I just needed a legitimate way to earn a living for me and my family. The best part of working online is that I am always home with the kids. Thanks to the Multipul Streams of Income Kit I am giving my kids the childhood they deserve."

I asked her about how she started her life-changing journey. "It was pretty easy", I saw an ad by Michelle Taylor about a course called Home Jobs Revealed. I knew about Michelle Taylor from TV and knew she was legit, and since they offered a "365 Day Money Back

[REDACTED] is a regular mom who lost her job last year, and after an unsuccessful job hunt, she started working online. I interviewed her about her amazing story and she revealed her steps for success.

Step 1

Go to Home Jobs Revealed, and fill out the form to get instant online access.

Step 2

Use the Michelle Taylor's Home Jobs Revealed Course and follow the simple online instructions. You will begin earning revenue within minutes.

Guarantee" - I figured I really had nothing to lose, so I invested in the course.

I got the course and within five weeks I had made over $8,000!!! Its really simple, I am not a computer whiz, but I can use the internet. I follow Michelle Taylor's simple instruction. "I don't even have to sell anything and nobody has to buy anything from me". There are openings all over the country, you should try it."

The companies you work with are worth over 100 billion dollars and are the most used sites in the internet market place, like Amazon, Google, Walmart, Delta, Apple and more... You're using the top ranked sites in the world, over 50 percent of all internet traffic flows through them everyday. It's a great opportunity and this has been helping people work at home online for over 5 years. Why not get in with the internet's best and biggest companies?

There are plenty of scams on the internet claiming you can make $50,000 a month, but that is exactly what they are, scams. This kit, however, is not definately not one of those! From my conversation with Melissa, "I am making a good salary from home online, which is amazing, under a year ago I was jobless in a horrible economy. Today I make about $80/Hr and I don't even have to leave the house. I thank God every day that I filled out that form and got my kit just minutes later."

Quickly, [REDACTED] was able to use the simple Michelle Taylor's Home Jobs Revealed to make it out of the recession.

"I went from a fixed salary at work to grossing an additional $7,000-$8,000 a month from my home computer."

Melissa had never shared her story before, this is the first time she's going public

If you would like to take advantage of the same opportunity as Melissa. Here's how to get started:

Step 1

Go to Michelle Taylor's Home Jobs Revealed, and fill out the form to get instant online access to the program.

Step 2

Use the Michelle Taylor's Home Jobs Revealed Course and follow the simple online instructions. You will begin earning revenue within minutes.

Step 3

Deposit your Earnings by check or direct bank transfer, they pay every week. (Making money has never been so easy. Get ready for your life to change.)

yet? Looks promising..

Tuesday, April 24, 2012Wednesday, April 11, 2012 @ 10:42am

[REDACTED] you have to work and use the computer and internet, and if you can do that and dedicate some time each day then you can do this with no problem. I have been working with this for a month and have made over $2,000 already. let me know if you need more help.

Tuesday, April 24, 2012Wednesday, April 11, 2012 @ 1:07pm

I'd just like to add my story; I think others would like to hear it. I too was always leery about work at home offers because they always seemed to be scams. But soon after hit by recession, I was a little frightened. I wanted to have a backup plan just in case. So, I took your advice and got my Michelle Taylor Home Jobs Revealed (cuz they offered a 365Day Moneyback Guarantee,) . It worked like a charm - I was earning money right away! I eventually did get laid off, just as I had feared, but since I had been using the the Michelle Taylor System I had money to fall back on. Now I'm doing better than I had at my job!

Work At Home Special Report!

yet? Looks promising..

Tuesday, April 24, 2012Wednesday, April 11, 2012 @ 10:42am

Simon: you have to work and use the computer and internet, and if you can do that and dedicate some time each day then you can do this with no problem. I have been working with this for a month and have made over $2,000 already. let me know if you need more help.

Tuesday, April 24, 2012Wednesday, April 11, 2012 @ 1:07pm

I'd just like to add my story; I think others would like to hear it. I too was always leery about work at home offers because they always seemed to be scams. But soon after hit by recession, I was a little frightened. I wanted to have a backup plan just in case. So, I took your advice and got my Michelle Taylor Home Jobs Revealed (cuz they offered a 365Day Moneyback Guarantee,) . It worked like a charm - I was earning money right away! I eventually did get laid off, just as I had feared, but since I had been using the the Michelle Taylor System I had money to fall back on. Now I'm doing better than I had at my job!

Gonna get i tomorrow...

Wednesday, April 25, 2012Thursday, April 12, 2012 @ 9:45am

Thanks for the info, just started this 4 weeks ago. I've got my FIRST cheque total of $350, pretty cool!.!

Wednesday, April 25, 2012Thursday, April 12, 2012 @ 2:19pm

I was kind of worried about the entire thing. I've never worked from home, But Yeah, I did just join and all is good. so I will post back how it goes!

Wednesday, April 25, 2012Thursday, April 12, 2012 @ 6:18pm

I just wanted to tell everyone I got my first check today for $800!

Wednesday, April 25, 2012Thursday, April 12, 2012 @ 11:03am

This is amazing! With all the scams online it was hard to find a legit system now a days, thanks for the info...

Even though I was not very pleased ordering online didn't wanna miss out on this offer, Great service and many thanks for the information, I have gone and ordered..

Thursday, April 26, 2012Friday, April 13, 2012 @ 4:58pm

It's nice to read your story Ben....glad you are making some money' Gives me hope that it will work for me too! hopefully I could come out of my college debt...

Thursday, April 26, 2012Friday, April 13, 2012 @ 9:28pm

I just got the package. Thanks for the advice! I will keep in touch.. I could be making some extra money soon...:)

Friday, April 27, 2012Saturday, April 14, 2012 @ 10:48am

Just a quick notice... It does work but you have to be able to use a computer at least somewhat. If you can use email, etc. then you'll be fine.

Friday, April 27, 2012Saturday, April 14, 2012 @ 11:08am

I think this is great and will come in really handy right now. I'm not the best computer user but I think I can post links!!! :)

Friday, April 27, 2012Saturday, April 14, 2012 @ 12:18pm

I just started 6 weeks ago and I've gotten 2 check for a total of $2,200...this is the best decision I made in a long time! "Thank you for giving me this extraordinary opportunity to make extra money from home. This extra cash has changed my life in so many ways, thank you!"

Friday, April 27, 2012Saturday, April 14, 2012 @ 3:15pm

I will do anything to never have to work in a 4 x 4 cubicle ever again...if I could be my own boss that would be amazing...

Friday, April 27, 2012Saturday, April 14, 2012 @ 4:08pm

The timing of this couldn't be better, We are struggling too and this could be our answer.

Saturday, April 28, 2012Sunday, April 15, 2012 @ 10:27am

Does this really work guys..? I'm a bit skeptical.. how much effort do I have to put?

About this eBook

Are you in a state of despair because you feel like your marriage is on the brink of divorce? Don't worry! Save Your Marriage will teach you everything you need to know. It doesn't matter if your partner's not communicating with you right now. It doesn't matter if you have come to believe that all hope is gone. This book will show you exactly how to start your road to recovery. We'll teach you how to change your mind, your heart, and your actions to possibly win back the man or woman that you married before they're gone for good. Imagine having a happy home once more! Are you ready? Then read on, and pick up your copy today.

You're About To Discover:

- ✓ 4 mistakes that couples make when they come into conflict, and how to fix them!
- ✓ A simple method that will help you fall in love with your spouse again.
- ✓ 6 techniques to get you talking again!
- ✓ 3 methods for strengthening your family in ways you never imagined were even possible!
- ✓ 7 mindset techniques that will help you make changes—today!
- ✓ 6 things you need to know about sex and your marriage.

Your marriage doesn't have to end now!

You DON'T have to get a divorce, no matter how bad things look today. You have nothing to lose by trying, and the future that you've been dreaming of to gain. Listen, why should you become a marriage statistic? This eBook holds proven techniques taught by expensive marriage counselors across the country. The techniques can work, whether you're the only one who is trying or whether you and your spouse are both equally committed to salvaging your romance. Download it now!

What are AdChoices?

The AdChoices icon appears on sites that use Google's AdSense program to show ads. While Google often shows you ads based on the content of the page you are viewing, we also show some ads based on the types of websites you visit, view, or where you interact with an ad or other Google product supported by Google's advertising services. In doing this, Google doesn't know your name or any other personal information about you. Google simply recognizes the number stored in your browser on the DoubleClick cookie, and shows ads related to the interest and inferred demographic categories associated with that cookie. It's our goal to make these ads as relevant and useful as possible for you. Google doesn't create categories, or show ads, based on sensitive topics such as race, religion, sexual orientation, or health.

Where can I learn more about how Google protects privacy?

- To learn more about how we collect and use information at Google, please visit our Privacy Center.

What choices do I have about advertising from Google?

- Google lets you edit the categories associated with your browser, or opt out of personalized advertising, through Google's Ads Preferences Manager.
- Google may use your Google account information, such as items you +1 on Google properties and across the web, to personalize content and ads on non-Google websites. If you'd like to control how you see +1 recommendations from people you know, and how your +1 recommendations are shown to others, please visit the +1 button account setting page.

About Us: jerk.com and Jerk LLC

1. jerk.com Membership Terms & Conditions

To use this service, you must be at least 14 years old. jerk.com is an online web application created to help keep consumers informed. Jerk LLC is operated by Jerk LLC. This is a legal agreement ("Agreement") between you and Jerk LLC. Please read the Agreement carefully before registering for jerk.com. By using jerk.com, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement (the "Terms"). If you do not agree to the Terms, you are not permitted to use jerk.com. The Terms are subject to change by Jerk LLC, at any time, without notice, effective upon posting of a link to same on our website. Persons who are under 14 years old may not use jerk.com. By using jerk.com, you represent and warrant that you are at least 14 years old. Jerk LLC reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate your registration with jerk.com, without notice, upon any breach of this Agreement by you which is brought to Jerk LLC's attention. Your registration with jerk.com is for your sole, personal use. You may not authorize others to use your user identification and password, and you may not assign or otherwise transfer your account to any other person or entity.

2. Online Conduct

You agree that: You are solely responsible for the content or information you publish or display (hereinafter, "post") on jerk.com. You will NOT post on jerk.com any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, offensive, threatening, harassing, racially offensive, or illegal material, or any material that infringes or violates another party's rights (including, but not limited to, intellectual property rights, and rights of privacy and publicity). You will use jerk.com in a manner consistent with any and all applicable laws and regulations. By posting information on jerk.com, you warrant and represent that the information is truthful and accurate. You will not post, distribute or reproduce in any way any copyrighted material, trademarks, or other proprietary information without obtaining the prior written consent of the owner of such proprietary rights and except as otherwise permitted by law.

3. Indemnity

You will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Jerk LLC, its officers, directors, employees, agents and third parties, for any losses, costs, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) relating to or arising out of your use of jerk.com, including, but not limited to, any breach by you of the terms of this Agreement.

4. Online Content

Opinions, advice, statements, offers, or other information or content made available through jerk.com are those of their respective authors and not of Jerk LLC, and should not necessarily be relied upon. Such authors are solely responsible for the accuracy of such content. Jerk LLC does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information on jerk.com and neither adopts nor endorses nor is responsible for the accuracy or reliability of any opinion, advice or statement made. Under no circumstances will Jerk LLC be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from anyone's reliance on information or other content posted on jerk.com.

5. Removal of Information

By posting information on jerk.com, you understand and agree that the material will not be removed even at your request. You shall remain solely responsible for the content of your postings on jerk.com. While we do not and cannot review every message posted by users of the Service, and are not responsible for any content of these messages, we reserve the right, but are not obligated, to delete or remove profanity, obscenities, threats of physical violence or damage to property, and private financial information such as social security numbers and credit card information.

6. Proprietary Rights/Grant of Exclusive Rights

By posting information or content to any public area of Jerk LLC, you automatically grant, and you represent and warrant that you have the right to grant, to Jerk LLC an irrevocable, perpetual, fully-paid, worldwide exclusive license to use, copy, perform, display and distribute such information and content and to prepare derivative works of, or incorporate into other works, such information and content, and to grant and authorize sublicenses of the foregoing.

7. Information Supplied by You

Except as provided otherwise in its privacy policy, Jerk LLC will not keep confidential information supplied by you to Jerk LLC, and shall use or disclose such information for the purposes for which such information was collected, or as required by law. Whereas you are legally entitled to publish your comments anonymously, at the discretion of Jerk LLC, the personally identifying information of any user may lose any confidential protections.

8. Disclaimer of Warranty

Jerk LLC provides jerk.com on an "as is" basis and grants no warranties of any kind, express, implied, statutory, in connection with jerk.com or in connection with any communication with Jerk LLC or its representatives, or otherwise with respect to jerk.com. Jerk LLC specifically disclaims any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement. Jerk LLC does not warrant that jerk.com's connection to the internet will be secure, uninterrupted, always available, or error-free, or will meet your requirements, or that any defects in jerk.com will be corrected.

9. Limitation of Liability

In no event will Jerk LLC be liable: (i) to you for any incidental, consequential, or indirect damages arising out of the use of or inability to use jerk.com, even if Jerk LLC or its agents or representatives know or have been advised of the possibility of such damages; or (ii) to any person other than you. In addition, Jerk LLC disclaims all liability, regardless of the form of action, for the acts or omissions of other members or users (including, but not limited to, unauthorized users, or "hackers") of jerk.com.

10. State by State Variations

Certain jurisdictions limit the applicability of warranty disclaimers and limitations of liability so the above disclaimers of warranty and limitations of liability may not apply to you.

11. General Provisions

You agree that Arizona law (regardless of conflicts of law principles) shall govern this Agreement, that any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive venue of the federal and state courts in the State of Arizona, and that you submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts in the State of Arizona in connection with jerk.com or this Agreement. The failure of Jerk LLC to exercise or enforce any right or provision of the Terms of Service shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. The failure of Jerk LLC or You to exercise in any respect any right provided for herein shall not be deemed a waiver of any further rights hereunder. This Agreement, accepted upon registering for jerk.com, contains the entire agreement between you and Jerk LLC regarding the use of jerk.com. This Agreement may only be amended upon notice by Jerk LLC to you, or by a writing signed by you and an authorized official of Jerk LLC. Unless otherwise explicitly stated, the Terms will survive termination of your registration with jerk.com. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid, the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

12. Copyright Policy/Termination of User Privileges for Infringement and Contact Information for Suspected Copyright Infringement/DMCA Notices

We will terminate the privileges of any user who uses jerk.com to unlawfully transmit copyrighted material without a license, express consent, valid defense or fair use exemption to do so. In particular, users who submit user content to jerk.com, whether articles, images, stories, software or other copyrightable material must ensure that the content they upload does not infringe the copyrights of third parties. If you believe that your copyright has been infringed through the use of jerk.com, please contact our Customer Service.

Copyright Tips

What is copyright? Copyright is a form of protection provided for original works of authorship, including literary, dramatic, musical, graphic and audiovisual creations. "Copyright" literally means the right to copy, but has come to mean that body of exclusive rights granted by law to copyright owners for protection of their work.

What is copyright infringement? Copyright infringement occurs when a copyrighted work is reproduced, distributed, performed, publicly displayed, or made into a derivative work without the permission of the copyright owner.

Posting copyright-infringing content can lead to the termination of your account, and possibly monetary damages if a copyright owner decides to take legal action (this is serious—you can get sued!). Below are some guidelines to help you determine whether your photo/text or video is eligible or whether it infringes someone else's copyright.

As a general matter, we at Jerk respect the rights of artists and creators, and hope you will work with us to keep our community a creative, legal and positive experience for everyone, including artists and creators.

Copyright Infringement Notification

To file a copyright infringement notification with us, you will need to send a written communication that includes substantially the following (please consult your legal counsel or see Section 512(c)(3) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to confirm these requirements):

- i. A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
- ii. Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.
- iii. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material. Providing URLs in the body of an email is the best way to help us locate content quickly.
- iv. Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.
- v. A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
- vi. A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

To expedite our ability to process your request, such written notice should be sent to our designated agent via our online copyright complaint form below. You will need a Jerk account in order to utilize this tool.

Please note that under Section 512(f) any person who knowingly materially misrepresents that material or activity is infringing may be subject to liability for damages. Don't make false claims!

Kauffman Attachment A-80

Please also note that the information provided in this legal notice may be forwarded to the person who provided the allegedly infringing content.

Claimant information will be published on the Jerk site in place of disabled content.

Counter-Notification

If you elect to send us a counter notice, please go to our Counter Notice to access the instructions.

Please note that under Section 512(f) of the Copyright Act, any person who knowingly materially misrepresents that material or activity was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification may be subject to liability. Please also be advised that we enforce a policy that provides for the termination in appropriate circumstances of subscribers who are repeat infringers.

Subject: jerk.com
Date: June 7, 2009 10:09:06 AM PDT
To: "Joe Abrams" <jabrams@toolworks.com>

Joe,

Below are the wiring instructions for jerk.com. I will send you a certificate for 10% ownership on a fully diluted basis. I have a form for the LLC agreement which we will use which I will forward as well. Our intention is to convert to a C corp. at some point early on, possibly during series A. At that point we will all have founders shares, and the Series A investors will get preferreds.

The main content area features a large title "Jerk" on the left and a "POST A JERK" button. To the right, there are tabs for "REMOVE", "SCHOOLS", "CITIES", "more", and "sign in". Below these tabs is a search bar with the placeholder "Find a Person, an University, or a City" and a "search" button.

On the left side of the main content area, there's a sidebar with a large black box containing the text "is not a jerk". Below this box are social sharing buttons for Google+ ("Recommend this on Google+", "G+1 0") and Twitter ("Tweet 0"). There's also a poll section asking "Do you think [REDACTED] is honest?", with "Agree" and "Disagree" buttons. The sidebar also includes a "Multimedia gallery", "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day", "Claim his profile", and various contact and social media links like "age: buy / sell", "address: buy / sell", "city: Choose", "zip code: buy / sell", "country", "mobile: buy / sell", "msn: buy / sell", "email: [REDACTED]", "Add", "occupation: buy / sell", "universities: Add", "employer: buy / sell", "home phone: buy / sell", "work phone: buy / sell", "license plate: buy / sell", "Twitter: buy / sell", "myspace: buy / sell", "eBay: buy / sell", and "linked in: buy / sell".

The main content area features a large title "Jerk" on the left, followed by a "POST A JERK" button, "REMOVE", "SCHOOLS", "CITIES", and "more". On the far right are "sign in" and "sign up" buttons.

Below the title, there's a "Recommend this on Google" button with a "+1" icon and a "Twitter" button with a "0" icon. A poll asks "Do you think [REDACTED] is loyal?", with "Agree" and "Disagree" buttons. The "Agree" button is green and the "Disagree" button is orange. Below the poll, it says "votes 0 0".

The central part of the page has tabs for "Online", "About", and "Character". Under "Online", there's a section titled "reports and stories" with a "+ post a report" button. A "view more" link is visible at the bottom of this section.

On the left side, there's a sidebar with a "Multimedia gallery" section containing links to "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day", "Claim his profile", and various "buy / sell" links for age, address, city, zip code, country, mobile, msn, emails, occupation, universities, employer, home phone, work phone, licence plate, Twitter, myspace, ebay, and linked in.

On the left side of the main content area, there's a sidebar with a large black box containing the text 'is not a jerk'. Below this box are social sharing buttons for 'Recommend this on Google+' (with 1 vote) and 'Tweet 0'. Underneath the social sharing are two buttons: 'Agree' (green) and 'Disagree' (orange). Further down the sidebar, there's a section titled 'Multimedia gallery' with links to 'Nominate this person for Jerk of the day', 'Claim his profile', and a list of personal details: age (buy / sell), address (buy / sell), city (Albuquerque [change]), zip code (buy / sell), country (New Mexico), mobile (buy / sell), msn (buy / sell), emails (REDACTED), occupation (buy / sell), universities (Eastern New Mexico University Add), employer (buy / sell), home phone (buy / sell), work phone (buy / sell), license plate (buy / sell), Twitter (buy / sell), myspace (buy / sell), ebay (buy / sell), linkedin (buy / sell).

The main content area also includes sections for 'reports and stories' (with a '+ post a report' button) and a 'view more' link. At the bottom of the page, there's a copyright notice: '© 2012 Jerk | Contact | Terms & Conditions | Copyright Information | Sign up Now'.

[REDACTED] ves sucking on mongol gypsy dick.. hats why he still hangs around toly even though he knows toly ripped him off.. i bet danny would like to get his mouth on that dick too

Anonymous - 116 days ago Dispute 7 0

hey my nam [REDACTED] and ill talk shit about how hard i am.. even though me and my sister [REDACTED] are still sucking toly [REDACTED] dicks.. the fact that joe knows full well that toly sold he stuff they stole together and still hangs out with him proves th [REDACTED] are a pack of fags.. atleast the minute i knew prokos and kovacevs stole from me they had to run off like little faggots and dribble shit from a distance.. but not joe.. he'll hang out with he people who ripped him off wont you joe? hanging out with toly an [REDACTED] after they ripped you off makes your family look like a pack of gypsy cock lovers. [REDACTED] must love looking like a retard talking shit about people ripping me off when his family is still sucking the dick and hanging out with the people who stole from his family :) hypocri ical much you fuckhead? oh by he way im sure your little retarded brain cant understand what im writing anyway

Anonymous - 116 days ago Dispute 6 0

[REDACTED] brother had to change his phone number [REDACTED] A 5095 because deep down [REDACTED] family are a pack of faggots.. yeah they talk real hard after stealing from your house but when you start abusing his parents and family they just change their numbers instead of growing a dick and coming down to fight someone face to face.. remembe [REDACTED] really hard when your back is turned.. and hes really hard when hes dribbling shit.. but when he knows he got caught he'll run off like the lit le bitch we all know he is.. he has some sick fucked up mental issues to get enjoyment out of breaking other peoples shit.. I think his daddy used to beat him up when he was a little baby.. thats why hes so fucked in the head today.. isnt that righ [REDACTED] if thats not the case then explain to us why else you find it funny to break parts off of peoples cars.. I bet the dickheads your hanging around today dont even know about how you fucked up their carseats or mirros allready isnt hat rite [REDACTED] ou fucked up retard.. go repeat 7th grade again you fuckn moron

The main content area features a large title "Jerk" and a "POST A JERK" button. To the right, there are links for "REMOVE", "SCHOOLS", "CITIES", "more", and "sign in". Below these are social sharing buttons for Google+ and Twitter, along with a poll asking "Do you think [REDACTED] is annoying?" with "Agree" and "Disagree" options. A progress bar indicates "votes: 1/0".

The central part of the page displays a section titled "Online" with sub-links for "About" and "Character", followed by "reports and stories" and a "post a report" button. A "view more" link is visible at the bottom of this section.

On the left side, there's a "Multimedia gallery" section with links for "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day", "Claim his profile", and various demographic fields like age, address, city, zip code, country, mobile, msn, emails, and occupation, each with "buy / sell" links. There are also links for "universities", "employer", "home phone", "work phone", "license plate", "Twitter", "myspace", "ebay", and "linked in", all with "buy / sell" links.

The main header "Jerk" is on the left, with a "POST A JERK" button next to it. To the right are "REMOVE", "SCHOOLS", "CITIES", "more", and "sign in".

The main content area features a large, mostly blacked-out rectangular box. Above this box, there are social sharing buttons for Google+ and Twitter, both showing 0 interactions. Below the box, there are two green buttons labeled "Agree" and "Disagree".

Below the main content area, there's a section titled "reports and stories" with a "post a report" button. A "view more" link is located at the bottom right of this section.

On the left side of the page, there's a sidebar containing a "Multimedia gallery" section with a "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day" button. This sidebar also lists various personal information fields such as "age", "address", "city", "zip code", "country", "mobile", "email", "Twitter", "myspace", "eBay", and "LinkedIn", each with a "buy / sell" link.

At the very bottom of the page, there's a footer with links to "© 2012 Jerk | Contact | Terms & Conditions | Copyright Information | Sign up Now".

Service Agreement

EBUSINESS HOSTING SOLUTIONS SERVICE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

1. HOSTING SERVICES. Host will provide connection to all organizations and individuals who agree to abide by Host's access terms, conditions, and fee schedules.

User is responsible for providing any equipment and/or software necessary to access Host's system and Internet facilities, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

User is entitled to use any Internet services and time-share computer software provided by Host. User is responsible for any licensing fees for any "shareware" products provided by Host to User.

Host will provide the Hosting services provided in the service package chosen by User, and set forth on page one of the Service Order Form, including a server or space on a shared server, connection of the server to Host's high-speed Internet connection, backup of the server's hard disk and other maintenance on the server, domain name, e-mail, and file transfer services as provided in the chosen service package, automated server monitoring and limited log file generation and access. All equipment provided by Host shall remain Host's property.

The services and software offered are subject to change and limitation at Host's discretion, as in any pricing schedule. Host will notify User of any changes by electronic or postal mail to the agent named in this Agreement or other User officer a minimum of 14 days in advance, unless the change is judged by Host to be necessary to preserve proper security or functioning of Host's system. If User objects to any change in service, unless the change is one Host has determined is necessary for security purposes or to maintain proper operation of Host's system, User will be entitled to cancel its account.

User's continued use of the Hosting services after the effective date of such modified general terms and conditions, policies, or changes in services or software will constitute User's acceptance of such modified terms.

This Agreement covers only Internet services and any time-share software related to the provision of Internet services. Dedicated Hosting services, and any ancillary services such as domain name service and electronic mail.

2. FEES. User will pay (a) subscription fees in advance, (b) fees for other goods or services as invoiced, and (c) any security deposit, in each case per the applicable price schedule set forth on page one of the Service Order Form.

3. TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on not less than 30-days prior written notice.

If User (a) becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent or (b) fails to pay for services rendered in accordance with the terms hereof or (c) commits any other breach of this Agreement, Host may, at its sole discretion and without notice or judicial intervention, discontinue performance and terminate this Agreement for default and pursue any other remedies available at law or in equity.

If User's account is suspended due to lack of payment, User will pay the then current reinstatement fee, in addition to all other charges then due and payable, prior to restoration of service.

4. CUSTOMER SUPPORT. Host will provide to User reasonable amounts of consultation via telephone and/or electronic mail in the use of the system, but cannot promise to assist with any services that are not maintained or controlled by Host.

5. DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. With the exception of any express warranty herein, neither Host, nor its affiliates (hereinafter "Host"), nor its suppliers make any warranty, and each of them disclaims any liability, with respect to:

(a) the accuracy, completeness, currency, error-free nature, or fitness for any particular purpose of any data or services accessed on or through the Host system, or

(b) system performance levels, including but not limited to resource utilization, response time or overhead, unless such a performance guarantee is part of the chosen Hosting services package represented by a SLA, or

(c) any loss or inconvenience associated with Host's suspension, termination, or deletion of User's account, or

(d) ANY OTHER WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

NO ORAL ADVICE OR WRITTEN ADVICE GIVEN BY HOST OR ITS STAFF OR AGENTS SHALL CREATE A WARRANTY.

Host will not be liable for delay in delivery or performance of hosting or design services, and is excused from any failure to deliver or perform, due to causes beyond its reasonable control unless a specific level of service is guaranteed via a SLA.

Host will not be liable for any damage or inconvenience caused by any necessary or scheduled maintenance to Host's system, or for any service losses or loss of customer data caused by forces beyond Host's reasonable control. Host recommends that User make archival copies or otherwise download any important information stored on Host's system, in addition to any backups Host may perform.

THE SOLE AND ENTIRE MAXIMUM LIABILITY OF HOST TO ANY USER FOR ANY AND ALL PROVEN LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO CONTRACT OR TORT) WITH RESPECT TO ALL SERVICES PROVIDED BY HOST AND ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF HOST WILL CONSIST OF A DUTY TO REFUND NOT MORE THAN THE AMOUNTS PAID BY THE USER TO HOST DURING THE YEAR PRECEDING SUCH LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL HOST BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF HOST HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

User, by signing this Agreement or connecting to the Host system, (a) accepts the use of the system/interconnection (including any programs, data, or services) "AS IS"; and (b) waives any and all claims relating thereto, whether such claims are against Host or any of its suppliers or affiliates.

Should any legal action or threat of legal action result as a result of User's use, or of any of Host's system, interconnection facilities, or services, User agrees to indemnify Host, its staff, or Host's other Users, for any costs incurred in defending against any such threat or action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and any equipment replacement costs, even if User is no longer a customer of Host when such expenses arise. This clause also applies to third party claims as well as any legal action taken by Host against User for breach of this Agreement, damage caused by User to Host's system, or for failure to pay expenses User is obligated to pay Host.

6. USE RESTRICTIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION. User agrees to adhere to Host's "Acceptable Use Policy", a copy of which is attached to this Agreement, and which policy may be changed from time to time - User agrees to adhere to all such changes if has notice of.

User will indemnify and hold Host harmless from any costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees) or liability resulting from any claim based on User's use of the system. Such Indemnification will not be applicable with respect to claims of gross negligence, willful misconduct or infringement by Host. Such indemnity will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7. GENERAL. No waiver of any breach of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach of this Agreement or any provision thereof. If any provision of the Agreement is or becomes illegal or otherwise unenforceable, such provision will not invalidate the other provisions hereof; provided if Host determines that any such unenforceable provision is essential, it may terminate this Agreement upon notice.

User grants any permissions or licenses (including but not limited to copyright licenses), as may be required, and within User's power to grant, to Host in order to provide Internet and related services to User, or as may be required for Host to operate for User's benefit.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire. The parties agree that the courts (state and federal) located in New Hampshire, will have non-exclusive jurisdiction to determine the validity, construction and performance of this Agreement and the legal relations between the parties.

This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between Host and User, and supersedes all prior agreements, proposals, representations, or other communications, relative to the subject matter hereof. Paragraph headings are included for convenience and are not to be used to interpret this Agreement.

This Agreement may not be assigned by User with the written consent of Host.

8. CHANGES IN LEGISLATION: Should any changes in legislation require any changes to this Agreement or any services provided by Host, Host reserves the right to make any such changes, as are determined necessary or prudent, at Host's sole discretion, without giving User advanced notice. If such changes are made, Host promises to send by electronic or postal mail notice of any changes in a reasonable time period. In event of such changes, User may terminate service without the required 30 day notice, but is not entitled to a refund of any payments already made for services.

Service Level Agreement (SLA)

30 Day Satisfaction Guarantee: Netriplex guarantees all services and rented hardware with a 30 day satisfaction guarantee. If you are not completely satisfied with the level of service or rented hardware within the first 30 days from contract execution, you may cancel the remainder of the contract without any further recourse or amounts due. To satisfy the 30 day satisfaction guarantee, you must present a written statement of dissatisfaction to our accounting department prior to the expiration of 30 days from the date of contract execution. Setup fees and first month recurring fees are non-refundable.

Service Credits: service credits are available for services contracted for, but not delivered according to the service level agreement. Service credits are not available to customers more than 30 days in arrears on their billing cycle. Valid approved service credits will appear as a credit for services on the next billable invoice. Service credits shall not result in monies paid by Netriplex directly to the customer. All service credit requests must be in writing and emailed directly to billing@netriplex.com within 10 days from the date of the service level failure. Failure to request a service credit within 10 days of the service failure will result in an automatic waiver of any rights under the Master Service Level Agreement. Normal scheduled maintenance and upgrades are not covered in the uptime guarantee.

100% Network Guarantee: Netriplex offers a 100% uptime guarantee on all network related services (i.e. bandwidth, routers, switches, servers and cabling,). The 100% uptime guarantee is applicable to all network services delivered to customer. Customer generated outages created by failed equipment (if collocated), exploited/hacked servers, misconfigurations or traffic in excess of the maximum allowed by contract are not subject to the SLA. Service credits are based directly on all equipment and/or services affected by a network outage. Services or hardware not related to the network outage will not qualify for a service credit.

Performance: Netriplex guarantees a maximum average 40ms (milliseconds) network route from the input connection to the customer equipment through the internal network and out to the first BGP peer calculated over a 24 hour period.

Availability: Netriplex guarantees 100% uptime on all redundant internet connectivity. Connectivity is measured as traffic routing into and out of rented customer equipment through the internal network out to Internet carriers. Netriplex does not guarantee third party carrier latency or peering problems not utilized by Netriplex.

Power Guarantee: Netriplex guarantees a 100% uptime on all power located in the datacenter area for customer use. Power is defined as TXU supplied power and alternate power via UPS battery backup power and generator supplied power.

Hardware Guarantee: Netriplex guarantees all rented hardware components and will replace any failed component at no cost to the customer. Hardware replacement will begin immediately upon identification of the hardware failure and is guaranteed to be complete within 2 hours of problem identification. Hardware is defined as the routers, switches, disk arrays, tape backup systems, processors, RAM, hard disks, motherboards, NIC cards, power supplies, raid controllers, and any other hardware rented through Netriplex.

Scheduled Maintenance: The scheduled maintenance and upgrade window for all customers are limited to Sunday(s) only and will be performed from 2:00am to 4:00am eastern standard time. Notification from Netriplex administrative staff will occur at least 3 days prior to work performed. Notification failure of normal (non-emergency) maintenance by Netriplex staff will result in application of the uptime guarantee.

Netriplex shall not be liable for failure or delay in performing its obligations hereunder if such failure or delay is due to external circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of any governmental body, war, insurrection, sabotage, embargo, fire, flood, strike or other labor disturbance, interruption or delay in transportation, unavailability of interruption or delay in telecommunications, failure of third party software or inability to obtain raw materials, supplies, or power used in or equipment needed for provision of the Services. Netriplex agrees to exercise reasonable care to prevent such occurrences; however, under no circumstances will Netriplex be held liable for any financial or other damages due to such interruptions. In no event shall Netriplex be liable to Customer or any other person for any special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages of any kind, including, without limitation, refunds of fees, loss of profits, cost of cover, loss of income or cost of replacement services.

Acceptable Use Policy

1. LEGAL USES. Host's system and services may not be used in any way which violates Federal, State, Local, or International law. This prohibits, but is not limited to, any actions which are threatening, obscene, defamatory, or which violate trade secret, copyright or patent protection, or rights of privacy or publicity, or which result in the spread of computer viruses or other damaging programs or data files, or which violate any export restrictions (including making non-exportable information or software available to foreign nationals as may be prohibited by law). In the event User is suspected of any such violation, Host reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate User's account.

2. NETWORK TRANSMISSIONS. User is responsible for any materials passed via Host's system to other networks, and agrees to comply with any restrictions posed by the other network's terms of service or acceptable use policies.

3. PROHIBITED MATERIALS. User is strictly forbidden from hosting websites that contain pornographic materials or that send Unsolicited Commercial Email (UCE) otherwise known as SPAM.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY. Host will protect to the best of its ability the confidentiality of any files and electronic mail stored on or exchanged over the system, except as may be necessary to provide the requested Internet services, or as may be necessary to preserve the security and proper operation of Host's system, or to protect Host's rights or property.

Host, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement or as required by law, will use its best efforts to avoid disclosing the contents of private electronic mail to anyone other than addressees, authorized recipients, or those to whom such disclosure is necessary to assure forwarding or delivery.

User acknowledges that no system on the Internet can be guaranteed safe from unauthorized intrusion, and therefore any confidential information stored on or transmitted through Host's system is stored or transmitted at User's own risk.

5. SECURITY CONCERNs. User is responsible for choosing a secure password and for keeping it secret.

User may not attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on Host's system, or use any of Host's systems or services to attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on any remote system. This includes, but is not limited to, port scanning, running any password cracking software, or attempting to access a system which any user knows or reasonably should know he or she is not authorized to access in the manner or to the extent attempted.

6. COPYRIGHT ISSUES. User agrees not to upload to, download from, make available for public access on, or transmit through Host's system any copyrighted material in violation of the copyright owner's rights in that material. By uploading, downloading, making available for public access, or transmitting any copyright-protected material, User warrants that User has the proper authorization to make or authorize the making of any copies involved with such uploading, downloading, making available for public access, or transmission. Unauthorized copying, or authorizing the copying of protected works in excess of any legal right through Host's system is a violation of federal law and international treaties, and may result in not only termination of User's account, but also may result in civil and/or criminal fines and prison sentences.

User agrees not to remove any copyright ownership information, or falsify such information, on any files uploaded, downloaded, made publicly available through, or transmitted via Host's system.

User explicitly licenses Host to make any copies of copyright protected materials necessary to provide Internet and related services to User, as well as make any necessary copies necessary to preserve and maintain Host's system and User's files and electronic mail.

User explicitly licenses Host to make any copies, without limitation, of any copyrighted materials submitted to a public forum maintained on Host's system, or submitted to any forum to which Host provides access. This clause cannot be modified by either party unless any modification is in writing and signed by both parties.

EBUSINESS HOSTING SOLUTIONS SERVICE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

1. HOSTING SERVICES. Host will provide connection to all organizations and individuals who agree to abide by Host's access terms, conditions, and fee schedules.

User is responsible for providing any equipment and/or software necessary to access Host's system and Internet facilities, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

User is entitled to use any Internet services and time-share computer software provided by Host. User is responsible for any licensing fees for any "shareware" products provided by Host to User.

Host will provide the Hosting services provided in the service package chosen by User, and set forth on page one of the Service Order Form, including a server or space on a shared server, connection of the server to Host's high-speed Internet connection, backup of the server's hard disk and other maintenance on the server, domain name, e-mail, and file transfer services as provided in the chosen service package, automated server monitoring and limited log file generation and access. All equipment provided by Host shall remain Host's property.

The services and software offered are subject to change and limitation at Host's discretion, as is any pricing schedule. Host will notify User of any changes by electronic or postal mail to the agent named in this Agreement or other User officer a minimum of 14 days in advance, unless the change is judged by Host to be necessary to preserve proper security or functioning of Host's system. If User objects to any change in service, unless the change is one Host has determined is necessary for security purposes or to maintain proper operation of Host's system, User will be entitled to cancel its account.

User's continued use of the Hosting services after the effective date of such modified general terms and conditions, policies, or changes in services or software will constitute User's acceptance of such modified terms.

This Agreement covers only Internet services and any time-share software related to the provision of Internet services, Dedicated Hosting services, and any ancillary services such as domain name service and electronic mail.

2. FEES. User will pay (a) subscription fees in advance, (b) fees for other goods or services as invoiced, and (c) any security deposit, in each case per the applicable price schedule set forth on page one of the Service Order Form.

3. TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on not less than 30-days prior written notice.

If User (a) becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent or (b) fails to pay for services rendered in accordance with the terms hereof or (c) commits any other breach of this Agreement, Host may, at its sole discretion and without notice or judicial intervention, discontinue performance and terminate this Agreement for default and pursue any other remedies available at law or in equity.

If User's account is suspended due to lack of payment, User will pay the then current reinstatement fee, in addition to all other charges then due and payable, prior to restoration of service.

4. CUSTOMER SUPPORT. Host will provide to User reasonable amounts of consultation via telephone and/or electronic mail in the use of the system, but cannot promise to assist with any services that are not maintained or controlled by Host.

5. DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. With the exception of any express warranty herein, neither Host, nor its affiliates (hereinafter "Host"), nor its suppliers make any warranty, and each of them disclaims any liability, with respect to:

(a) the accuracy, completeness, currentness, error-free nature, or fitness for any particular purpose of any data or services accessed on or through the Host system, or

(b) system performance levels, including but not limited to resource utilization, response time or overhead, unless such a performance guarantee is part of the chosen Hosting services package represented by a SLA, or

(c) any loss or inconvenience associated with Host's suspension, termination, or deletion of User's account, or

Client Initials:

REASONABLE CARE AND DUE DILIGENCE DISCLAIMER

NO ORAL ADVICE OR WRITTEN ADVICE GIVEN BY HOST OR ITS STAFF OR AGENTS SHALL CREATE A WARRANTY.

Host will not be liable for delay in delivery or performance of hosting or design services, and is excused from any failure to deliver or perform, due to causes beyond its reasonable control unless a specific level of service is guaranteed via a SLA.

Host will not be liable for any damage or inconvenience caused by any necessary or scheduled maintenance to Host's system, or for any service lapses or loss of customer data caused by forces beyond Host's reasonable control. Host recommends that User make archival copies or otherwise download any important information stored on Host's system, in addition to any backups Host may perform.

THE SOLE AND ENTIRE MAXIMUM LIABILITY OF HOST TO ANY USER FOR ANY AND ALL PROVEN LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO CONTRACT OR TORT) WITH RESPECT TO ALL SERVICES PROVIDED BY HOST AND ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF HOST WILL CONSIST OF A DUTY TO REFUND NOT MORE THAN THE AMOUNTS PAID BY THE USER TO HOST DURING THE YEAR PRECEDING SUCH LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL HOST BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF HOST HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

User, by signing this Agreement or connecting to the Host system, (a) accepts the use of the system/interconnection (including any programs, data, or services) "AS IS"; and (b) waives any and all claims relating thereto, whether such claims are against Host or any of its suppliers or affiliates.

Should any legal action or threat of legal action result as a result of User's use, or of any of Host's system, interconnection facilities, or services, User agrees to indemnify Host, its staff, or Host's other Users, for any costs incurred in defending against any such threat or action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and any equipment replacement costs, even if User is no longer a customer of Host when such expenses arise. This clause also applies to third party claims as well as any legal action taken by Host against User for breach of this Agreement, damage caused by User to Host's system, or for failure to pay expenses User is obligated to pay Host.

6. USE RESTRICTIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION. User agrees to adhere to Host's "Acceptable Use Policy", a copy of which is attached to this Agreement, and which policy may be changed from time to time - User agrees to adhere to all such changes it has notice of.

User will indemnify and hold Host harmless from any costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees) or liability resulting from any claim based on User's use of the system. Such indemnification will not be applicable with respect to claims of gross negligence, willful misconduct or infringement by Host. Such indemnity will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7. GENERAL. No waiver of any breach of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach of this Agreement or any provision thereof. If any provision of the Agreement is or becomes illegal or otherwise unenforceable, such provision will not invalidate the other provisions hereof; provided if Host determines that any such unenforceable provision is essential, it may terminate this Agreement upon notice.

User grants any permissions or licenses (including but not limited to copyright licenses), as may be required, and within User's power to grant, to Host in order to provide Internet and related services to User, or as may be required for Host to operate for User's benefit.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire. The parties agree that the courts (state and federal) located in New Hampshire, will have non-exclusive jurisdiction to determine the validity, construction and performance of this Agreement and the legal relations between the parties.

This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between Host and User, and supersedes all prior agreements, proposals, representations, or other communications, relative to the subject matter hereof. Paragraph headings are included for convenience and are not to be used to interpret this Agreement.

Client Initials:

8. CHANGES IN LEGISLATION. Should any changes in legislation require any changes to this Agreement or any services provided by Host, Host reserves the right to make any such changes, as are determined necessary or prudent, at Host's sole discretion, without giving User advanced notice. If such changes are made, Host ~~will~~ send by electronic or postal mail notice of any changes in a reasonable time period. In event of such changes, User may terminate service without the required 30 day notice, but is not entitled to a refund of any payments already made for services.

SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT (SLA)

30 Day Satisfaction Guarantee: Netplex guarantees all services and rented hardware with a 30 day satisfaction guarantee. If you are not completely satisfied with the level of service or rented hardware within the first 30 days from contract execution, you may cancel the remainder of the contract without any further recourse or amounts due. To satisfy the 30 day satisfaction guarantee, you must present a written statement of dissatisfaction to our accounting department prior to the expiration of 30 days from the date of contract execution. Setup fees and first month recurring fees are non-refundable.

Service Credits: service credits are available for services contracted for, but not delivered according to the service level agreement. Service credits are not available to customers more than 30 days in arrears on their billing cycle. Valid approved service credits will appear as a credit for services on the next billable invoice. Service credits shall not result in monies paid by Netplex directly to the customer. All service credit requests must be in writing and emailed directly to billing@netplex.com within 10 days from the date of the service level failure. Failure to request a service credit within 10 days of the service failure will result in an automatic waiver of any rights under the Master Service Level Agreement. Normal scheduled maintenance and upgrades are not covered in the uptime guarantee.

100% Network Guarantee: Netplex offers a 100% uptime guarantee on all network related services (i.e. bandwidth, routers, switches, servers and cabling.) The 100% uptime guarantee is applicable to all network services delivered to customer. Customer generated outages created by failed equipment (if colocated), exploited/hacked servers, misconfigurations or traffic in excess of the maximum allowed by contract are not subject to the SLA. Service credits are based directly on all equipment and/or services affected by a network outage. Services or hardware not related to the network outage will not qualify for a service credit.

Performance: Netplex guarantees a maximum average 40ms (milliseconds) network route from the input connection to the customer equipment through the internal network and out to the first BGP peer calculated over a 24 hour period.

Availability: Netplex guarantees 100% uptime on all redundant internet connectivity. Connectivity is measured as traffic routing into and out of rented customer equipment through the internal network out to Internet carriers. Netplex does not guarantee third party carrier latency or peering problems not utilized by Netplex.

Power Guarantee: Netplex guarantees a 100% uptime on all power located in the datacenter area for customer use. Power is defined as TXU supplied power and alternate power via UPS battery backup power and generator supplied power.

Hardware Guarantee: Netplex guarantees all rented hardware components and will replace any failed component at no cost to the customer. Hardware replacement will begin immediately upon identification of the hardware failure and is guaranteed to be complete within 2 hours of problem identification. Hardware is defined as the routers, switches, disk arrays, tape backup systems, processors, RAM, hard disks, motherboards, NIC cards, power supplies, raid controllers, and any other hardware rented through Netplex.

Scheduled Maintenance: The scheduled maintenance and upgrade window for all customers are limited to Sunday(s) only and will be performed from 2:00am to 4:00am eastern standard time. Notification from Netplex administrative staff will occur at least 3 days prior to work performed. Notification failure of normal (non-emergency) maintenance by Netplex staff will result in an application of the uptime guarantee.

Netplex shall not be liable for failure or delay in performing its obligations hereunder if such failure or delay is due to external circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of any governmental body, war, insurrection, sabotage, embargo, fire, flood, strike or other labor disturbance, interruption or delay in transportation, unavailability of interruption or delay in telecommunications, failure of third party software or inability to obtain raw materials, supplies, or power used in or equipment needed for provision of the Services. Netplex agrees to exercise reasonable care to prevent such occurrences; however, under no circumstances will Netplex be held liable for any financial or other damages due to such interruptions. In no event shall Netplex be liable to Customer or any other person for any special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages of any kind, including, without limitation, refunds of fees, loss of profits, cost of cover, loss of income or cost of replacement services.

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

1. LEGAL USES. Host's system and services may not be used in any way which violates Federal, State, Local, or International law. This prohibits, but is not limited to, any actions which are threatening, obscene, defamatory, or which violate trade secret, copyright or patent protection, or rights of privacy or publicity, or which result in the spread of computer viruses or other damaging programs or data files, or which violate any export restrictions (including making non-exportable information or software available to foreign nationals as may be prohibited by law). In the event User is suspected of any such violation, Host reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate User's account.

2. NETWORK TRANSMISSIONS. User is responsible for any materials passed via Host's system to other networks, and agrees to comply with any restrictions posed by the other network's terms of service or acceptable use policies.

3. PROHIBITED MATERIALS. User is strictly forbidden from hosting websites that contain pornographic materials or that send Unsolicited Commercial Email (UCE) otherwise known as SPAM.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY. Host will protect to the best of its ability the confidentiality of any files and electronic mail stored on or exchanged over the system, except as may be necessary to provide the requested Internet services, or as may be necessary to preserve the security and proper operation of Host's system, or to protect Host's rights or property.

Host, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement or as required by law, will use its best efforts to avoid disclosing the contents of private electronic mail to anyone other than addressees, authorized recipients, or those to whom such disclosure is necessary to assure forwarding or delivery.

User acknowledges that no system on the Internet can be guaranteed safe from unauthorized intrusion, and therefore any confidential information stored on or transmitted through Host's system is stored or transmitted at User's own risk.

5. SECURITY CONCERNs. User is responsible for choosing a secure password and for keeping it secret.

User may not attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on Host's system, or use any of Host's systems or services to attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on any remote system. This includes, but is not limited to, port scanning, running any password cracking software, or attempting to access a system which any user knows or reasonably should know he or she is not authorized to access in the manner or to the extent attempted.

6. COPYRIGHT ISSUES. User agrees not to upload to, download from, make available for public access on, or transmit through Host's system any copyrighted material in violation of the copyright owner's rights in that material. By uploading, downloading, making available for public access, or transmitting any copyright-protected material, User warrants that User has the proper authorization to make or authorize the making of any copies involved with such uploading, downloading, making available for public access, or transmission. Unauthorized copying, or authorizing the copying of protected works in excess of any legal right through Host's system is a violation of federal law and international treaties, and may result in not only termination of User's account, but also may result in civil and/or criminal fines and prison sentences.

User agrees not to remove any copyright ownership information, or falsify such information, on any files uploaded, downloaded, made publicly available through, or transmitted via Host's system.

User explicitly licenses Host to make any copies of copyright protected materials necessary to provide Internet and related services to User, as well as make any necessary copies necessary to preserve and maintain Host's system and User's files and electronic mail.

User explicitly licenses Host to make any copies, without limitation, of any copyrighted materials submitted to a public forum maintained on Host's system, or submitted to any forum to which Host provides access. This clause cannot be modified by either party unless any modification is in writing and signed by both parties.

EBUSINESS HOSTING SOLUTIONS SERVICE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

1. HOSTING SERVICES. Host will provide connection to all organizations and individuals who agree to abide by Host's access terms, conditions, and fee schedules.

User is responsible for providing any equipment and/or software necessary to access Host's system and Internet facilities, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

User is entitled to use any Internet services and time-share computer software provided by Host. User is responsible for any licensing fees for any "shareware" products provided by Host to User.

Host will provide the Hosting services provided in the service package chosen by User, and set forth on page one of the Service Order Form, including a server or space on a shared server, connection of the server to Host's high-speed Internet connection, backup of the server's hard disk and other maintenance on the server, domain name, e-mail, and file transfer services as provided in the chosen service package, automated server monitoring and limited log file generation and access. All equipment provided by Host shall remain Host's property.

The services and software offered are subject to change and limitation at Host's discretion, as is any pricing schedule. Host will notify User of any changes by electronic or postal mail to the agent named in this Agreement or other User officer a minimum of 14 days in advance, unless the change is judged by Host to be necessary to preserve proper security or functioning of Host's system. If User objects to any change in service, unless the change is one Host has determined is necessary for security purposes or to maintain proper operation of Host's system, User will be entitled to cancel its account.

User's continued use of the Hosting services after the effective date of such modified general terms and conditions, policies, or changes in services or software will constitute User's acceptance of such modified terms.

This Agreement covers only Internet services and any time-share software related to the provision of Internet services, Dedicated Hosting services, and any ancillary services such as domain name service and electronic mail.

2. FEES. User will pay (a) subscription fees in advance, (b) fees for other goods or services as invoiced, and (c) any security deposit, in each case per the applicable price schedule set forth on page one of the Service Order Form.

3. TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on not less than 30-days prior written notice.

If User (a) becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent or (b) fails to pay for services rendered in accordance with the terms hereof or (c) commits any other breach of this Agreement, Host may, at its sole discretion and without notice or judicial intervention, discontinue performance and terminate this Agreement for default and pursue any other remedies available at law or in equity.

If User's account is suspended due to lack of payment, User will pay the then current reinstatement fee, in addition to all other charges then due and payable, prior to restoration of service.

4. CUSTOMER SUPPORT. Host will provide to User reasonable amounts of consultation via telephone and/or electronic mail in the use of the system, but cannot promise to assist with any services that are not maintained or controlled by Host.

5. DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. With the exception of any express warranty herein, neither Host, nor its affiliates (hereinafter "Host"), nor its suppliers make any warranty, and each of them disclaims any liability, with respect to:

(a) the accuracy, completeness, currentness, error-free nature, or fitness for any particular purpose of any data or services accessed on or through the Host system, or

(b) system performance levels, including but not limited to resource utilization, response time or overhead, unless such a performance guarantee is part of the chosen Hosting services package represented by a SLA, or

(c) any loss or inconvenience associated with Host's suspension; termination, or deletion of User's account, or

Client Initials:

MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.NO ORAL ADVICE OR WRITTEN ADVICE GIVEN BY HOST OR ITS STAFF OR AGENTS SHALL CREATE A WARRANTY.

Host will not be liable for delay in delivery or performance of hosting or design services, and is excused from any failure to deliver or perform, due to causes beyond its reasonable control unless a specific level of service is guaranteed via a SLA.

Host will not be liable for any damage or inconvenience caused by any necessary or scheduled maintenance to Host's system, or for any service lapses or loss of customer data caused by forces beyond Host's reasonable control. Host recommends that User make archival copies or otherwise download any important information stored on Host's system, in addition to any backups Host may perform.

THE SOLE AND ENTIRE MAXIMUM LIABILITY OF HOST TO ANY USER FOR ANY AND ALL PROVEN LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO CONTRACT OR TORT) WITH RESPECT TO ALL SERVICES PROVIDED BY HOST AND ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF HOST WILL CONSIST OF A DUTY TO REFUND NOT MORE THAN THE AMOUNTS PAID BY THE USER TO HOST DURING THE YEAR PRECEDING SUCH LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL HOST BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF HOST HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

User, by signing this Agreement or connecting to the Host system, (a) accepts the use of the system/interconnection (including any programs, data, or services) "AS IS"; and (b) waives any and all claims relating thereto, whether such claims are against Host or any of its suppliers or affiliates.

Should any legal action or threat of legal action result as a result of User's use, or of any of Host's system, interconnection facilities, or services, User agrees to indemnify Host, its staff, or Host's other Users, for any costs incurred in defending against any such threat or action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and any equipment replacement costs, even if User is no longer a customer of Host when such expenses arise. This clause also applies to third party claims as well as any legal action taken by Host against User for breach of this Agreement, damage caused by User to Host's system, or for failure to pay expenses User is obligated to pay Host.

G. USE RESTRICTIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION. User agrees to adhere to Host's "Acceptable Use Policy", a copy of which is attached to this Agreement, and which policy may be changed from time to time - User agrees to adhere to all such changes it has notice of.

User will indemnify and hold Host harmless from any costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees) or liability resulting from any claim based on User's use of the system. Such indemnification will not be applicable with respect to claims of gross negligence, willful misconduct or infringement by Host. Such indemnity will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7. GENERAL. No waiver of any breach of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach of this Agreement or any provision thereof. If any provision of the Agreement is or becomes illegal or otherwise unenforceable, such provision will not invalidate the other provisions hereof; provided if Host determines that any such unenforceable provision is essential, it may terminate this Agreement upon notice.

User grants any permissions or licenses (including but not limited to copyright licenses), as may be required, and within User's power to grant, to Host in order to provide Internet and related services to User, or as may be required for Host to operate for User's benefit.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire. The parties agree that the courts (state and federal) located in New Hampshire, will have non-exclusive jurisdiction to determine the validity, construction and performance of this Agreement and the legal relations between the parties.

This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between Host and User, and supersedes all prior agreements, proposals, representations, or other communications, relative to the subject matter hereof. Paragraph headings are included for convenience and are not to be used to interpret this Agreement.

This Agreement may not be assigned by User with the written consent of Host.

2. CHANGES IN LEGISLATION. Should any changes in legislation require any changes to this Agreement or any services provided by Host, Host reserves the right to make any such changes, as are determined necessary or prudent, at Host's sole discretion, without giving User advanced notice. If such changes are made, Host promises to send by electronic or postal mail notice of any changes in a reasonable time period. In event of such changes, User may terminate service without the required 30 day notice, but is not entitled to a refund of any payments already made for services.

User is responsible for providing any equipment and/or software necessary to access Host's system and Internet facilities, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

User is entitled to use any Internet services and time-share computer software provided by Host. User is responsible for any licensing fees for any "shareware" products provided by Host to User.

Host will provide the Hosting services provided in the service package chosen by User, and set forth on page one of the Service Order Form, including a server or space on a shared server, connection of the server to Host's high-speed Internet connection, backup of the server's hard disk and other maintenance on the server, domain name, e-mail, and file transfer services as provided in the chosen service package, automated server monitoring and limited log file generation and access. All equipment provided by Host shall remain Host's property.

The services and software offered are subject to change and limitation at Host's discretion, as is any pricing schedule. Host will notify User of any changes by electronic or postal mail to the agent named in this Agreement or other User officer a minimum of 14 days in advance, unless the change is judged by Host to be necessary to preserve proper security or functioning of Host's system. If User objects to any change in service, unless the change is one Host has determined is necessary for security purposes or to maintain proper operation of Host's system, User will be entitled to cancel its account.

User's continued use of the Hosting services after the effective date of such modified general terms and conditions, policies, or changes in services or software will constitute User's acceptance of such modified terms.

This Agreement covers only Internet services and any time-share software related to the provision of Internet services, Dedicated Hosting services, and any ancillary services such as domain name service and electronic mail.

2. FEES. User will pay (a) subscription fees in advance, (b) fees for other goods or services as invoiced, and (c) any security deposit, in each case per the applicable price schedule set forth on page one of the Service Order Form.

3. TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on not less than 30-days prior written notice.

If User (a) becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent or (b) fails to pay for services rendered in accordance with the terms hereof, or (c) commits any other breach of this Agreement, Host may, at its sole discretion and without notice or judicial intervention, discontinue performance and terminate this Agreement for default and pursue any other remedies available at law or in equity.

If User's account is suspended due to lack of payment, User will pay the then current reinstatement fee, in addition to all other charges then due and payable, prior to restoration of service.

4. CUSTOMER SUPPORT. Host will provide to User reasonable amounts of consultation via telephone and/or electronic mail in the use of the system, but cannot promise to assist with any services that are not maintained or controlled by Host.

5. DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. With the exception of any express warranty herein, neither Host, nor its affiliates (hereinafter "Host"), nor its suppliers make any warranty, and each of them disclaims any liability, with respect to:

(a) the accuracy, completeness, currentness, error-free nature, or fitness for any particular purpose of any data or services accessed on or through the Host system, or

(b) system performance levels, including but not limited to resource utilization, response time or overhead, unless such a performance guarantee is part of the chosen Hosting services package represented by a SLA, or

(c) any loss or inconvenience associated with Host's suspension, termination, or deletion of User's account, or

(d) ANY OTHER WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

NO ORAL ADVICE OR WRITTEN ADVICE GIVEN BY HOST OR ITS STAFF OR AGENTS SHALL CREATE A WARRANTY.

Host will not be liable for delay in delivery or performance of hosting or design services, and is excused from any failure to deliver or perform, due to causes beyond its reasonable control unless a specific level of service is guaranteed via a SLA.

Host will not be liable for any damage or inconvenience caused by any necessary or scheduled maintenance to Host's system, or for any service lapses or loss of customer data caused by forces beyond Host's reasonable control. Host recommends that User make archival copies or otherwise download any important information stored on Host's system. In addition to any backups Host may perform.

THE SOLE AND ENTIRE MAXIMUM LIABILITY OF HOST TO ANY USER FOR ANY AND ALL PROVEN LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO CONTRACT OR TORT) WITH RESPECT TO ALL SERVICES PROVIDED BY HOST AND ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF HOST WILL CONSIST OF A DUTY TO REFUND NOT MORE THAN THE AMOUNTS PAID BY THE USER TO HOST DURING THE YEAR PRECEDING SUCH LOSS, CLAIM, DAMAGE OR LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL HOST BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF HOST HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

User, by signing this Agreement or connecting to the Host system, (a) accepts the use of the system/interconnection (including any programs, data, or services) "AS IS"; and (b) waives any and all claims relating thereto, whether such claims are against Host or any of its suppliers or affiliates.

Should any legal action or threat of legal action result as a result of User's use, or of any of Host's system, interconnection facilities, or services, User agrees to indemnify Host, its staff, or Host's other Users, for any costs incurred in defending against any such threat or action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and any equipment replacement costs, even if User is no longer a customer of Host when such expenses arise. This clause also applies to third party claims as well as any legal action taken by Host against User for breach of this Agreement, damage caused by User to Host's system, or for failure to pay expenses User is obligated to pay Host.

6. USE RESTRICTIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION. User agrees to adhere to Host's "Acceptable Use Policy", a copy of which is attached to this Agreement and which policy may be amended from time to time.

Hello,

Google.com is a US site regulated by US law. Google provides access to publicly available webpages, but does not control the content of any of the billions of pages currently in the index. Given this fact, and pursuant to section 230(c) of the Communications Decency Act, Google does not remove allegedly defamatory material from our search results. You will need to work directly with the webmaster of the page in question to have this information removed or changed. If you haven't yet worked with the webmaster, please visit <http://google.com/support/bin/answer.py?answer=508> for more information. Once the material has been modified on the site in question, Google's search results will automatically reflect this change after we next crawl the site.

We are sorry we cannot assist you further at this time.

Regards,
The Google Team

3 Whereupon,

4 [REDACTED]
 5 a witness, called for examination, having been first duly
 6 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

7 EXAMINATION

8 BY MS. FANG:

9 Q Good morning. I know you just told Teri your 10 name. Could you tell us your full name again, please?

11 A Yes. My full name is [REDACTED]

12 Q And what is your address?

13 A [REDACTED] San Francisco,
 14 California 94110.

15 Q Okay. And are you represented by counsel?

16 A No.

17 Q Now, Teri just administered an oath this 18 morning. What does this oath mean to you?

19 A It means I will be entirely truthful and factual
 20 regarding all the questions you ask me today.

21 Q Okay. And it sounds like you understand that a
 22 promise to tell the truth is a promise to truthfully and 23 also completely answer my questions today?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. So I'm going to be asking you various

CX0450-003

CX0450-004

1 questions this morning. If you are not sure of an answer
 2 or you don't have a complete answer, then you must still
 3 answer the question to the extent that you can. Do you
 4 understand?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And if you hear a question and you don't know or 7 you don't remember the answer necessary to answer the 8 question, you can say so. Does that make sense?

9 A Yes. Yes.

10 Q And at some point I may ask a question that is 11 not clear or that you don't hear or understand. Will you
 12 agree to let me know if there's anything about my 13 question that isn't clear or understood by you?

14 A Yes, I agree.

15 Q As the day goes on you may also realize that an 16 earlier answer you gave was inaccurate or was incomplete.
 17 If that happens, will you agree to say that you want to 18 correct or supplement your earlier answer?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you may also want to take a break to use the 21 restroom to get a drink of water or just to stretch your 22 legs. We can take a break as soon as you finish
 23 answering a pending question. Do you understand?

24 A Yes.

25 Q As you can see, the court reporter is recording

1 all that is said here. Because she can own record our
 2 words, it's important that you say your answers out loud
 3 or verbally when you answer the questions. Will you
 4 speak all of your answers so that they can be accurately
 5 recorded?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And now I'm going to take a few minutes to ask
 8 you some questions to make sure you can listen and answer
 9 my questions today.

10 Have you taken any medications that would affect 11 your ability to truthfully and completely answer my 12 questions today?

13 A No.

14 Q Do you have any health issues that would prevent 15 you from truthfully and completely answering my questions
 16 today?

17 A No.

18 Q Have you taken any alcohol or drugs?

19 A No.

20 Q Did you get enough sleep last night?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And is there any other reason why you can't 23 answer my questions during the deposition today?

24 A No.

25 Q Let's begin by talking a little bit about your

CX0450-005

CX0450-006

1 background. What is your current occupation?

2 A I'm a hardwood floor contractor.

3 Q And how long have you been a hardwood floor
 4 contractor?

5 A Ten years.

6 Q And are you currently employed with a company or 7 are you self-employed?

8 A I am self-employed. I own my own company.

9 Q Okay. And how long have you owned your own
 10 company?

11 A Ten years.

12 Q And what is your company?

13 A [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

14 [REDACTED]
 15 Q Okay. And is [REDACTED] based in 16 San Francisco?

17 A Yes.

18 Q You're here to answer questions about your
 19 experience with the website Jerk.com which is the subject
 20 of this suit giving rise to the deposition today. Did
 21 you look at any documents to prepare for today's 22 deposition?

23 A No.

24 Q Did you look through any e-mails or review --

25 A Yes, actually, I did look at the three e-mails,

1 and I believe I looked at a statement that I made to you
 2 guys about a year ago and -- no, two years ago. But I
 3 looked at that only once about a week ago, so -- yeah,
 4 that's the only documents I've looked at.

5 Q Okay. So you looked at e-mails and then you
 6 also looked at the declaration you signed two years ago?

7 A Exactly.

8 Q Okay. Did you speak to anyone about the 9 deposition today?

10 A No.

11 Q I know that we spoke last week briefly --

12 A Oh --

13 Q -- did you speak with anyone --

14 A Anyone else?

15 Q Right.

16 A No. I only told my girlfriend that I was going 17 to do this deposition, but that's all.

18 Q Okay.

19 A Yeah.

20 Q And let's now begin to talk about Jerk.com.
 21 Now, when did you first learn about the website Jerk.com?

22 A I found it during a search of my name on Google
 23 search engine.

24 Q Okay. And when did you first -- when did you do
 25 that search?

CX0450-007

CX0450-008

1 A I believe that was around December '0- --
2 December '11 or January '12.

3 Q Okay. So you were doing a search of your name
4 in December 2012 or January -- or December 2011 or 5 January 2012 and --

6 A Yeah -- actually -- wait. I think I have to 7 correct that. Around -- I'm not positive, but maybe
8 around February or March '12, 2012, I first found
9 Jerk.com.

10 Q So I understand, it sounds like you can't quite 11 remember when --

12 A I can't, yeah.

13 Q Okay.

14 A Yeah, but thinking about it -- thinking about 15 it, yeah, I guess it would have been January 2012.

16 Q Okay.

17 A Somewhere in there.

18 Q Okay. So around --

19 A I'm not entirely certain, but I believe that's 20 when it was.

21 Q Okay. And so you said you did a Google search
22 of your name?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And what did you see when you did the Google
25 search?

1 A I saw a heading [REDACTED] is a jerk." And
2 that immediately caught my attention, and so I clicked on
3 it and it took me to the Jerk.com website.

4 Q And what did you see when you got to the Jerk
5 website?

6 A I saw a profile in my name created -- that had
7 some statements that were extremely defamatory against me
8 on that, and the you know, typical Jerk.com format where,
9 you know, there's a place for a picture, there was some 10 identifying information about me, like my name, city that 11 I resided in, my age, an e-mail for me, and then there
12 was, you know, a place where people could vote if I was a
13 jerk or if I was not a jerk and give a thumbs up or a
14 thumbs down, and there was some statements saying really
15 damaging things, like that I was really stupid and I
16 think -- I can't remember exactly what they all said.

17 But I think there's one in the e-mail saying
18 that I had done like way too many drugs or something of 19 that nature, and just a lot of really, you know, false
20 and damaging defamatory statements, yeah, uh-huh.

21 Q What kind of was your reaction when you first
22 saw the profile?

23 A I was concerned that one of my clients, one of 24 my customers for [REDACTED] would see those 25 statements and potentially not hire me. And also, you

CX0450-009

CX0450-010

1 know, somebody else might see it, a friend or family
2 member or something. But mainly -- my main concern was
3 that I could, you know, potentially lose customers
4 because of this.

5 Q Uh-huh. Now, you said when you first saw the 6 search results you saw a red line that said, "[REDACTED]
7 jerk." Was that in the search results below the Google
8 search?

9 A Yes, I believe it was. It just -- the main
10 heading was "[REDACTED] is a jerk."

11 Q Okay.

12 A And then there was some other, you know,
13 lettering behind that.

14 Q And do you remember whether it was the first
15 search result or the second or fifth?

16 A I believe it was -- it was the first search
17 result, yeah. I know it was either the first or the 18 second, but I know -- I think -- okay, it could have been 19 the second search result, and then later it jumped up to 20 the first search result, as I kept checking it and I told
21 some of my friends about it and then they looked at it,
22 and I guess, you know, more people looking at it made it
23 jump up to the first one, I'm assuming. So I sort of 24 tried to stop looking at it and encouraged my friends not 25 to look at it so that there would be less hits to that

1 entry and then maybe drop down. Which didn't really work
2 that much, but a little bit maybe over time.

3 Q So the first time you looked at, your search
4 result was either No. --

5 A It was No. 2.

6 Q -- it was No. 2?

7 A I think it was No. 2 honestly, yeah.

8 Q Okay. So were you describing your profile and 9 you said it was kind of a picture -- had a place where 10 pictures usually are --

11 A Yeah.

12 Q -- and then other information. So what
13 information did it have of kind of you specifically?

14 A It didn't have a lot. It had my full name
15 correctly spelled, that I resided in San Francisco, and 16 it had my correct age, and it had an e-mail address for 17 me, and that was it.

18 Q That was it?

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q And so for the other information with the 21 comments that you described --

22 A And then the comments, right, right.

23 Q Okay. And do you remember if the profile had 24 any advertisements or links to the site?

25 A I can't remember.

CX0450-011

CX0450-012

1 Q Do you remember if there were any votes?
 2 A There were votes, yes.
 3 Q Do you remember what the votes were?
 4 A No. But they were in -- it was structured in 5 such a way that if you had more negative votes and
 6 positive votes you were quote, a jerk, and so I had, you
 7 know, the negative votes. I guess I only had -- when I
 8 initially discovered it, I only had a couple, you know,
 9 negative votes, but it still made me a jerk technically
 10 on the site.
 11 Q Okay. And by "it made me a jerk on the site,"
 12 what do you mean?
 13 A Well, they either -- the heading said, "███████████"
 14 ██████████ is a jerk," and then the other option on some of 15 the other profiles I looked at was "is not a jerk," so --
 16 Q Okay.
 17 A -- you know, it sort of computerized tallied up
 18 your votes and then decided from, you know, the vote
 19 tally if you were a jerk or you weren't according to the 20 website.
 21 Q Okay. So for your profile then, the profile
 22 labeled "███████████ is a Jerk"?
 23 A Uh-huh.
 24 Q And did your profile have any other information?
 25 Did it have a phone number?

CX0450-013

CX0450-014

1 sections of the website?
 2 A Yeah, I did. I visited the site quite a few
 3 times after that and I checked it out thoroughly and 4 looked at other peoples' profiles, looked at the rules of 5 the site, and just pretty much clicked on everything that 6 was available, although I don't remember all of what that
 7 was, but I did, I thoroughly examined the website, yes.
 8 Q Do you remember -- you said you've looked at the 9 rules on the website. Do you remember what the rules
 10 said? Or what --
 11 A Only vaguely, and I remember them vaguely
 12 stating that I would not be able to remove the -- that no
 13 one could be removed from Jerk.com and -- but it also 14 said stuff like you could vote and you could have, you
 15 know, a say in Jerk.com, and there was also a section I
 16 think where I could join the website, pay a fee, and at 17 that point I would have a chance to register my, you
 18 know, feelings about the -- my profile -- I would have 19 access to my profile somehow, I believe it said, and --
 20 so yeah.
 21 Q Now, when you saw your profile, did you think
 22 someone had created the profile of you?
 23 A I did, yes.
 24 Q And who did you think had created the profile?
 25 A Well, at the time I had a dispute with a client

CX0450-015

CX0450-016

1 A No.
 2 Q Did it have an e-mail address?
 3 A It did.
 4 Q And what was the e-mail address on --
 5 A It was an e-mail address that didn't belong to 6 me, and that e-mail address was ██████████ ██████████ 7 ██████████
 8 Q Okay. On so that e-mail address wasn't actually 9 your --
 10 A It was not my e-mail address, no.
 11 Q You mentioned that you saw, you know, a few of 12 the other profiles. Did you look at anything else on the 13 website the first time you visited?
 14 A Yeah, I looked at a lot. One of the things I
 15 looked at was whether or not I could be removed, and 16 there was a statement saying, you know, this was a public
 17 forum and that people were able to vote and that there
 18 was -- it was up to -- sort of up to the public I guess
 19 to vote, and so they wouldn't remove anything because it
 20 was a -- just whatever the public decided was the truth
 21 and it needed to stay on the Internet.
 22 So that sort of disturbed me because I really
 23 wanted the information off of the site. I felt it wasn't
 24 true and -- so --
 25 Q Right. Do you remember checking out any other

1 Q Now, you mentioned that you had visited the
2 website quite a few times. Can you estimate, you know,
3 just about how many times you visited the site?

4 A That's hard to say. In total, from the time
5 that I first discovered it --

6 Q Right.

7 A -- until I found that it was -- my name was 8 taken off of the site, it must have -- it would be --
9 it's a hard number to estimate. I would say a hundred --
10 around a hundred roughly.

11 Q Okay.

12 A Uh-huh, yeah.

13 Q And do you remember how long you spent kind of 14 on each visit? Do you remember on your first visit, how 15 long you were on the website?

16 A No, I can't remember exactly the times, you
17 know.

18 Q Could it have been like five minutes or more
19 like half an hour?

20 A Maybe initially, when I first saw it, I may have 21 spent, you know, five or ten minutes.

22 Q Okay.

23 A And then I would -- I was like upset and maybe
24 talked to my friends about it, and then got back on it
25 and spent another 20 minutes or something.

CX0450-017

CX0450-018

1 to get that off, yeah. I spent a lot of time, uh-huh.

2 And I tried a lot of things, I mean, as
3 evidenced by those three letters, I tried twice with 4 Google to send them take-down notices and complaints and
5 stuff like that, and I sent a thing to John Fanning,
6 which I figured probably wouldn't work but I was going to
7 try it anyway, just in case.

8 Yeah, so I did a lot. And then I tried to join
9 Jerk.com at least twice, I believe, and maybe more than 10 that, uh-huh.

11 Q Okay. Would you estimate that it was, you know,
12 like ten hours that you spent, or more like 50 hours
13 or --

14 A Yeah, more like 50. 50 plus, yeah.

15 Q Okay. Now, you said you probably visited, you
16 know, a hundred --

17 A Maybe, you know -- sorry to interrupt you.
18 Maybe more like 70 hours altogether I put into it.

19 Q Okay. The 70 hours including the times you
20 visited and --

21 A Yeah, I spent a lot of time researching, you
22 know, and then in talking to people and just, you know,
23 looking at the site, going back, checking. Then a lot of 24 times I would try and check Google, but I wouldn't go to 25 the site exactly, but I would just see if it was still on

1 the Google search engine. I spent a lot of time, yeah.

2 Q Okay. And during the times you were checking,
3 do you remember where you were in the -- kind of the
4 search results?

5 A Yeah, it fluctuated. You know, I think it
6 started off where I was like No. 2 when I first noticed
7 it, and then as I looked at it more -- I kept looking at 8 it, and then I sort of I guess created my own problem
9 because I had so many hits on it because I looked at it
10 so much, then it moved up one, and then the day that 11 happened, I was pulling my hair out when I realized what 12 I had done. So at that point I started trying to look at 13 it more covertly, you know.

14 So, yeah, and then I also had told my friends,
15 Just don't look at it. At one point I had told a good
16 friend of mine about it and she had told her mother,
17 who's, you know, fond of me, and her mother got on the 18 site and wrote a rebuttal to the negative comment saying
19 that I was a good person and these people were really
20 unethical for using this site and for misrepresenting me
21 on the site. So there was one, you know, positive
22 comment from her on the site.

23 So then I asked my friends to just stop
24 accessing the site because I moved up to No. 1, so --

25 Q So from the time you saw the profile until the

CX0450-019

CX0450-020

1 time that you saw it was no longer up in the search
 2 results, it was always one of the top one or two?
 3 A No, after sometime -- I would say maybe back
 4 in -- when would that be? So I saw it in 2012 -- I would
 5 say it dropped down a few notches in maybe that summer --
 6 Q Okay.

7 A -- to like three or something like that. And I
 8 was -- you know, I really felt positive about that. And 9 then I think I tried to also see if I could get hits to 10 other, you know, sites that had my name so it would bump
 11 it even farther down. So that's more time that I didn't 12 even think of, you know, doing that.

13 And then over -- you know, it just gradually
 14 dropped down to where I started noticing it was at like 15 No. 6 towards the end, and No. 7, quite a bit down from 16 there. And that made me happy because it wasn't the 17 first thing that people would see when they Googled me.
 18 I was still upset that it was on the search engine.

19 And then I think finally this year, around maybe
 20 April or May, I'm not positive, I noticed that it was no
 21 longer up. And then I went to the site and I saw that my 22 name wasn't -- or actually, I think I got an e-mail from 23 Sarah Schroeder from the FTC saying that they had made
 24 some progress or something in the case, and that's when 25 I -- I had kind of given up looking at it at that point,

1 and then I looked again and I saw that it was no longer
 2 there. And I was really happy about it, yeah.

3 Q So it sounds like the search results
 4 fluctuated --

5 A They did.

6 Q -- but it still stayed on the first page of the 7 search results?

8 A For a long time, yeah, it stayed -- I believe
 9 the whole time it was on the first page. I don't think I
 10 ever remember seeing it going to the second page.

11 Possibly towards the end, but I'm not positive.

12 Q Okay. So before you saw the Jerk profile and 13 the Jerk headlines in the search result, had you done a 14 Google search of your name before?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. And what did those results look like?

17 A The No. 1 entry on Google prior to the Jerk.com
 18 incident was for my business, [REDACTED] And then
 19 I think there was another one that was for some donation
 20 work that I'd done, and then -- let me see, what were the 21 other ones? I can't really remember. Yeah, I'm not 22 sure.

23 Q So the result you said --

24 A Oh, yeah, there was one also I believe for some 25 stuff I'd written in a trade journal for hardwood floors.

CX0450-021

CX0450-022

1 The Hardwood Flooring Magazine. That was another Google
 2 entry, yeah.

3 Q So it sounds like you had -- you said there was
 4 one for your [REDACTED] --

5 A Yeah.

6 Q -- for your company?

7 A Right.

8 Q And then for a trade social article you wrote on 9 flooring?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And then for your donation work?

12 A Yes, Global Garden, was the name of that entry.

13 Q Okay. So at least two of those had to do with 14 your work?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Okay. And for the [REDACTED] entry,
 17 was that -- do you remember what that link was to?

18 A Yes, it was to the website Yelp.com.

19 Q Okay. And what was on the Yelp.com website?

20 A All of my -- it said Yelp and it had five stars
 21 and all of my reviews that were, you know, posted by my 22 customers.

23 Q So was it a review?

24 A Yeah, Yelp is a review site and, yeah -- and 25 there were just -- it just enables people to review

1 businesses, and there was, you know, quite a few reviews.

2 There's some reviews of my business on Yelp.

3 Q Right. And did the review also mention -- did
 4 they mention your name?

5 A Yes, they did, uh-huh.

6 Q So they were for [REDACTED] and for [REDACTED]
 7 [REDACTED]

8 A Yes, uh-huh.

9 Q And you said there were five stars for the 10 review?

11 A Uh-huh, yes.

12 Q And so did you have -- I mean, were the reviews
 13 positive?

14 A They were all positive, yes.

15 Q And so you said that the top one for the company
 16 in the search result before you saw the Jerk.com was for 17 Yelp?

18 A Yes. So I felt like up until Jerk.com, I had a
 19 really -- you know, my company and myself had a good
 20 reputation online. And then once I saw the Jerk.com
 21 thing, it really just, you know, destroyed that. And so
 22 they say for any business, your online reputation is 23 really important right now, so I was concerned.

24 Q Right. Was your kind of online -- were you
 25 concerned about your online reputation in the 2012 -- or

CX0450-023

CX0450-024

1 that time when you first saw the profile?
 2 A Yes, uh-huh, yeah. Yeah, I felt like I had a
 3 great online reputation until I saw that, uh-huh.
 4 Q And do you have -- do you get customers from 5 your online reviews?
 6 A All my customers from Yelp, pretty much. I
 7 would say 97 percent of them come from Yelp.
 8 Q Okay.
 9 A Uh-huh, yeah. They all come from online.
 10 Q Okay. And so did a lot of your customers come
 11 from online in 2012 --
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q -- as well?
 14 A Yes.
 15 Q Okay. So were you concerned that your customers
 16 would then see the Jerk.com search result?
 17 A Yes, absolutely.
 18 Q And sometimes it was above the Yelp.com search
 19 result?
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q Do you think that the Jerk.com -- do you know if 22 it affected your business, the Jerk.com profile?
 23 A Well, I can't say definitively, but I believe it
 24 did, yes.
 25 Q And why do you think that?

1 A Well, I think that -- a lot of my floor jobs are
 2 a considerable sum of money. I have jobs sometimes that
 3 are 30, 40, $50,000 for the net cost, and I feel like if
 4 you're looking up someone online to hire them and you
 5 don't know really know them before you give them $50,000,
 6 you might research them a little bit. And so I felt like
 7 at that time, you know, it was quite probable that some
 8 of my customers would look on Google to sort of check out
 9 my reputation and might see the Jerk.com thing. So --
 10 yeah.
 11 Q Uh-huh. When you found your profile, how was 12 your business at the time? Was it -- you know, were you
 13 having a lot of customers? You said at that time a lot
 14 of customers also came from online reviews.
 15 A Yeah, my business was doing well. It was doing
 16 really well. There was a recession at the time and a lot
 17 of, you know, my colleagues were having a lot of trouble,
 18 but I was actually doing -- considering the construction
 19 climate, I was doing pretty well, uh-huh. I managed to 20 stay in business throughout all of that and some of my 21 colleagues didn't.
 22 Q Okay. And so did you -- you said you think the 23 profile affected your business. Did any customers tell
 24 you, or did anyone come up to you and say, "I saw" --
 25 A That's a good question. I'm not certain about

CX0450-025

CX0450-026

1 that question.
 2 Q Okay.
 3 A I can't say for sure. I have to think about
 4 that. I can't remember anyone -- well -- yeah, I'm just 5 going to leave it I'm not certain about that.
 6 Q Okay.
 7 A It's possible. It's possible, uh-huh. I do
 8 recall I think having at least one conversation with a
 9 customer about it and asking them if they weren't hiring
 10 me because of it, or something of that nature. But I'm 11 not sure that any customer came to me and said, "Look, 12 we're not hiring you because we saw this."
 13 Q Okay.
 14 A So -- yeah.
 15 Q So you can't remember, but maybe --
 16 A I can't remember.
 17 Q But do you remember if you talked to any
 18 customers about the Jerk.com profile?
 19 A I believe that I may have asked two of them
 20 about it, yes. If they had seen that or if it had -- or 21 I told them, you know, not to factor in when they were 22 considering hiring me, or something like that, uh-huh.
 23 Q Do you remember what their reactions were? Do
 24 you remember if they had seen it?
 25 A I think that both of the ones I talked to

1 said -- well, I think I remember one -- one of 'em
 2 saying, "I wouldn't base my decision on that," on, you
 3 know, "negative comments from your website" -- you know,
 4 "on another website." And then I don't remember the 5 other reaction.
 6 Q Okay. And usually when, you know, people come
 7 to you through Yelp, do they tell you that, "Oh, I saw a
 8 great review of you on Yelp"? Is that how you know they 9 came through Yelp?
 10 A Quite frequently, yes.
 11 Q Now -- so you mentioned that, you know, the Yelp
 12 result was on top for awhile, and then you saw the 13 Jerk.com profile, and at that time the Jerk.com
 14 profile -- when you first saw it, the search result was 15 No. 2?
 16 A Yes.
 17 Q And then at some point you said that the Jerk
 18 search result, or the Jerk link was the -- became the top
 19 search result?
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q Do you -- so that then it was above the Yelp
 22 search result?
 23 A Yeah.
 24 Q Do you remember how long the Jerk link was above
 25 the Yelp?

CX0450-027

CX0450-028

1 A No, I don't remember, no.
 2 Q Was it for kind of the majority of the time
 3 between when you found it -- found your -- the Jerk link
 4 to when you noticed the link wasn't up?
 5 A If I had to estimate, I would say it was 6 probably like that from, you know, February 2012 until 7 maybe the fall of 2012, or midsummer, something like
 8 that. But I'm really not sure. I'm not sure, yeah.
 9 Q Okay. But it was -- you feel like --
 10 A It was a considerable amount of time.
 11 Q -- like it was a few months?
 12 A A few months at least. That's a great way to 13 put it, uh-huh.
 14 Q So at least two or three months?
 15 A Yeah, I would say so.
 16 Q I'm going to ask for a break.
 17 A Okay.
 18 (Recess.)
 19 BY MS. FANG:
 20 Q We're back on the record.
 21 A Okay, great.
 22 Q You're still under oath.
 23 So, you know, before we took a break we were 24 just talking about the different search results.
 25 A Yeah.

1 Q Kind of in your view, do you think that the Jerk
 2 search results and Yelp search results were competing for 3 your customers' attention?
 4 A Yes, absolutely. Particularly when they were 5 right next to each other. I was really concerned for
 6 that, uh-huh.
 7 Q And then -- so because of your concern, did
 8 you -- you tried to get your profile on Jerk.com removed?
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q Now, what were some of the ways you tried to get 11 your profile removed? Did you e-mail the website
 12 Jerk.com?
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q And how did you e-mail them?
 15 A Well, I had read on the -- one of the Google
 16 forums I believe that if you wrote them a e-mail saying
 17 that you were going to file a defamation suit against 18 them, there was a chance they would remove you. So I
 19 tried that, not thinking that it would work for sure, but 20 it was worth a try, because basically I was kind of 21 desperate to get it removed.
 22 Q And do you remember who you contacted?
 23 A Yeah, on the Google forum there was a e-mail
 24 address for John Fanning, and I sent that e-mail to John
 25 Fanning. And somebody had written on the forum, if you

1 write John Fanning at this e-mail address and threaten to
 2 have a defamation suit, you will get this removed, or
 3 might get this removed. And I thought, well, it doesn't
 4 sound likely, but it's worth a try, so I did do it.
 5 Q Okay. Did you think that John Fanning was 6 responsible for the website?
 7 A I mean, I didn't know. I read a lot about it
 8 and apparently he was, you know, definitely involved in 9 it, and I don't know if he was completely responsible or 10 if he had partners. I think there was some mention of 11 that in the stuff I read. But it sounded like he was one
 12 of the key players in the website, but I wasn't positive.
 13 Q Did you find any other, you know, e-mail
 14 addresses or names that -- to contact?
 15 A I'm not sure. It seems like there were some,
 16 yes, but I can't recall that at the time. I don't know
 17 exactly who that would have been. I know they talked
 18 about his wife and they talked about I think another
 19 business partner or something like that. I don't 20 remember who that was. But there was a lot of 21 information about the site on Google, uh-huh.
 22 Q On the Google forum?
 23 A Google forum, and other sites too. I can't 24 remember the names of the other sites. But there was a
 25 lot on Google forums. I remember that name, but there

1 were several other sites that had information on Jerk.com
 2 as well.
 3 Q And how did you decide to contact the John
 4 Fanning? You know, e-mail address? Did that name come
 5 up a few times or --
 6 A Yeah, I saw the John Fanning name -- in pretty
 7 much most of my research about Jerk.com I saw that name
 8 come up. And then there was one entry on the Google
 9 forum giving his address and saying that you have this 10 chance of having it removed if you wrote this address, so
 11 I did that, uh-huh.
 12 Q Okay. So it sounds like in the research that 13 did you, the John Fanning name came up more often?
 14 A It did come up a lot, yes.
 15 Q Okay.
 16 A Yeah, more than any other name for sure, yeah.
 17 It -- usually what I would read is that he was 18 responsible for the site or he was in charge of it or he 19 owned it, something of that nature, uh-huh.
 20 Q And so you -- did you e-mail him?
 21 A I did, uh-huh.
 22 Q And did you get a response to your e-mail?
 23 A No.
 24 Q And did you try any other -- did you contact
 25 anyone else about removing the Jerk.com profile?

1 A Yes, I contacted Google. On two occasions I had
2 tried. Both times it didn't work.

3 Q And what was your request to Google?

4 A I asked Google to remove the entry, and there
5 was something I had read in my research about taking a
6 take-down notice to Google. I'm not sure exactly what
7 the process was for that, but I followed that process,
8 and that was basically my request with Google. And they 9 had -- they had different questionnaires that you could 10 ask and you'd click a button, it would lead you this next 11 part, you know, sort of a menu, and so they could get 12 your -- you know, a grievance or your comments or 13 whatever.

14 And I went through that whole process, and I
15 received a response from Google saying that they weren't
16 going to take the entry down. And then I was really
17 frustrated when that happened and so, you know, I
18 continued to do more research on such, and I thought,
19 well -- later, I'm not sure what the dates were between 20 that, but I thought, Well, you know, let me try that 21 again. Because I was really kind of just grasping at 22 straws trying anything to get it off the site because I
23 really felt like it was going to impact my business,
24 uh-huh.

25 Q Did you contact -- well, I'm curious, why did

1 you decide to contact Google? Was it to remove it from
2 their search results?

3 A Yes. Yes. Hopefully that they would, you
4 know -- I had -- I think -- I don't remember exactly, but 5 I believe it was for two reasons. One, that they would 6 remove it from the search results, and two, that they
7 would consider removing the site entirely.

8 But I'm not sure if that's right or not, but I
9 believe that's what my intentions were, uh-huh, yeah.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Definitely the first, the former. I was 12 definitely hoping they would remove it from the search
13 engine results. That was my main goal.

14 Q And that's because you were concerned about --
15 of your customers searching Google and seeing that search
16 result?

17 A Yes, exactly.

18 Q And did you receive a --

19 A Actually, I also felt like it was really a sort
20 of unethical site and felt, you know, that there were a
21 lot of other people in my condition -- in my situation.
22 And I was also feeling that it just was unethical and I
23 was trying to tell Google, Hey, take this off for a lot
24 of people. I read that children were being harassed
25 because of the site. So I had that intention as well,

CX0450-033

CX0450-034

1 uh-huh.

2 Q And did you get a response from Google?

3 A I did, uh-huh.

4 Q And what was -- you said you contacted Google
5 twice. What was their response?

6 A I don't remember exactly. It's in the e-mails
7 that I gave you. I haven't looked at 'em really closely,
8 but I do remember it was that they weren't going to take
9 the citation off of their search engine, so -- but I
10 don't know exactly what they said.

11 MS. FANG: I'm going to hand to Mr. [REDACTED] what 12 we've marked as CX0447-001.

13 (FTC Exhibit CX 447 marked.)

14 BY MS. FANG:

15 Q Mr. [REDACTED] I'm showing you what we've now
16 marked as CX-447. Do you recognize this document?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What is it?

19 A It's my response from the Google team to my 20 request that they remove the Jerk.com citation about me.

21 Q And is this document the e-mail that you brought 22 in this morning?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And so you said -- what is the date of the 25 e-mail?

1 A The date is March 7th, 2012.

2 Q And it's from?

3 A It's from the Google team. In brackets it says,
4 "Removals at Google.com."

5 Q And it's addressed to?

6 A It's addressed to my e-mail address,

7 [REDACTED]

8 Q And is [REDACTED] the e-mail address
9 that you use?

10 A Yes, it's my primary e-mail address.

11 Q And was it your e-mail address in 2012?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And do you use it for business and for 14 personnel?

15 A Yeah. Mainly I guess personal, but both, yes.

16 Q Okay. Mostly person--

17 A Mostly personal, yes.

18 Q And does this document include kind of your
19 earlier message to Google?

20 A Yes, it includes --

21 Q Or your earlier --

22 A It includes my -- some of my earlier message. I
23 guess -- the original message follows, and then it says I
24 had e-mailed them, "Subject: Your Request to Google, 25 Date," so it's sort of coded, but it does contain my

CX0450-035

CX0450-036

1 original message, yes.

2 Q So it looks like there's a lot of different
3 fields in the e-mail that looks like -- could this have 4 been the form that you filled out to submit the request
5 to them and these are the entries?

6 A I think so. This is the form I was speaking of 7 earlier I believe, yeah. Yeah, I think this is their,
8 you know, just computer code recognizing my responses to 9 their form process, it looks like.

10 Q Uh-huh. And so what was your kind of original
11 request to Google, or your form that you submitted to 12 Google? What was your main complaint?

13 A I think I was asking that it be removed because 14 it was defamatory statements, and I was trying to follow
15 that take-down notice procedure that I had read about in 16 the Google forums.

17 Q Lower on the page, I think there's a section
18 under the legalother_explain category, it says, "This 19 page contains defamatory statements about me. This page
20 contains malicious false statements about me. The page
21 says Quote: This guy is insane, pure and simple. This 22 is a false defamatory statement under U.S. law."

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q Do you remember writing that to Google?

25 A I do, yes, I remember writing that.

1 Q Lower on that same entry, it says, "The page
2 also says '██████████ is a Jerk.' This is also a
3 defamatory statement."

4 A Uh-huh.

5 Q When you wrote this, did you think that, you
6 know, someone thought you were a Jerk from the --
7 A Yes. I guess I would have to answer yes. I
8 mainly just felt like someone was using the forum to 9 harass me, they had a legal agenda against me or 10 something.

11 Q And then, as you said, Google's response is on 12 top and it looks like they wrote on March 7th, "We have 13 received your legal request."

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q And that due to -- well, "We receive many such 16 complaints each day" and "your message is in our queue
17 and we'll get to it as quickly as our workload permits."

18 A Uh-huh, I see, okay. Right.

19 Q And you didn't get any additional responses to 20 that after --

21 A I don't know.

22 Q Okay. Now I'm going to hand to you what I've 23 marked as CX0448-001.

24 (FTC Exhibit CX 448 marked.)

CX0450-037

CX0450-038

1 Q Do you recognize this document?

2 A Yes.

3 Q What is it?

4 A It's a e-mail to John Fanning from me that I --
5 this is what I spoke about earlier. It was me advising
6 him that I would file a defamation site against Jerk.com,
7 please remove my name -- and a request to remove my name
8 from the site. And as I mentioned earlier, I had read
9 that that may work in getting you removed from the site.

10 Q And so this is an e-mail -- what's the date on 11 the e-mail?

12 A March 7th.

13 Q And this is from your ██████████

14 address?

15 A Yes.

16 Q To ██████████?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Okay. And so then this is an e-mail from you to 19 John Fanning?

20 A Yes, that's correct.

21 Q Or to that e-mail address. And is the

22 ██████████ address the address you found on the 23 Google forum that you mentioned earlier?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And did you get -- were you planning to file a

1 defamation suit against Jerk.com?

2 A Honestly, I was thinking that I wouldn't need to
3 and that I would try this -- somebody said by making that
4 statement, it would get you removed. So I wasn't
5 planning on doing that.

6 Q So you really wanted him -- whoever received
7 this to remove the profile though?

8 A Yeah. Although, I mean, if possible I would 9 have, yeah. I'm not sure if I remember if they said that 10 I could do that easily or not, but -- I don't know. I
11 mean -- I think mainly -- I really don't recall, but I
12 think mainly I was just following the script that I had 13 read on the Google forum that would get me removed from 14 the thing. Say, "please remove my name from the site," 15 so --

16 Q Okay.

17 A Yeah, uh-huh.

18 Q Okay. And -- so when you wrote, you just 19 wanted -- you saw that you could write to this e-mail
20 address and request removal and you just wanted to try
21 it --

22 A Uh-huh.

23 Q -- to see if it could get your information
24 removed?

25 A Yes.

CX0450-039

CX0450-040

1 Q And did you receive a response to this e-mail?
 2 A No.
 3 Q And from kind of your time looking at the Google
 4 forum, did it seem like other people were having the same
 5 problem that you -- or concern that you had with --
 6 A Yes, it seemed like there were a large number of 7 people that were having similar problems.
 8 Q Okay. And, you know, did it seem like a lot of 9 people were also trying to find ways to contact --
 10 A Yes, absolutely.
 11 Q -- Jerk -- and can you -- you know, do you have 12 a sense of how many people might have also been in your 13 same situation?
 14 A Oh, thousands.
 15 Q Thousands?
 16 A Yeah.
 17 Q Okay.
 18 A Easily, yeah.
 19 Q Okay. And so this is from looking at the forums
 20 and all the different posts?
 21 A That was the impression I got, yeah. Tens of 22 thousands I would imagine.
 23 Q Okay. And now, Mr. [REDACTED] I'm going to show
 24 you a document that we have marked as CX0449.001.
 25 Oh, before I move to this one, for the last one,

1 the CX-448, I just want to make sure, that's the document
 2 that you brought in this morning?
 3 A Yes, it is.
 4 Q Okay. Now I'm going to show you CX0449.001?
 5 (FTC Exhibit CX 449 marked.)
 6 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 7 BY MS. FANG:
 8 Q Do you recognize this document?
 9 A Yes, I do.
 10 Q What is the document?
 11 A It's a response from the Google team,
 12 Googlerremovals@Google.com, to me at my e-mail,
 13 [REDACTED] and I guess it says, "Google.com
 14 is a US site regulated by US law. Google provides access
 15 to publicly available webpages, but does not control the 16 content of any of the billions of pages currently in the 17 index. Given this fact, pursuant to Section 230(c) of 18 the Communications Decency Act, Google does not remove 19 any allegedly defamatory material from our search
 20 results. You will need to work directly with the 21 webmaster of the page in question to have this
 22 information removed or changed. If you haven't yet
 23 worked with the webmaster, please visit Google," 24 et cetera, et cetera. "Once the material has been 25 modified on the site in question, Google's search results

CX0450-041

CX0450-042

1 will automatically reflect this change after we next
 2 crawl the site. We are sorry we cannot assist you
 3 further at this time. Regards, The Google Team."
 4 Q And what is the date of the e-mail?
 5 A May 13th, 2012.
 6 Q Okay. So in May 2012, were you still trying to 7 contact Google to get the profile removed?
 8 A Apparently so, yes.
 9 Q And does that e-mail contain your original
 10 request to Google?
 11 A No, this is a separate request to Google that I
 12 made -- it appears this is a separate request that I made
 13 on May 13th. I believe my original -- according to these 14 documents, was on March 8th. So it appears that, you
 15 know, a couple months later I was yet trying again to 16 have it removed from Google and they were telling me no,
 17 that they couldn't. So -- yeah.
 18 Q So a few months after -- this is your second
 19 request to Google, in May 2012 --
 20 A Correct.
 21 Q -- where you were trying to --
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q And if you'll look -- so we see that same kind
 24 of list of form entries and kind of categories. Under 25 legalother_explain, what does that say there?

1 A Legalother_explain -- oh. "Contains defamatory
 2 content at that is illegal in California.
 3 Legalother_quote: contains photo and content." It says,
 4 "This guy is insane pure and simple and this guy did a
 5 bunch of drugs."
 6 And then I wrote "Cyberbully has started a Gmail
 7 account in my name as well." And I guess this is the 8 list of the Gmail account, [REDACTED] -- or no, it
 9 isn't, sorry. I wrote that, I see. It looks like more
 10 code down below. Sorry, my mistake, yeah.
 11 Q Right. Down below, it looks like it's a code to 12 the http --
 13 A Yeah.
 14 Q -- the www.jerk.com [REDACTED] --
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q So was that a link to your profile that was on
 17 Jerk.com?
 18 A Yes, it appears to be a link to my profile at
 19 Jerk.com.
 20 Q Okay. And so, you know, when -- do you remember
 21 writing kind of the complaint there?
 22 A I do, yes.
 23 Q Okay. And do you remember what you meant when 24 you wrote, "Cyberbully has started a gmail account in my 25 name as well"?

CX0450-043

CX0450-044

1 A Yes, because I had noticed that -- actually,
 2 what I believe had happened was initially when I looked 3 at the site, it didn't have this gmail account on --
 4 listed under my information. It had only my name,
 5 residence and my age.

6 Q Okay.

7 A Later someone had gone through and added more
 8 negative comments about me and added this e-mail address.

9 Q Okay.

10 A And so between -- apparently between March 7th,
 11 2012 and May 13th of 2012, someone had added -- I noticed
 12 on the site someone had added an e-mail address and I
 13 became concerned about that. And so I wrote in that not 14 only have they made these comments on Jerk.com, but they 15 started an e-mail address in my name, so -- and what 16 happened with that was I tried e-mailing the address to 17 see what would happen, and I don't -- I think it didn't 18 go through. And then I went into gmail and I got into 19 Start Account and I started the account in that name to 20 see if it had been used.

21 Q Right.

22 A Because I was concerned that these people had 23 started an e-mail in my name and were using it and maybe
 24 they were using it for other purposes. So -- but I was 25 able to start that e-mail account in my name, so it was

1 not a real e-mail until I started it during my
 2 investigation. I intentionally started it to see if it
 3 was an e-mail that had been used by someone else, but it
 4 hadn't been used.

5 Q So when you first saw it, the e-mail wasn't
 6 there, but you think someone else added the comment --

7 A Yes.

8 Q -- and added the e-mail address?

9 A Yes. There were more -- over time there were 10 more comments added to the site. More defamatory
 11 comments after my friend's mother had written the 12 positive comments about me, they rebutted to those 13 comments and wrote more negative comments about me, and 14 also posted this e-mail address. And I saw the negative
 15 comments, and then I also saw the e-mail address, and I
 16 became concerned if they were maybe using like, you know
 17 identity, theft and started an e-mail in my name perhaps.
 18 So that's why I tried to get that e-mail address, and I
 19 was able to do that.

20 Q And the amount of time you spent in creating 21 that gmail, that's also included --

22 A Again, that's more time, yeah.

23 Q And this CX 449, that's also a document that you
 24 brought in today?

25 A Yes, it is, uh-huh.

CX0450-045

CX0450-046

1 Q Okay. Did you try to get the Jerk.com profile
 2 of you removed in -- did you try another way?
 3 A Yeah, I believe -- then the, you know, last
 4 thing I tried was -- or I'm not sure what sequence it
 5 was, but at two, possibly three, instances I tried to get
 6 removed by joining the site and paying money.

7 Q Okay. Can you tell me a little -- so you paid
 8 money to join the --

9 A Yes.

10 Q -- website?

11 A I resisted doing that because I felt they were 12 real unethical and that I didn't want to encourage what 13 they were doing, I felt it was unethical. So for quite 14 some time I did not join the site and I tried these other
 15 methods, and none of 'em worked. And at some point I
 16 just felt like even though it was unethical to support
 17 them, it was more damaging to me to have that information
 18 on the Internet.

19 And I do believe also at that time I noticed a 20 drop in my business. And I can't say whether it had
 21 anything to do with the Jerk.com website or not, but I
 22 perceived that it was a possibility. So I decided, you
 23 know, I just gotta go ahead and give them the $30. As 24 unethical as they are, I'm going to do it and keep my 25 business and they can have my $30, you know.

1 And so I tried that, and it didn't work. I
 2 remember, you know, entering my credit card on the site
 3 and, you know, pressing enter and it -- if I remember
 4 correctly, the screen like did a little shift like it had
 5 accepted my credit card number, but then it just flipped
 6 to like the same thing it was before basically, and --
 7 and I had no access anywhere to being a member or editing
 8 anything. But yet the site had given me the impression
 9 that as soon as I had clicked "Pay," I was going to get 10 some sort of access to membership and I would have some 11 sort of way of editing my profile. And I was not -- I
 12 didn't get any access like that.

13 Q So when you paid the $30, you thought that once
 14 you put in the credit card number and you clicked Okay,
 15 or entered, you'd be able to edit --

16 A Yeah, I believed that that would -- I was pretty 17 certain that I had a really great chance of being able to 18 edit my profile because I had read on the Google forum
 19 that a lot of people were able to do that.

20 Q Okay. And you said you didn't get anything once 21 you put in --

22 A No, nothing.

23 Q Do you remember kind of -- did you think that,
 24 you know, if you hadn't signed up, you wouldn't have been
 25 able to kind of remove your profile, or alter it?

CX0450-047

CX0450-048

1 A Can you repeat that question?
 2 Q Sure. So you decide -- you know, you didn't
 3 want to sign up, but you said you finally decided to sign
 4 up because you thought it may have been affecting your 5 business and that --

6 A Yes.

7 Q And did you think that if you hadn't signed up,
 8 do you think you could have -- I guess what I'm trying to 9 ask is, without signing up, did you think you could 10 remove the profile or ask for it to be edited or have 11 access to the Jerk.com profile of you?

12 A Without signing up?

13 Q Right, did you think it was your only way to --

14 A I felt it was absolutely my only way. I had 15 tried everything else on the site to try and change the 16 negative information about me and there was no way to do
 17 it, you know. And so I felt like that was really my 18 only -- my only avenue to change, alter the negative
 19 comments that were made about me.

20 Q When you signed up, did you think there was 21 anything else that you would be getting in return, or 22 that you would be able to do on the website once you
 23 signed up? Or maybe you could restate again kind of what 24 you thought you could do once you paid.

25 A I think I thought that I would be able to edit

CX0450-049

CX0450-050

1 Something similar, but I'm not sure this is exactly what
 2 I saw.

3 Q Does this look like, you know, what the Jerk.com
 4 website looked like when you --

5 A Yeah, it does.

6 Q Okay.

7 A It definitely does. I remember the heading Post
 8 a Jerk, Remove, School, Cities, I remember that, and the 9 language sounds like it too, you know, Looking for the 10 latest scoop on a world filled with jerks. It definitely
 11 looks like the Jerk.com site to me, yes.

12 Whether or not this is the exact page that I saw
 13 when I signed up, I'm not sure. But it was definitely 14 very similar to this, yes. I do remember that.

15 Q Okay. And I think -- I do you remember visiting 16 any of the -- on the top there are different links, as 17 you said, to Post a Jerk or Remove --

18 A Yeah, as I stated earlier, I visited all -- I
 19 thoroughly examined the website looked at all of them,
 20 uh-huh.

21 Q So would you have sort of clicked on --

22 A Clicked on all the links, absolutely, uh-huh.

23 Q Are there any other kinds of phrases or things
 24 on this page that you remember reading?

25 A Well, you know, I remember this at the bottom,

1 my profile and that I would be, you know, considered a
 2 member of the site, and there may have been other things
 3 indicated that would be available for membership, but I
 4 can't recall what they are.

5 Q Do you remember kind of reading anything on the 6 Jerk.com website about what you would get if you signed
 7 up for the $30 membership?

8 A That's a good question.

9 Q Feel free to take --

10 A Yeah. What would I get? I believe there was 11 some vague indication that I would have access to my 12 information and editing it, but I don't even know exactly
 13 what that was. That's all I can remember, uh-huh.

14 Q Would it help if I showed you some screenshots
 15 of the website --

16 A Yeah.

17 Q -- if you remember reading those?

18 A Sure.

19 Q Okay. Mr. [REDACTED] I'm going to show you what 20 we've previously marked as CX272-001. Take a minute to 21 look at it.

22 This is a screenshot of a part of the Jerk -- do
 23 you remember -- does this look familiar to you? Or does
 24 this look like, you know, what you saw on Jerk.com?

25 A You know, I'm not sure that this is what I saw.

CX0450-051

CX0450-052

1 happened when I clicked on it, I'm not certain, but --
 2 yeah.
 3 Q After you paid, did you -- do you know whether,
 4 you know -- did you verify that you had been charged the 5 $30?
 6 A Yeah, I did, uh-huh. Yeah, I looked and I could 7 see that it came out of my bank account on that card,
 8 uh-huh.
 9 Q And do you remember how many times you were 10 charged? Or whether you were just charged once?
 11 A I believe I was charged twice. That I tri- -- I
 12 attempted to sign up two times and I believe I was 13 charged for those two, and I don't recall for certain but 14 I believe I may have gone back later and tried a third
 15 time.
 16 Q Okay.
 17 A But I'm not sure, uh-huh.
 18 Q And after each of those times, you didn't get
 19 any password?
 20 A Yeah, never did I receive a password or any 21 other information.
 22 Q And we're still looking at CX 272. Do you
 23 remember reading any of the other statements on this?
 24 A Not really. Let's see. I can't -- I don't
 25 know, the word sainthood does sounds familiar. I may

1 have read that statement. It says, "Sign now and grow to
 2 Sainthood while avoiding millions of jerks along the 3 way," and I remember thinking that was real kind of 4 ironic, you know, because I felt like they were really
 5 lacking a lot of integrity and yet they were using the 6 word sainthood to join, and I felt like it was really
 7 ironic.
 8 Q Now I am going to show you what has previously
 9 been marked CX 275-001. Does this screenshot of the 10 Jerk.com website, does that look familiar to you?
 11 A Yeah, I think so. Let me look at it.
 12 Q Sure, take your time.
 13 A Yeah, I remember this sentence, "Just because 14 you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a Jerk."
 15 That seems very familiar. Yeah. Yeah, and then they 16 say, "or is a Saint in the eyes of others." Yeah, I
 17 think I remember this for sure, uh-huh.
 18 Q Yeah. So you think you read -- you remember
 19 reading "Jerk is where you" -- "Just because you have a 20 profile on Jerk does not mean you are a Jerk"?
 21 A Uh-huh.
 22 Q And "Jerk is where you find out if someone is a
 23 Jerk, is not a Jerk or is a Saint in the eyes of others"?
 24 A Uh-huh, yeah. Yeah. I remember that, uh-huh.
 25 Yes.

CX0450-053

CX0450-054

1 Q And do you remember reading anything else on
 2 the -- and this is the "Remove" -- the header here under
 3 Jerk is "Remove" ?
 4 A Yes. "Premium support is available for people
 5 who require a higher level of service than is provided
 6 for free." Uh-huh.
 7 Q Do you remember reading that sentence?
 8 A I remember reading something very similar, if 9 not that sentence, yes, uh-huh.
 10 Q Okay. And the final sentence on the page, "If 11 you however use Jerk to manage your reputation and 12 resolve disputes with people who are in conflict with.
 13 There are also additional paid premium features that are 14 available," and gives the Jerk.com sign-in. Do you 15 remember reading that?
 16 A Yeah I do, yes.
 17 Q And do you remember -- what did you think you
 18 would get, you know, as part of the premium support?
 19 A I thought that I might be able to go in and 20 remove the negative comments about me on the site.
 21 Q And do you remember if you tried to click on 22 that Jerk.com contact link?
 23 A Yes, I did.
 24 Q And do you remember what you saw or --
 25 A Yeah, nothing -- nothing happened. Or wait.

1 Q There's two links there. One's the Jerk.com
 2 contact and one's the Jerk.com sign-in.
 3 A Oh, okay.
 4 Q Do you remember clicking on either of those?
 5 A Yeah, I think when I clicked on these, that's 6 when I was able to add my credit card information and 7 sign up.
 8 Q Okay. But you didn't actually -- did you reach
 9 anyone? You didn't actually reach anyone?
 10 A No. I guess I -- you know, I don't remember
 11 exactly everything, but I believe that I clicked on these 12 links and, you know, nothing -- I wasn't able -- was able 13 to maybe -- this is where I could enter my credit card
 14 information and sign up, but then after I did that,
 15 nothing happened that was different.
 16 Q Kind of on the top of that, near the top right
 17 of that same page, on CX 275, there's a little kind of 18 tweet pledge that says, "Get our news, Everywhere!" and 19 it says, Tweetfollow@Jerk_com_news."
 20 Do you remember seeing the tweet message there?
 21 A No.
 22 Q Do you remember if you saw any Twitter message
 23 from them or visited a Twitter page?
 24 A I can't remember.
 25 Q Okay. Do you remember, did you visit the Remove

CX0450-055

CX0450-056

1 page before you signed up? It sounds like --
 2 A Yes.
 3 Q -- before you signed up and you paid the $30?
 4 A Yes.
 5 Q And then now I am going to show you what's been
 6 previously marked as CX 276-001.
 7 A Yeah.
 8 Q This is another screenshot of the Jerk.com
 9 website. Does this screenshot look like the website when 10 you saw it?
 11 A I think so, yeah.
 12 Q This is a Jerk screenshot and it says on the 13 top, "Become A Subscriber" and it says, "Billing
 14 Information, You must be a subscriber member in order to 15 create a dispute!" And then it says, "if your billing
 16 information does not match billing address for credit
 17 card, there will be delays in order processing," and then 18 it has various fields where you can put in your name and 19 contact information and credit card.
 20 Does this look like the form that you had --
 21 A Yes.
 22 Q -- submitted to put in your credit card?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q And do you remember reading any of the 25 statements on this page?

1 A The Gold Membership sounds vaguely familiar.
 2 But I'm not sure if I remember for certain, but it does
 3 sound familiar.
 4 Q What did you sign up for? You know, there's a
 5 button for Gold Membership under -- and then there's a
 6 button for Standard Membership. Which one did you sign 7 up for?
 8 A I think initially the standard membership.
 9 Q But you said before you tried to --
 10 A Yeah, I really don't know, you know.
 11 Q Okay.
 12 A But I believe it was the standard for $30 a
 13 year.
 14 Q Is that because $30 is what you remember paying 15 or being charged on --
 16 A Yes, that sounds like a familiar number, uh-huh,
 17 yes.
 18 Q So you submitted this form in order to become a 19 member, and you said nothing happened once you put in 20 your credit card information?
 21 A Uh-huh.
 22 Q Is there anything else you remember about the 23 sign-up process for the membership?
 24 A I just remember hitting like Submit or whatever
 25 it was -- this main -- you know, honestly, this may not

1 be the exact thing I saw. I'm noticing here -- you know,
 2 2013-02-05, so it's possible that, you know, it was a
 3 similar -- the website was changed between the time that
 4 I signed up.
 5 Q Okay.
 6 A However, this looks very similar to what I
 7 signed up on, if not the same. And I remember
 8 clicking -- entering all my information correctly,
 9 doubling checking it, like I do, and clicking Submit and 10 having the screen just shake like it had been accepted
 11 almost, and then hitting it again and having nothing
 12 happen.
 13 And then where my recollection isn't really very
 14 clear, I feel like I may have at that same setting redid
 15 it again, and put all my information in again and hit
 16 Submit again a second time. But I'm not positive. And I
 17 would like to look at my bank statements and check
 18 exactly what happened about those two charges. It may 19 have been two charges the same day, or I may have gone
 20 back a couple days later. But I'm almost positive I
 21 tried to sign up twice, if not three times.
 22 Q Okay. So when you first visited Jerk, was it
 23 principally a black background website?
 24 A Uh-huh, yes.
 25 Q And did it have red buttons?

1 A Yeah, there was a lot of red and green and blue,
 2 uh-huh.
 3 Q Okay.
 4 A And I think maybe -- maybe yellow too.
 5 Q Okay.
 6 A I can't remember. But it was -- definitely
 7 these colors like on this -- these printouts. There was 8 red buttons, black background, same logo, just like this.
 9 Q The same Jerk logo --
 10 A Yeah, same format, exactly.
 11 Q Okay, same format with headers on the top --
 12 near the top of the web page that you can click on?
 13 A Yeah, I remember the Schools and Cities, Remove,
 14 Post a Jerk, I remember those headings, yeah.
 15 Q Okay, great. I'm going to pause here for 16 another quick break.
 17 (Recess.)
 18 BY MS. FANG:
 19 Q We're back on the record.
 20 A Okay, great.
 21 Q Okay, thank you.
 22 So earlier you said that you saw somewhere on 23 Jerk.com where it said that people could not remove 24 profiles, or the public -- it was based on public
 25 searching, right?

1 A Yes.
 2 Q And -- but it sounds like when you had bought
 3 the $30 membership, based on your understanding, you
 4 thought that you could, you know, alter or at least kind
 5 of meaningfully edit the Jerk.com profile of you; is that
 6 correct?
 7 A Yes, that's correct.
 8 Q And would it be accurate to say that then buying
 9 the $30 Jerk membership got you absolutely nothing?
 10 A Yes, that's correct.
 11 Q And do you remember when you were on the Google
 12 forum, do you remember other people having the same issue
 13 where they paid for a membership on got nothing?
 14 A No.
 15 Q Okay. And do you remember what the Google forum
 16 name was that you checked out?
 17 A No.
 18 Q Was it a few different forums all on Google, or 19 was it one forum?
 20 A I believe it could have been a few, but I'm not
 21 sure.
 22 Q Okay. And also earlier, you know, you had 23 suspicions of who might have posted you on the website.
 24 Did you ever find out who posted you?
 25 A No.

1 Q And would you have wanted to find out who had
 2 posted the --
 3 A Yes.
 4 Q And you also tried a bunch of different ways of 5 contacting Jerk, including e-mailing John Fanning at the 6 John Fanning e-mail address. Did you find any other way
 7 of contacting Jerk besides, you know, the e-mail to --
 8 the John Fanning e-mail address on the Jerk website?
 9 A I don't believe I did.
 10 Q Okay. So were you able to find any other e-mail
 11 or physical addresses associated with Jerk?
 12 A I think there was some physical addresses listed
 13 in one of the Google forums, the same one -- thread that 14 I got the John Fanning e-mail from, I believe somewhere
 15 in one of the Google threads they listed even his 16 personal address I believe.
 17 Q Okay.
 18 A Like his home address.
 19 Q Okay.
 20 A Not -- I don't know if it was his correct
 21 address or not, but I do remember seeing some addresses,
 22 yeah. But they were I believe down in Los Angeles, and 23 so I had no way of like physically going there, and I
 24 felt like it was really not plausible to write them by 25 hand and didn't feel like I'd get a response or anything,

1 so I didn't do anything with those addresses I don't
 2 think, so -- yeah.
 3 Q Okay. So you thought it would be more likely to 4 get a response from e-mailing?
 5 A Yeah, it was pretty much all I felt was worth my 6 effort, yeah.
 7 Q Before the break we were also looking at a few
 8 of the documents. I wanted to show you -- well, I guess
 9 before we do that I actually want to go back.
 10 You also said that you saw a lot of other
 11 profiles on the Jerk.com website?
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q Did you browse through the website to look at 14 other profiles?
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q And what do you remember in those -- seeing on 17 those profiles?
 18 A I remember seeing that some of 'em had photos of 19 the person and some didn't. Like myself, I didn't have a
 20 photo. I remember seeing some of them had derogatory
 21 comments like myself, and some didn't. Some were, you
 22 know, filled out extensively and had photos and lots of 23 comments, and some had little to no information on them.
 24 Q And did they generally look like your profile in 25 terms of the website, the layout --

1 A Yes.
 2 Q -- and the types of information?
 3 A Yes.
 4 Q Did you visit the Jerk Of The -- are you --
 5 A Jerk Of The Day?
 6 Q Does that sound familiar?
 7 A Yeah, I saw Jerk Of The Day and I looked at it
 8 on more than one occasion, yes.
 9 Q And when you looked at it on the different
 10 occasions, were they different profiles that were posted 11 each time you looked?
 12 A Yes. And I believe there was a button or a
 13 section where you could pay extra money and have someone
 14 nominated for Jerk Of The Day, if I'm not mistaken.
 15 Q Okay, you remember seeing that?
 16 A Uh-huh.
 17 Q Do you remember any other sections of the 18 website?
 19 A Yeah, there were a lot of sections. I think
 20 there was -- like in this here. Here, there was Post a
 21 Jerk, Remove A Jerk, that the statement that you couldn't
 22 be removed. Then there was Schools, Cities. I can't 23 remember exactly what those were, but yeah, there were --
 24 I remember there were a lot of different -- it's pretty
 25 extensive -- a fairly extensive website.

1 Q And I know we looked earlier at CX272-001, and
 2 that is still in front of you there. Do you remember
 3 reading this statement on that page, "Want to join
 4 millions of people who already use Jerk for important
 5 updates for business, dating and more?" Does --

6 A It sounds familiar.

7 Q Okay. And now I'd like to show you what has
 8 previously been marked CX0273. Do you remember seeing a
 9 page on Jerk that looked identical, or similar to this 10 document?

11 A Yeah, I think there was something like this,
 12 uh-huh. But I'm not sure. Yeah, I'm not positive.

13 Q You're not, okay. Could you describe what's in 14 that document? What it looks like?

15 A It's like the terms and conditions of 16 membership. Must be 14 years old, Online Conduct, agree
 17 that you're responsible for conduct, indemnity, you will
 18 defend, indemnify, hold harmless Jerk LLC, its officers,
 19 online content, opinions, prior statements, removal.

20 Yeah, just -- it looks like terms of use and 21 legal limitation of liability state by state. Like an 22 attempt to sort of cover themselves legally in the use of 23 the site.

24 I don't specifically remember these pages, but
 25 it's possible I did see 'em.

1 Q Earlier you mentioned that you read some rules
 2 on the -- you know, when you were looking through Jerk
 3 and you clicked on different -- you mentioned you clicked
 4 on different rules of the site. Is this what you
 5 remember seeing? Is that you went by the rules of the 6 website?

7 A No, I think I was referring to the -- or when I
 8 clicked on Remove, there was a section that said you
 9 couldn't be taken off Jerk.com.

10 Q Okay.

11 A It indicated you might be able to alter your --
 12 you know, whether or not were you a jerk on Jerk.com by 13 membership or by, you know, public opinion, but that once
 14 you were on Jerk.com, you needed to stay on Jerk.com.
 15 You weren't -- they weren't going to take you off. I
 16 remember that.

17 As far as the rules, I think that's what I was 18 referring to.

19 Q That's what -- okay.

20 A Yeah.

21 Q On that -- on CX-273, No. -- Item 4, it says --
 22 you know, "Online Content, opinions, advice, statements
 23 offers or other information or content made available
 24 through Jerk.com are those of their respective authors
 25 and not of Jerk LLC, and should not necessarily be relied

CX0450-065

CX0450-066

1 upon. Such authors are solely responsible for the 2 accuracy of such content."

3 Does that statement sound familiar?

4 A No, I mean this page could have definitely been
 5 there, but I don't remember that, no.

6 Q Okay. And then in Item No. 12, this is the 7 Copyright Policy and Contact Information for DMCA
 8 Notices." It says -- you know, the last sentence, "If 9 you believe that your copyright has been infringed
 10 through use of Jerk.com, please contact our customer
 11 service."

12 Do you remember reading that statement, or does
 13 that sound familiar?

14 A Yeah, I may have. It sounds familiar. I don't 15 remember this statement exactly, but I may have read
 16 something like that, yeah.

17 Q Okay. Now I'm going to give you another
 18 document that's been previously marked CX 274-001. Do
 19 you remember seeing this page on Jerk?

20 A I believe so, uh-huh.

21 Q And what is this page?

22 A Post a Jerk. And it has a section you can enter
 23 someone -- enter them on the site.

24 Q Okay. When you visited the site, did you think
 25 that you could add -- post someone to the website?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And did you try to post anyone? Or post --

3 A Yeah, honestly, I think I went -- I looked to 4 see if the woman that I thought was responsible for the
 5 defamatory comments against me, I searched her name and I
 6 found her name on the site, and I was really tempted to 7 post some defamatory content against her, but I felt like
 8 that would be really unwise and I refrained from doing
 9 it.

10 Q So did you think, you know, this feature was how 11 people got profiled on Jerk.com?

12 A Yeah, I thought that this was one of the ways.
 13 I thought that also you could end up on Jerk.com because I
 14 they had accessed your information from Google, because I
 15 read that in my research.

16 Q Oh.

17 A And I think I remember looking at people's --
 18 just random people -- you know, Joe Smith or something
 19 and seeing, you know, that they had an actual picture.
 20 Because a lot of the profiles didn't have pictures, and 21 so I went to Facebook and I clicked on that person, and 22 yes, indeed, that person would have a public profile with 23 the same picture. And so I could see that, yes, indeed,
 24 you know, Jerk.com was mining Facebook to get
 25 information, and I sort of verified what I had read

CX0450-067

CX0450-068

1 myself by doing that.
 2 Q Okay. So it sounds like one of the ways people
 3 could get on was through this Post a Jerk --
 4 A That's right.
 5 Q -- feature. And so also read somewhere from the 6 Google forum that --
 7 A Yeah.
 8 Q -- I didn't fully follow that -- people could 9 also get on if they were -- you could search for them on 10 Google?
 11 A Yes. Somehow -- I believe that somehow Jerk.com
 12 had accessed Facebook's information, or at least the 13 public accounts or something, and somehow were able to 14 copy that information and put it into website form for 15 themselves and use that information.
 16 I didn't initially believe that. When I first 17 accessed the site and saw it, I didn't know that. I just 18 thought that maybe people had filled out this form and 19 posted me on there, and it was like, Wow, it's really
 20 amazing. And then later as I researched, I found out
 21 that maybe it was from Google. And I have a Facebook
 22 account and it was private, so there was no photo
 23 showing, so I figured yeah, that must be where they got 24 it.
 25 Q Okay. So after later research, you learned

1 another possibility would be through --
 2 A Yeah, I figured either -- from my profile,
 3 somebody either figured this out or, you know, they got
 4 it from Facebook.
 5 Q Okay. But when you first went to the website,
 6 you just thought someone put you on the website?
 7 A Yes, I did, uh-huh, yes.
 8 Q Now, this exhibit you have in front of you,
 9 CX-275 -- I think we actually talked about this earlier.
 10 Is there anything else you remember reading on this page?
 11 A Yeah, I remember reading that you couldn't be 12 removed. "Jerk is where you find out if someone is a 13 Jerk" -- oh. Oh, yeah, it -- this is a little 14 different -- somewhere I remember reading that -- they 15 said that -- basically, in so many words, they said that 16 they were doing a public service by having the site, and,
 17 you know, they would be unethical if they let somebody
 18 remove them or something, and just that you were going to 19 have to be on the site permanently.
 20 I don't see that language here, but I do
 21 remember reading that under -- I believe under the remove 22 section, so --
 23 Q Okay.
 24 A And I don't -- you know, actually -- you know, I
 25 don't think this is the rule that I saw, because this is

1 dated 2013, and I don't remember this part about the
 2 people under 14, and I remember language saying that
 3 if -- that you couldn't be removed.
 4 Q Okay.
 5 A You know, that they were doing -- like I said,
 6 it was kind of like that it was their ethical standpoint,
 7 that they just wanted to do the public a service by 8 posting this site for people, almost like they were a
 9 societal watchdog or something. So --
 10 Q Okay. So you might have seen --
 11 A Different language.
 12 Q -- different --
 13 A Uh-huh. I believe it was, uh-huh.
 14 Q Okay.
 15 A Very -- a lot of it was similar. Like I said
 16 before, I think this word sainthood was familiar, so --
 17 I'm just guessing perhaps this is a later page and it may 18 have been edited from the ones I originally viewed a year
 19 prior.
 20 Q Okay.
 21 A It was very similar.
 22 MS. FANG: And we're going to go off the record
 23 again.
 24 (Recess.)
 25 BY MS. FANG:

1 Q We're back on the record.
 2 A All right.
 3 Q So earlier, you know, we talked about different
 4 ways that you tried to contact the Jerk website. Did you
 5 try looking for Jerk.com's contact information on the 6 website?
 7 A Yes, I believe so. Yes, absolutely, uh-huh.
 8 Q Were you able to find any contact information?
 9 A Well, yeah, I -- I don't think I was able to 10 contact them.
 11 Q Do you remember if you found any e-mail address
 12 for Jerk on the website?
 13 A I can't remember.
 14 Q Do you remember if you found any physical
 15 address for Jerk on the website?
 16 A I can't remember.
 17 Q And do you remember finding or seeing any phone
 18 number for Jerk on the Jerk website?
 19 A I don't believe I found one because I would have 20 called it.
 21 Q Okay. And do you think you would have e-mailed
 22 Jerk --
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q -- if you had found an e-mail address?
 25 A Yes, and I didn't see any e-mails to them when I

1 searched Jerk in my e-mail folders. I don't erase any
 2 e-mails, so I mean, I'm assuming that no, I was not able
 3 to e-mail them at all, yeah.

4 Q Okay. And you said that -- did you -- you said
 5 you also looked on the Google forum where you were able
 6 to find that John Fanning e-mail. Did you look anywhere
 7 else on the Internet or anywhere else for other contact
 8 information?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And so you found -- on the Google forum you
 11 found the e-mail address and you found the physical 12 address. Were you able to find any e-mail address for 13 Jerk, the company, either in the Google forum or anywhere
 14 else you searched?

15 A I don't believe so.

16 Q Okay.

17 A Otherwise I would have written them an e-mail.

18 Q And did you find a phone number for Jerk
 19 anywhere else?

20 A No.

21 Q And did you find any physical address for Jerk?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. Now I'm going to show you what's been 24 previously marked as CX038.

25 A Yeah.

1 Q Do you remember submitting a sworn and signed
 2 declaration to the FTC, the Federal Trade Commission, in
 3 October 2012?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And is this document that declaration you
 6 submitted?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Please take a few minutes to read the document.

9 A Uh-huh. Yes, this is true.

10 Q You've finished reading?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. So in Paragraph 2 in the declaration, you 13 said, "In February 2012 I was searching the Internet and 14 typed my name into the Google search engine."

15 A Uh-huh.

16 Q Earlier today you were uncertain about the exact
 17 month when you found -- whether it was December 2011 or 18 February 2012 or March 2012.

19 A Yeah, right.

20 Q Would you say that --

21 A Well --

22 Q -- it was one of -- during -- around that time?

23 A Yes.

24 Q That during one of those months you found it?

25 A Yeah. This may be the most accurate guess. It

1 was definitely between, you know, March, because I have
 2 this -- March 7th, I have this e-mail where I was writing
 3 to Google about them, and then I believe somewhere
 4 around, you know, December, January or something, I had
 5 that other issue with that person, so I -- I mean, yeah,
 6 to me this is the most accurate time frame that I think
 7 it would have been, you know.

8 Yeah, it's probably somewhere in February.

9 January, February, uh-huh.

10 Q Okay. And it was definitely before March -- it
 11 was before March 2012 that you found --

12 A Yeah, it was, uh-huh.

13 Q Okay. And then in paragraph 5, I think it's on 14 the second page, on CX 0038-002, you said, "As of today
 15 my profile is still visible on Jerk.com and I have not 16 received a password to activate my Jerk.com membership."

17 I think earlier today you mentioned that at some 18 point you could no longer -- your profile was no longer
 19 on Jerk.com.

20 A Yes.

21 Q And so is it -- does this paragraph just need to 22 be updated that -- meaning that --

23 A Yeah, because on 2012, I guess I could still see
 24 my profile, and now it's been taken down. Sometime
 25 between, you know, October of 2012 and now it's been

1 taken down.

2 Q Okay.

3 A I'm not sure. I think that happened -- you
 4 know, I can't remember when that happened.

5 Q Okay. But -- right, in October of 2012 it was 6 still up?

7 A Uh-huh.

8 Q And so now, two years later, it's down.

9 A Uh-huh.

10 Q Apart from these two differences in Paragraph 2
 11 and Paragraph 5, is the rest of the declaration true and 12 accurate?

13 A Yeah, I think I left out that -- the part, I
 14 said I checked my bank statement and confirmed that 15 Jerk.com withdrew 30 from my account, and I think that 16 there's a really good possibility I left out that there
 17 was more than one charge --

18 Q Okay.

19 A -- so I need to research that.

20 Q Okay. But it's accurate -- you at least checked
 21 it once --

22 A Yeah, I --

23 Q -- and you know --

24 A Yeah, I know for sure I saw it on my account,
 25 yes. Because I remember being just really upset that not

1 only had I been told that I was going get something, but
 2 I got -- and having this terrible information on there,
 3 but that I got absolutely nothing, you know, and that was 4 just -- yeah, I know I got charged, and I was like I have
 5 to see, did they charge me for that --

6 Q Right.

7 A -- and then I looked and they did, indeed, yes.

8 Q And then -- but apart from possibly be charged
 9 twice, is the remainder of the declaration true and 10 accurate?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Great. I have no more questions for now. Thank
 13 you very much for your time today, Mr. [REDACTED]

14 As you saw, all we've said here today has been
 15 typed, and so the court reporter will send all of us a 16 copy of your testimony and you have the opportunity to 17 read and review and sign the deposition transcript within 18 30 days.

19 A Okay.

20 Q And so if for -- you know, you can also waive
 21 the opportunity to sign it and review right now. There's 22 no charge for you to actually -- you know, get the 23 transcript. It will be sent to you and you can review
 24 and sign it.

25 A Oh, okay.

1 MR. YANKILOVICH: So just to add to what Yan has
 2 said, our understanding is that they will send the
 3 transcript to your physical address. However, if you
 4 want to provide an e-mail address, and we can do that off
 5 the record, a copy will be e-mailed to you within I think
 6 four business days, which is our customary turnaround.

7 THE WITNESS: Sure.

8 MR. YANKILOVICH: And like Yan said, there's no
 9 cost, and I believe, but I'm not exactly sure sitting 10 here, that there's a 30 day period where if you find any 11 errors, you can submit a correction sheet. And then in 12 the end you either have to return a signature page
 13 stating, yes, this all looks good and correct, or you've 14 gotta affirmatively refuse to sign, so that -- because we 15 have to tell the Court whether the person signed or 16 somehow didn't want to sign.

17 And as Yan mentioned last week, you know, if you
 18 have absolutely no desire to review the transcript,
 19 you're welcome to waive the review and signature. But 20 it's completely your choice. You're more than welcome to 21 review it and make sure all of your testimony has been
 22 correct.

23 So that -- just for your information, I wanted
 24 to kind of clarify the process, because this is sort of 25 technical minutia that is not common sense stuff.

CX0450-077

CX0450-078

1 A Yeah. I understand. I have one question and
 2 that is, I still have the possibility of locating, you
 3 know, my bank statements with the charges from Jerk.com
 4 and possibly some screenshots. So would it be wise to 5 try and look for those in the next week or something and
 6 then provide those to you if I find them, and should I
 7 wait before I sign my statement to do that or --

8 MR. YANKILOVICH: Well, let's -- that we can 9 talk about off the record, because that doesn't directly
 10 bear on the content of the deposition. But it's your --

11 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

12 MR. YANKILOVICH: I don't -- I can't foresee how 13 finding additional documents would have any bearing. Of 14 course, if you find documents that for some reason
 15 contradict or reveal errors in some of your testimony, it
 16 may be wise to, you know, say you'll wait and submit
 17 corrections. So it sounds like maybe the smarter course
 18 is to review the transcript.

19 But we can talk about the documents and the 20 protocol off the records.

21 THE WITNESS: Okay, yeah.

22 MS. FANG: Thank you very much for your time. I
 23 think that those are all my questions.

24 (Whereupon, at 1:27 p.m., the hearing was 25 concluded.)

Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Jepsen:

This is in response to your letter of December 27, 2012 which was received in my office on January 18, 2013 after being routed from the statutory agent of Jerk.com. You have requested that my client respond to a complaint filed by [REDACTED]

Initially, I note that Jerk, LLC is a Delaware company and has no contacts with the state of Connecticut that would subject it to jurisdiction there.

Substantively, the complaint alleges that the photograph in a post on my client's website is copyright protected and that Jerk.com violated the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. Jerk.com is in compliance with the DMCA. I am its designated agent for notice and the website promptly removes material that is the subject of a valid DMCA notice. If I had received a valid DMCA notice from [REDACTED], the allegedly infringing content will be promptly removed. The statement in the complaint that Jerk.com does not reveal contact information is false. The designated DMCA contact information is listed with the Copyright Office, which is what is required by statute.

The complaint also states that the post damages [REDACTED] the reputation. Pursuant to the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, the post is protected free speech. Moreover, Jerk, LLC operates the forum, but the content is provided by users. The Communications Decency Act, 47 U.S.C. § 230(c)(1) (the "CDA"), which was passed by Congress with the intent to "promote unfettered speech" on the Internet, immunizes websites from liability for user generated content. The CDA preempts any inconsistent state law; "[n]o cause of action may be brought and no liability may be imposed under any State or local law that is inconsistent with this section."

Attorneys at Law

George Jepsen
January 16, 2013

Finally, the complaint states that the photograph was taken when [REDACTED] was 14 years old. Based on this representation, the website has removed the profile. If [REDACTED] parent had written directly to the website, the profile would have been removed based on her age.

Sincerely,

JABURG & WILK, P.C.

Re: File number 2012-1045007
[REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Lerner:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 14, 2013 directed to Jerk.com. First, I note that Jerk, LLC is a Delaware company and has no contacts with the state of New York that would subject it to jurisdiction there.

As far as substance, it seems that the "consumer" is unhappy because someone posted on my client's website asking whether he was a jerk. Pursuant to the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, that is protected free speech. Moreover, Jerk, LLC operates the forum, but the content is provided by users. The Communications Decency Act, 47 U.S.C. § 230(c)(1) (the "CDA"), which was passed by Congress with the intent to "promote unfettered speech" on the Internet, immunizes websites from liability for user generated content. The CDA preempts any inconsistent state law; "[n]o cause of action may be brought and no liability may be imposed under any State or local law that is inconsistent with this section."

Based upon the First Amendment and the CDA, the complaint appears to be entirely without merit.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Maria Crimi Speth,

I am writing in regards to one of your clients, Jerk.com/Jerk.org, who is currently the subject of an investigation by the Federal Trade Commission. Jerk.com generated a profile of me using a copyrighted photograph whose use I had not consented to. Following multiple notices of copyright infringement under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, the photograph was removed. However, my profile has not been removed.

I would like to request that my profile ([http://www.jerk.org/profile.php?name=\[REDACTED\]&id=20721497](http://www.jerk.org/profile.php?name=[REDACTED]&id=20721497)) under Jerk.org be removed. Jerk.org/com is premised on a violation of people's copyright, and it endangers public safety by posting private address information online. It also facilitates anonymous online slander.

I have already reported Jerk.com to the FBI, and have contacted several of the site's prior webhosts. If my profile is not removed, I will also be contacting the internal security division at my employer - Public Prosecution Service of Canada - and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, in light of the fact that Jerk.org is endangering my safety by making it possible for anyone dealing with the criminal justice system to go online and post sensitive information about me and other justice system participants.

I hope you will communicate the above to your client, and look forward to your cooperation in this matter.

Dear Maria,

This is not a question of your clients policy and your response of "this DMCA is not valid" is not accepted

As the legal council of Jerk.com you have the legal responsibility to seek clarification of any required information OR expeditiously remove or disable access to the allegedly infringing material, unless you can provide proof that your client is the copyright holder of the copyrighted photos and that your client also has permission to publish personal information such as address information, especially as the image contains of a minor.

The DMCA clearly states that the copyright holder's written notification of claimed infringement to the OSP's [Jerk.com] designated agent [Jaburg & Wilk, P.C.] including the following information is deemed to be a valid DMCA notification.

(i) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly contains this information.

(ii) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly contains this information

(iii) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly contains this information.

JERK 00216
CX0534-001

(iv) Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly contains this information.

(v) A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly states this information.

(vi) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

The DMCA infringement notification clearly contains this information.

In accordance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, you must remove this copyrighted information or request further information. You have done neither. Your client has clearly infringed copyright laws, and you are obliged to act on this matter.

I must also reiterate that there is a minor involved in this notice, and as such, your clients own terms prohibit the upload of pictures and information relating to minors, therefore you must move to remove this photo immediately at the very least.

I look forward to your quick resolution of this matter.

Kind regards,

Dear Sirs,

Please find attached a DMCA Complaint relating to copyrighted and abusive content published on Jerk.com, without lawful consent.

I would also like to add in addition to the attached letter, that the referenced Jerk.com web page has had several untrue comments posted by anonymous users, which are significantly damaging the livelihood of my client. The referenced url's contain pictures and locational information of a protected minor who has been involved in a child abuse investigation. We suspect that the person posting these comments is one and the same person, as that charged with this horrendous crime.

We request that you retain the IP address information of the person that posted these hateful comments, as we are in the process of gaining a court order to submit to you for the release of the said IP addresses by Jerk.com, in cooperation with the United Kingdom authorities, so that further charges may be brought forward.

We require that you cease and desist recording and publishing the referenced information, including name and address information, and remove the entire profile with immediate effect, and prohibit anyone else registering a new profile under this name and address detail.

We would appreciate it greatly if you could please attend to this matter with the utmost urgency and respond in a timely manor to confirm that you have received and are dealing with this notice.

I hope that this website will be soon removed and not be allowed to operate, as it's sole purpose seems to be to solicit money to remove or report personal information, which has been stolen, without consent, from other websites, such as Facebook and Twitter.

Yours sincerely,

Good day,

I am writing this email to ask from your kind office to please REMOVE [REDACTED] in your website www.jerk.com <http://www.jerk.com/>

He is a victim of harassment and cyberbullying. He is a good man and a good husband to me. I know that there are people out there trying to destroy our marriage and that they tried to humiliate my husband through your website.

I've been having sleepless nights since the day I saw his profile in your website and I keep on crying on why there are people who never stop torturing me. My family and my husband's family are very affected. They want to know who is the person responsible for this post. I don't want to reach this issue in court and I hope you can help us regarding this matter.

I am pleading from your kind heart to hear me.

Ms. Maria Crimi Speth, Esq.
JABURG & WILK, P.C.
3200 North Central Avenue
Suite 2000
Phoenix, AZ 85012

Ms. Speth:

I am writing to follow up on our telephone conversation of Wednesday, November 28, 2012. It is my understanding that you represent Jerk.com LLC, which you confirmed. As we discussed, my law firm represents [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Under penalty of perjury, I declare by my signature below that I am authorized to speak on [REDACTED] behalf in this matter.

Our client recently discovered that a search for his name in the Google® search engine returns a result that is highly visible in the top two listings which states: “Jerk :: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] • is a jerk”. See attached Exhibit 1.

When a user then clicks the hyperlink displayed in the Google® search results, he is brought to a profile page on Jerk.com. This profile prominently displayed several images, including the first, third and fourth images, which were images of [REDACTED]. See attached Exhibit 2. The second image displayed was not of [REDACTED].

JERK 00234

CX0537-001

Please be advised that the unauthorized copying and display of the fourth image violates [REDACTED] exclusive rights under the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq.

[REDACTED] does not concede that Jerk.com LLC may avail itself of the safe harbor in Section 512(c) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") for several reasons.

First, Jerk.com is not merely an online or Internet "service provider" as defined by the DMCA. It clearly benefits directly and financially from the infringements occurring thereon. Id; see A&M Records, Inc. v. Napster, Inc., 239 F.3d 1004 (9th Cir. 2001) ("drawing" customers to a website to receive a direct financial benefit deprives OSP of safe harbor.)

Second, as discussed further below, it is not clear that the profile of [REDACTED] depicted in Exhibit 1 attached hereto was "user generated content."

However, solely for the purposes of expeditiously resolving this particular matter, please be advised that we possess a good faith belief that Jerk.com's display of the fourth image violates [REDACTED] exclusive rights in that image, and we demand that it be permanently removed.

Without waiving or relinquishing his rights in any way, solely to mitigate the damages caused by the ongoing existence of this profile, [REDACTED] opted to pay Jerk.com to designate this profile as "private" and to forward visitors to an innocuous website.

However, even utilizing this process does not remove the offending profile from continued visibility in search engine results, which continue to prominently display the statement "Jerk :: [REDACTED] • is a jerk" devoid of further context. Consequently, [REDACTED] continues to be harmed by Jerk.com's continued conduct in this regard.

Further, I had inquired during our telephone conversation of yesterday whether [REDACTED] profile and the images displayed constituted "user generated" content, or content unilaterally created by Jerk.com.

The reasons for our client's belief that this profile was not user generated are as follows.

First, there is no textual content. One would expect that user generated content would contain critical statements.

Second, the display of the various images in the profile mirrors those of images displayed in the Google® image search results, which include photographs that are not of [REDACTED]. See attached Exhibit 1. One would expect that any user generating such content would recognize [REDACTED], and filter such images out. Therefore, this fact strongly suggests that Jerk.com itself created this profile using images that were automatically harvested from Google® or other sources for the purpose of generating traffic and soliciting financial payments from targeted individuals.

You stated that you believed that all profiles on Jerk.com are user generated, because you believed that Jerk.com does not have the technical capacity to unilaterally create content. You also stated that you would ask your client about this fact, and confirm it. However, we have not yet received any response from you.

Please be advised that if Jerk.com is unilaterally creating content, it is clearly not provided with any form of immunity under the DMCA, and would be directly liable for, inter alia, copyright infringement, as well as for state law violations for misappropriation of likeness and invasion of privacy, as well as casting [REDACTED] in a false light.

Please inform us in writing by no later than Thursday, December 6, 2012 whether [REDACTED] profile was a "user generated" profile.

This letter does not constitute a complete statement of the facts, law, claims, rights or remedies with respect to this matter, all of which are hereby reserved.

We look forward to your timely response.

Very Truly Yours,
The Gioconda Law Group PLLC

Why isn't there a function to protect people's privacy if they need it is my question then? This is so upsetting my health and safety are in jeopardy at this point in time.

Where, How and Who can I contact to address this issue? This is extremely important and I have tried every address, etc online to let them know this is serious matter and every letter has been returned unopened. I need a way to contact Jerk.com to get this resolved as quickly as possible. I should not have to "pay" them to have my private pictures removed. It should just be done if someone is in need.

As I mentioned before I've already had to cancel my facebook page where they got the original picture from in the first place because of my safety issues.

I would deeply appreciate any help with this matter.

Thank you,

Dear Ms. Speth,

I was given your name as the legal representative for the owners of the website Jerk.com. I recently became aware that somehow my name and image had found its way to this site, with no way to remove it. I don't know how this happened but I can tell you that my photo is not authorized for use. The news of this site using my name and image has cause me a great deal of stress, embarrassment and concern that it may effect my ability to obtain employment in the future. I find this website harassing, defaming and bullying to unsuspecting individuals.

With that, I want both my image and name removed from this website within 48 hours of your receipt of this email. In addition to all record that may cause my name or image to come up in association with jerk.com, in any internet search. Before contacting my attorney, I hope to work through you to resolve this matter. I look forward to prompt response and completion of the request as listed above.

Thank you for your time.

Maria,
thank you for continuing the correspondence.
There is a one time fee of $90 plus a "maintenance" fee.
All I want is my information taken down. I don't know who would be so cruel to add it (perhaps an angry ex boyfriend) but having my name connected to this site has caused serious professional consequences.
I am not wealthy nor can afford to spend money to hire an attorney to fight the owners of the site. I like everyone else who has been added to this site just want the bullying to stop and have our names taken down.

What recourse do I have outside of pleading my case to you?

To whom it may concern.

I have realised that someone has put my name on "jerk.com" this webpage does not allow you to remove your profile and i have been in touch with people here in Australia about it. Unfortunately it's an American site and nothing can be done about it here. I have read some articles online and it mentions to get in contact with Maria Crimi Speth. I'm sure many have put in complaints. Is there anything being done about it and what are the chances of getting the profile or even the site removed? I didn't give permission for anyone to put my name, picture or any other details online - there must be a law for this type of behaviour and if so, this site is definitely in breach of that law?

I know your firm would be very busy. However, i would greatly appreciate any information given on this matter.

Kind Regards,

Subject: Please Remove My Underage Son's Profile

Hello,

I would like to write to you about my son's profile on "Jerk.com." It has recently been called to my attention, and as my son is being bullied in school it causes him great distress that one of his bullies seemed to have created a page on your website. I am appalled to learn that your website promotes bullying; especially when there is already a major issue with bullying in schools across America as I am sure you are aware. My son is also under the age of 14, and I read that Jerk.com should remove a page in this case. I am very worried about my son, and would very much appreciate if you remove his page and ban his name from ever appearing on your website again. As a parent I am worried about my son developing PTSD later on in life, or another severe psychiatric illness as a result of bullying. It's difficult enough that he gets bullied in school, so he shouldn't have to deal with it at home as well. I am especially worried due to the articles I read about which often state that bullying can lead to suicide; even in very young victims despite the help they can get. Please have some sympathy and remove his page, as well as ban his name from ever showing up on your website again. Thank you.

Here is the link to the page:

Good Afternoon,

I read online that I can ask you to please get me removed from jerk.com. I have no idea how I could end up on such a website. I am trying to find a job closer to home, as I currently commute an hour back and forth to work and the jerk.com site has come up in two interviews. I am a Mother to one Son and soon to be Step-mother to five girls. The jerk.com site is becoming an issue in my relationship and never mind the fact I find it extremely embarrassing. Please, please, please get me off of there! Please!

Thank you,

Dear Maria,

I am writing hoping you will aid the removal of my name: [REDACTED] from jerk.com.

I have been receiving malicious posts from the man who has harmed my young daughter and is threatening me for nearly a year after I reported the abuse.

Please help me stop him intimidating me.

I really hope you can help. It was recommended that if anyone could help it would be you.

Many thanks,

Comments: I looked up my name on Google and I found my name, and profile pictures (since my profiles are private) from my Facebook and my old Myspace account on their website Jerk.com. There is also a picture that is not me that was put up there with mine under my name. I did not consent to them taking my name and my pictures and posting them on a website where people can say if I am a jerk or not and even write things about me. I went to the link 'Remove my name' and it brought me to a page that said: 'Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use Jerk to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available http://www.jerk.com/signin.php ' and then it asked for my credit card information. I can't even contact these people without giving out my credit card information, which I will not do. So many people are being victimized by this website and some do not even know about it. The information they took is Personal Identifiable Information that they cannot take from me. — Additional Comments: I would like the website to be shut down, and if that cannot happen, I really wish I could have the option to take my name off because I did not put it there. I do not want this website to ruin my future career goals.

Comments: Please see this internet link: http://www.google.com/support/forumWeb+Searchthread?tid=[REDACTED]en This malicious website: www.jerk.com took my image and name from Facebook and now I fear I am the victim of cyberbullying. It requests that in order to remove any damaging or offensive comments you have to subscribe to the website, paying a fee. This is blackmail. Please see my profile here: http://www.jerk.comprofile.php?tid=[REDACTED] While currently no offensive things are written about me, I think it is appalling that this website automatically phishes for profile details on other websites then blackmails you into paying a subscription fee to improve your information. As far as I am aware, the company is registered in Eakly, Oklahoma, with a web domain created in Romania. There is another website to which this company is linked: ASSIST Software SRL http://www.assist-software.ro/jerk I should also point out that Facebook has a duty of care to its clients with regard to how it shares information to other companies. As far as I am aware, it does not offer photographs to other companies. Indeed the photograph used on the www.jerk.com website was taken by me and is my copyright, and so my copyright has been infringed. PLEASE, PLEASE help with removing this web site, and my profile on it - and preventing any further instances of blackmail. thank you.

Please check the "More Information on Data Contributor Complaints" link for further details on IC3 data. --- Incident description: DEAR SIRS, I AM TRYING TO FIGURE OUT HOW TO ERASE MYSELF FROM A SITE I NEVER REGISTERED OR SELECTED TO BE PART OF, AS THEY TOOK MY NAME/LASTNAME AND PICTURE FROM FACEBOOK (AS MILLIONS OF OTHERS) . IT WAS AUTOMATED AS WHEN I SAW MY PROFILE IT HAD NO VOTES (POSITIVE OR NEGATIVE, I MEAN JERK OR NO) . THE SITE IS CALLED JERK.COM. WHEN I ASKED THEIR WEBMASTER TO DELETE MY PROFILE I SAW THIS PARAGRAPH BELOW (AND I RECEIVED MY 1ST 'JERK' VOTE FROM HIM, I SUPPOSE) . IN ADDITION, THEY HAVE A SECTION WHICH IS CALLED 'REMOVE ME' AND THEY ASK FOR MONEY (NOT SURE IF IS ON A MONTHLY BASIS) AND I AM NOT REALLY SURE IF THE PERSON WHO PAYS CAN BE REMOVED AS THIS IS WHAT THEY WRITE, SO DEFINITELY THIS IS A HUGE SCAM, AS IT INCLUDES MILLIONS OF PEOPLE (FRUSTRATED TO SEE THEMSELVES AS JERKS ON LINE, THEY PAY AND ARE STILL ONLINE AS 'JERKS OR NO') : THIS IS ON THEIR REMOVE ME SECTION, IN WHICH THEY EXPLAIN WHY THEY WILL NOT REMOVE THEIR VICTIMS PROFILES! "Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use Jerk to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available http://www.jerk.com/signin.php" THIS IS MY PROFILE (PERSONAL PHOTOGRAPH AND NAME) WHICH IS PUBLISHED WITHOUT ANY APPROVAL FROM MY PART AND THIS IS AGAINST THE LAW AS THEY TOOK PERSONAL DETAILS WITHOUT ANY APPROVAL FROM MY PART (YOU CAN SEE IS TOTALLY EMPTY FROM INFORMATION AND IDENTICAL WITH MY FACEBOOK PROFILE) . http://www.jerk.com/profile.php?id=[REDACTED] I ALREADY CONTACTED SAFELINE.GR AND ELECTRONIC CRIME INVESTIGATION AUTHORITIES IN MY COUNTRY. THE REAL DANGER, BESIDES THE 'FUNNY' JERK PART, IS THAT ANYONE CAN POST ANYTHING ABOUT ANYONE WHO IS ON THE SITE (FROM PERSONAL INFORMATION TO BANK DETAILS - I SAW IT THAT'S WHY I AM MENTIONING IT) AND THEY ASK FOR MONEY, ALSO. I SAW PROFILES OF CHILDREN WHERE ANYONE CAN BASH THEM, AS ANYONE CAN POST ANYTHING FOR ANYONE. AT A PERSONAL LEVEL, I AM A PROFESSIONAL WRITER AND SCRIPTWRITER AND THIS CAUSES SERIOUS DAMAGE TO MY REPUTATION AND PROFESSIONAL IMAGE, THE FACT TO BE PART OF A SITE WITH THE NAME 'JERK'. ALSO THIS SITE INCLUDES 'HATE AND RACISM' ISSUES/ARTICLES, IN WHICH I DO NOT WISH TO BE PART OF AS MY PROFILE (IMAGE AND NAME WERE STOLEN FROM MY LIMITED PROFILE IN FACEBOOK) . IN ADDITION, I BELIEVE THIS IS A SORT OF BLACKMAIL SCAM, AS PEOPLE WHO WISH TO BE ERASED, PAY AN AMOUNT (NOT SURE IF THIS IS FORCED TO BE ON A MONTHLY BASIS, YOU HAVE TO LOOK INTO IT) AND STILL THEIR PROFILE IS THERE. IF YOU SEARCH/WRITE 'Problem with Jerk.com' IN GOOGLE YOU WILL SEE IN DETAIL MANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THIS ISSUE FROM OTHER VICTIMS (THE NAMES THEY FOUND TO THE MONEY ISSUE I MENTIONED EARLIER) . HOW CAN I BE PROTECTED AS GLOBAL CITIZEN FROM SUCH ILLEGAL ACTIONS? THESE PEOPLE ARE MAKING MONEY FROM ANXIOUS PEOPLE WHO WISH TO BE ERASED FROM A SITE THEY NEVER SELECTED TO BE PART OF... LOOKING FORWARD HEARING FROM YOU, KIND REGARDS, ALEXANDRA BELEGATI HEREBELOW PLEASE FIND MY INITIAL CONTACT/E-MAIL TO THEM. I NEVER RECEIVED ANY KIND OF REPLY. From: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Sent: Sunday, September 04, 2011 10:57 AM To: support@jerk.be Cc: AEEΞANΔPA Subject: PLEASE REMOVE ME IMMEDIATELY -

I found the usual... facebook, twitter, old xanga accounts, etc. Then I see my name beside the word, Jerk. Perplexed, I clicked on it to see what in the world it was. To my shock, I see a photo of myself AND my child from December 2009, along with two Anonymous reports both saying the same thing about how I am a jerk. It states that I am selfish, care for no one but myself, let others run my life, I know no forgiveness, and it's not good for life points. There are quite a few typos and misspelled words. It states that these reports were made 268 days ago. The photo had to have been stolen from my facebook account; that is the only place that it exists besides my laptop. I do not like the fact that I am being slandered, and that anyone can view that photo of me and my child on a public website by simply googling my name. I need to know what actions I can take to get this mess taken off of this nasty and ridiculous website. I hope that the information regarding the owners is relevant, I obtained it from others who have been scammed by these awful people.

Comments : Dear Madam,Dear Sir,I hereby want file a complain about a company website : www.jerk.com. My foto and full name is shown on this website jerk.com against my personal will. If my name is entered in a search machine it is shows up as 'jerk'. There has never been a consent,agreement or what so ever. The use of my personal identity and photograph in this pejorative context is simply abusive and persues a mere commercial interest. Could you please help me and remove my profile which is shown under: http://www.jerk.com/profile.php?id=[REDACTED] Due to the fact that my name and picture are used in connection with this insult this is a clear case of libel.There is a defamation of my person by written or printed words on the website and by the headline result which shows up in the search engine.As you have to pay to logon to "www.jerk.com" there is a commercial interest and my copyrights are violated. They claim a US$ 25 charge just to send them an email in order to complain and ask for removal. Furthermore they require you to log in and charge additional money. This is a criminal behaviour. How could you stop this stealing and abuse of personal information. According to several online forums, I've just learned that I am not the only victim of such blackmailing. I dont want to pay them in order to get my copyrighted photo and insults removed.As a Columbia Law School Graduate my reputation is an essential asset in order to pursue my career in the legal profession.Thank you very much for your kind support in this matter!Yours sincerely [REDACTED]

Comments: Jerk.com is a spam website that randomly generates profiles for people using their copyrighted Facebook photos. It facilitates online libel. -- Additional Comments: First of all, Jerk.com should remove ALL copyrighted material that they have taken from people's Facebook profiles and elsewhere without their consent. More importantly, they should either allow people to remove their profiles or simply stop generating random profiles.'

I have no idea how this company got my photo and name, they did not and still do not have permission to post my name and picture on this site and I want it removed. It is telling me that I can remove my page to another location for $99.00 or send in a complaint and pay $25.00 to file it. I am a police officer and the only site I am on is facebook. I do not like the fact that you can go on this site and see my photo and it also has a link to go to my work email.

Comments:	I recently google my name for a job and came across this web site, with a picture of me on it and you have to pay $25.00 to remove it. in the account that was set up was not done by myself and someone stole this picture of me. due to the copyright Infringement complaint I want my name removed from the web site. I have tried writing to them to no avail, when you hit the remove button you have to be a member and I do not want to sign up to be a member and this is what it says when you hit the delete button Remove me.Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use Jerk to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available http://www.jerk.com/signin.php DID NOT PAY, AND ANYONE CAN CREATE YOUR PROFILE AND UPLOAD PICTURES OF YOU. — Additional Comments: I would like BBB to please help me to get my profile down from this webpage and my name removed. & also for the webmaster to make sure you can delete other people names who did not put their names up on this site. The remove me button dose not let you remove yourself from the page. But most of all I want my name removed !!! and my profile pic which was stolen from my facebook page. and my page is private...!

Comments: This website has used my name and photograph (pulled from Facebook) without my consent! There is no way of contacting anyone on this website. There is a page if you want to remove yourself, which I have done several times, but it has not deleted my information. There is an email address to write to but they charge you to send an email??!!I have read online that several people have had the same problem contacting them and trying to delete their information. This is a ridiculous website and NEEDS to be shut down!!! Who charges you to send an email for any request and this website is drawing people to bully and make ill remarks about anyone which is not right. Please help to get my name and photo taken off this website and close this website down! --- Additional Comments: I would like my name and photo taken off this website and close this website down!

Please check the "CSN Record Details page - Data Reference field" link for further details on IC3 data. --- Incident description: In a google search of 14 year old daughter on Feb 15, 2012, the first entry that popped up was a site we had never heard of, jerk.com. It seems that this website is automatically creating profiles for people who are unaware. It took my daughters name and an old photo which had been deleted from Facebook about a year ago. The website gives people opportunity to vote if the person in the profile is jerk or not. It allows people to write anything they want about the person. You can also buy or sell personal information about people such as phone numbers, email addresses, on their profile. We are unable to delete the false profile, and the site wants payment to communicate with their customer support. You can imagine that this is an upsetting situation for a 14 year old girl.

Comments: (I apologize if that's not the correct classification.) A website called jerk.com took a photo of mine and my name without permission; the photo was taken by me and it's owned by me, and it was posted to facebook (privacy set so it was visible only to friends). The website claims it doesn't remove any profiles because 'this is the internet and nothing can be deleted on the internet' (or something along those lines). It says there's a copyright infringement form 'coming soon' (which I seriously doubt). There is no way I can find to contact the webmaster, and even if there was, I'd be hesitant to simply because it seems like the type of website that will just spam you even more if you try to contact them. I want the photo taken down at the very least, as it's my private property. I don't know if it's possible to also ask them to remove my name, but I'd very much appreciate it if that's possible. Thanks for your time. — Additional Comments: To have my photo and name removed'

Comments: jerk.com has illegally taken an old deleted picture from Facebook and has included my picture, which I legally own, as well as my name and information to use on their site to create a profile whereby anyone can vote if the person is a jerk or not and anyone can provide personal information and infringe upon a persons right to privacy. I am concerned as a professional with a reputation to uphold and as a female for potential threat to my personal security and safety if information should be included about my address etc, since my picture is already on this site . This site is asking to be paid to have the data removed and even then it states that its up to the site. I am very concerned about this site and the harm it can potentially do. I have read in blogs that childrens information is being stolen as well and posted on jerk.com!!! How can this be allowed to continue? How can this site be allowed to still be allowed?

A website called www.jerk.com appeared. I clicked on it and went to my 'profile' on their site. My full name is listed along with a photograph of myself that I own the rights too. The photograph was at one time my profile picture on www.facebook.com but was removed from facebook approximately a month and a half ago. My facebook profile and photographs are private so the information was stolen from me without my consent. I would the profile on www.jerk.com and the picture to be removed. It appears this website serves a sole purpose of maliciousness and poor taste. A photograph of me that is my property is on the internet against my knowledge and consent. It is on the website www.jerk.com

Comments: NOTE: To prevent interference with pending law enforcement action, prior to any investigative action, please contact the IC3 at SEARCH@IC3.GOV. Please check the "More Information on Data Contributor Complaints" link for further details on IC3 data. — Incident description: jerk.com seems to be a website that grabs photographic and name information from facebook (or cached facebook) pages and posts it on the internet. The site contains various offensive materials, such as postings by users with racist, sexist and other malicious speech. For example, as of 07/23/2011 the front page contains posts by users like "Burn the Jews" and "Kill all Niggers". I am absolutely outraged that searches for my name on this website point to my image and name. It is absolutely unacceptable since I DID NOT Post this information on this website. Various search engine queries for my name also point to this website. There is no contact information on the website to file a complaint. What is even worse is that they require payment for you to sign-up or remove this content. The image I posted on facebook.com are solely my property and hence I own the copyright on them. I can prove this by providing digital copies of the exact image posted by jerk.com on their website. I should not be needed to pay anyone to remove this content from the website. It is a form of extortion that they require payment and sign-up in order to remove what is undoubtedly my property. The fact that my name and image are posted on this website is in a way defaming my character. As they have associated my identity with a website titled "Jerk" and where anonymous users post offensive writings. The fact that a simple search for my name leads to this website shows that this behavior by jerk.com can severely affect my personal and professional life.

Please check the "CSN Record Details page - Data Reference field" link for further details on IC3 data. — Incident description: I recently googled my name and found a photograph that was taken 2 years ago on a website called Jerk.com with my name. I was unable to remove the profile and even registered to find a way to contact them. However, a fee of $25 'for support' was required which I did not pay. I believe the photo came from Facebook, even though I deleted all photos and my profile from Facebook over a year ago. More complaints and detailed information about this site can be found on 'Google and jerk.com ' which is where it was recommended by some that a complaint should be filed with yourself. I'm particularly distressed as I have discovered 2 on-line telephone directory websites in the UK which can provide address and family member details. Fortunately, these websites give the option to remove private information and I have submitted this request. However, until then, someone can access my name and with the photo from jerk.com find me.

Comments:	This website pulls information from other websites (even if privacy settings are high), especially social networking sites, and then allows people to vote on whether or not they are a 'jerk'. They also allow people to ADD pages for people to this website. I, somehow, was unknowingly added to this website. They do NOT offer a method of removal of this information, which can include photos and personal information, unless you pay $99/year to have your jerk.com page redirected to the site of your choice. This is gross exploitative behavior libelous. It is dangerous in many ways to personal privacy and people's reputations. — Additional Comments: I would like for this site to offer a removal option, or for the website to be terminated.

I am a UK born and bred citizen and initially made a complaint to the UK police. I and it seems a number of people have found that due to some malicious process (claimed to be a Facebook app) my Facebook account has been hacked and a clear photo and my name put on a website called jerk.com and jerk.be without my authorisation. The only way to remove this is to pay the website owner. This is surely illegal and a form of blackmail. This site appears very high in searches when you google a name and this is a particular problem for me as my name is very unique. I was at one point on the homepage of this website asking to vote if I was unique name which led to some very sleepless nights. The website seems to be run by someone called John Fanning john@netcapital.com The website is an abuse website which invites people to abuse a profile created stolen from Facebook and add lots of contact details including phone number and address. I have a distinct clear photo and a very unique name on a profile (link provided). http://www.jerk.com/profile.php[REDACTED] I am of an [REDACTED] background, and in the photo Im wearing religious head covering which Im sure is going to contribute to lots of racist abuse especially from people who will automatically assume I am from an [REDACTED] background. Please can you help all the people especially those whose children are suffering at the moment who are finding that their lives are being ruined by this malicious illegal website who have managed to hack into facebook. I am more than happy to call or receive calls and take this forward as quickly as possible. Many thanks for your help. I look forward to hearing from you. Comments:	To whom this may concern: http://jerk.com/profile.php? The aforecited link contains my name and my picture. I would like the entire profile to be removed due to its defamatory nature. Although jerk.com website says, 'No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases', and that it's not possible to remove things from the Internet', I believe the responsibility of removing my profile lies on the owner/administration of jerk.com, as I am not asking them to remove the content from an arbitrary website; rather, I am asking to remove the information that they have extracted from my facebook.com profile, and without my permission posted it on their website. My numerous attempts to contact the administration of jerk.com were unsuccessful; as it turns out, the 'support' email that they provide on their website is not existing. I will really appreciate if you could help me with this. Sincerely, Additional Comments: I would like the profile situated under the link http://jerk.com/profile.php? to be removed from jerk.com website. I do not want any of my information (name, picture, etc.) on jerk.com. I have never posted it, it was extracted from my facebook.com profile, and posted on jerk.com without my permission.

Comments: I found a profile under my name on this site, though I have never had contact with them. The nature of the site must be cyberbullying. Firstly they offer no possibility of removing the profile, and in order to even contact them they demand a payment of $25 (which I didnt pay) . They are also asking other users to buy and sell personal information about me. This is the content under my name on the profile page. "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day" age: buy sell address: buy sell city: buy sell zip code: buy sell country: buy sell mobile: buy sell msn: buy sell email: buy sell occupation: buy sell employer: buy sell home phone: buy sell work phone: buy sell licence plate: buy sell facebook: buy sell myspace: buy sell ebay: buy sell linked in: buy sell Naturally I am terrified, not only is my personal information open for public auction, but I am branded as a Jerk and have no way to contact them or find who posted this profile fraudulently. I dont think sites like this should be permitted to encourage not only cyber bullying but also identity theft. Please help me. I have to remove my name from this site somehow, and also wish to find out who did this as I feel very nervous now that someone has done this to me intentionally. Unfortunately the company has nearly no information on their site as to how to contact them. Thank you for any help in advance [REDACTED]

Comments: I recently discovered a picture of my three children (all under the age of 13) on the jerk.com website. I could see no way of even contacting the company to ask them to remove the picture without joining 'jerk.com' or paying a $25 fee. I could find no way to contact jerk.com customer service to get this issue resolved. I do not know where they got the picture of my children. The copyright of the picture belongs to me, as I took the picture, and I certainly never gave them permission to use the picture. I have never heard of the website before today. Obviously, in this day and age of online predators, I am very concerned with any images of my kids being online. My only concern is to keep my kids safe. I only ask that jerk.com remove the picture of my children from their website. Thank you for your help and assistance in dealing with this matter concerning the business jerk.com. Very Respectfully, — Additional Comments: I only ask that jerk.com remove the picture of my children from their website. '

Comments: Jerk.com has published my name and a photograph taken from facebook on their website. Visitors are asked to vote whether or not I am a posjerkapso. -- Additional Comments: I would like jerk.com to remove my photo and profile page from their website. Jerk.comaposs business model seems to be to add individuals to their website without their consent in order to pressure them into paying for a membership so that they have greater control over their profile. Given that this unethical and hopefully illegal in some way, I would ideally like to see them prosecuted and shut down entirely so that others donapost run into the same trouble.

Comments:	I googled my name and found me listed on this site. Not only did I find my profile and my picture, I had no idea that this site even had these pieces of information. I went to there link so called 'remove me' which popped up with a message that said 'you can't just remove things from the internet' obviously that link is misleading and a violation of the law. I am very concerned for my safety and the well-being of my family especially being that of an active duty military member. This website had no consent for this information and should be shut down for violations of privacy. — Additional Comments: I want my information taken off this site.

Comments : Jerk.com has made a profile for me on their website URL: http://www.jerk.com. [REDACTED] They have done this without my consent and are using a picture of me that they do NOT have my permission to use. I own the picture, I took it myself for a photography project when I was a minor in high school. I would like the profile taken down, but they refuse to unless I pay a ridiculous sum of money. I will take legal action if you are unable to help me. Please help me get this profile removed. It has been tracking my other online actions and I feel unsafe and victimized by this website. Thank you very much. — Additional Comments: To have the profile using my name and image (which I did not consent to in any way, shape or form) taken down from the website.

Comments:	www.Jerk.com While searching my name on Google I came across this website. I never signed up for it, yet they made a profile for me and somehow got a picture of my little brother laying down next to my (dead) dog. I used this photo as a profile picture on facebook (Profile is always locked down to max security settings provided). I clicked a "Remove Me" link on the site and this is what I got: "Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a jerk. Less than 5 of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile IS EVER REMOVED because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and its not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use Jerk to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available http://www.jerk.com/signin.php" Then I clicked on the "Contact" button at the bottom of their webpage, and I got this: "If you are not logged in there is a service charge of $25 for support. This charge is refundable at our sole discretion." I do not have, and I do not want, a profile. This company has overstepped their bounds and then to tell me I cant remove a picture I own, and then if I want to contact them I have to pay $25.....

Comments: NOTE: To prevent interference with pending law enforcement action, prior to any investigative action, please contact the IC3 at SEARCH@IC3.GOV. Please check the "More Information on Data Contributor Complaints" link for further details on IC3 data. — Incident description: Below, is the email that I wrote to the owner of jerk.com I joined the site to remove my name and information off there site only i could never get on the site because they wouldnt send a password... I dont know who put my name and picture from my account on facebook, they have put my phone number and address this isn't right. They charge me 3.00 a month with pay pal and they never gave me a password so basically I could never get on the site.. I know this is a small amount. But if they do this to everyone it can add up bottom line they are frauding people plus they are giving out and using pictures that they dont have permission to use. Dear John, I was googling my name to see my web sites SEO rankings and noticed a new listing that has my name on it called Jerk.com . It is a web site that lets your 'rate jerks'. While I am supposedly 100% saint at the moment I would rather not have a profile on this site it appears pretty easy to 'Jerk' someone and lets face it no one wants negative stuff about them. It seems they got me from face book as the picture on it is my face book picture and I do not use any other Internet services with photos. I have my face book profile on everything only viewable by friends and do not add strangers, so I am puzzled as to how they even got my profile pic. Do you guys think I can get them to remove my profile from their site in any way? In their removal section, they say: "Just because you have a profile on jerk.com does not mean you are a Jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on jerk.com are jerks. Jerk.com is where you find out if someone is a Jerk, is not a Jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because jerk.com is based on searching free open Internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use jerk.com to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available" I then bought your services to remove my name from your site, you see, You don't have my permission, to use your image, which I have ownership rights to, you need to remove my name and picture immediately. I am a professorial who doesn't need to have false info on the net. I am sure you can understand this.. I look forward in hearing from you about this matter. I will bring this to my attorneys attention, if no action is taken . Thank you.

Comments : This site is a complete scam, they want you to pay $95/yr to have your name taken off of the list. This only purpose of the site is to trash other people. I did not in any way shape or form signup for this site or any of its known affiliates. The information used to create the profile was taken off of my private profiles on social media sites like Google or Facebook. I have tried to contact the company, but in order to even send them an email they want you to pay $25. I have consulted with my attorney on this matter, and she informed me that since I am a minor in the state of Colorado, it is unlawful for them to possess my private information and photographs and make them available to the general public. --- Additional Comments: I would like to see the site shutdown, however, I am aware that the BBB does not have the authority(?) to do so. I would just like to see that the matter becomes more aware to the government, and the public about the 'service' and how they use/obtain one's information.

Comments:	I found a profile under my name on this site, though I have never had contact with them. The nature of the site must be cyberbullying. Firstly they offer no possibility of removing the profile, and in order to even contact them they demand a payment of $25 (which I didnt pay). They are also asking other users to buy and sell personal information about me. This is the content under my name on the profile page. "Nominate this person for Jerk of the day" age: buy sell address: buy sell city: buy sell zip code: buy sell country: buy sell mobile: buy sell msn: buy sell email: buy sell occupation: buy sell employer: buy sell home phone: buy sell work phone: buy sell licence plate: buy sell facebook: buy sell myspace: buy sell ebay: buy sell linkedin: buy sell Naturally I am terrified, not only is my personal information open for public auction, but I am branded as a Jerk and have no way to contact them or find who posted this profile fraudulently. I dont think sites like this should be permitted to encourage not only cyber bullying but also identity theft. Please help me. I have to remove my name from this site somehow, and also wish to find out who did this as I feel very nervous now that someone has done this to me intentionally. Unfortunately the company has nearly no information on their site as to how to contact them. Thank you for any help in advance.

Comments:	NOTE: To prevent interference with pending law enforcement action, prior to any investigative action, please contact the IC3 at SEARCH@IC3.GOV. Please check the "Record Details page - Data Reference field" on the Consumer Sentinel Network page for further details on IC3 data. -- Incident description: I conducted a Google search on myself on December 31, 2011 to ensure that no inappropriate or expired information about myself was in existence on the Internet. The eighth listing down was www.jerk.com/profile.php? It is a profile that includes my full name and photo on the website jerk.com. I have never authorized use of my name or photo for this particular website. I did post the photo to a Facebook account approximately 2-3 years ago, but I did not give up my rights to the photo nor allow others to use it without my prior approval. As of December 31, 2011, there is no way to remove my profile. The website claims the following: "Just because you have a profile on Jerk does not mean you are a jerk. Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. You can however use Jerk to manage your reputation and resolve disputes with people who you are in conflict with. There are also additional paid premium features that are available http://www.jerk.com/signin.php" The website states that if you contact them via the website, they will charge a $25 fee. They also state that photos cannot be removed unless you sign up for an account that both costs money and requires that you give personal information to the company. I would like to see that my entire profile is removed, or, at the very least, that my copyrighted photo is removed, from the website. As many others also feel victimized by this website (see below), it would be great to have it taken down.

Comments:	Louie Lardas of www.jerk.com has been blackmailing people with the pictures he stole from social media sites and charging them VIA paypal an ebay company who knew well about this 99. or more to get a good rating recurring a year to redirect their stolen pictures when they owned them. The DMCA protected them and he knew that he had a whole office dedicated to that. You may see all the photographs taken before he took down jerk.com that I have saved. Here http://report.cnn.comdocs [REDACTED] http://report.cnn.comdocs [REDACTED] this last link is a screenshot of a stolen newborn dubbed a jerk. When I contacted abuse their response was "abuse@netplex.com to me, "Hello Mr. [REDACTED], I see the screenshot you are referring to, but as I am not child services, I may not speak on their behalf as to whether or not the image is abusive and/or illegal." as well as CC: to [REDACTED] Attorney JS@slebilawfirm.com http://report.cnn.comdocs [REDACTED] It is sick that NO ONE not even abuse at the company polices a newborn being called a jerk as well as her first picture being stolen and posted on a terrible site that will only remove it for bribery. EBAY and PAYPAL take a cut of this bribery and have been contacted and do not stop. The screen shots show its 99. a year to forward your picture when you own the picture, pure bribery. They have a DMCA office set up to process those complaints as they stole the pictures and if people go that route they will remove it. They also have underage children on there, well under 12 peoples daughters who will come forth and have asked them to remove them, myself and [REDACTED] are the main complainants right now as DMCA reports were sent in and never confirmed and police reports were filed because threats were made because we were on this site with pictures we never put on there and never wanted on there. Slanderous and cruel things were said and threats were made on my life. My address was for sale for a paypal fee. It is truly disgusting and if I didn't buy it to remove it, someone could murder me. This person has no conscience. Ebay and paypal keep ignoring the complaints and are just as guilty. This site may be down but the mental damage it left from threats and working up a pregnant woman is unbelievable. I was mugged two years ago. I didn't want to leave my apartment, thanks to the threats. I was told to pay to remove them. Bribery. Pure Bribery [REDACTED] already has high blood pressure and he was causing her medical problems with the stress of mocking her publicly with her own pictures he stole without permission. Please CC as a victim (complainant) : [REDACTED] Stow, OH 44124. PS9000: Bribery Other-Other Update

Please check the "CSN Record Details page - Data Reference field" link for further details on IC3 data. --- Incident description: I am a PhD in Education and from time to time I Google myself to see what is out there on me to protect my profile and I saw a listing titled: "Is [REDACTED] a Jerk?" Curious, I clicked on it and unfortunately a picture of my daughter, when she was about 6 months old, came up as my profile picture. This picture was obviously taken from Facebook even though I have very strict privacy settings on FB. On Jerk.com there is a tab titled "remove me" so I clicked on that and it had an explanation that "less than 5% of people on Jerk.com are actually jerks and . . . you can't remove anything from the internet." So I attempted to contact the web administrator to see if they would take down the pictures of my daughter - on the contact us page you could file feedback or a complaint but the page said that if I was not a registered user of jerk.com I had to give my credit card information and I would be charged $25 to file the complaint. I think this is an abusive site and dangerous for children if they are going to take child profile pictures from FB and post them. I want my profile taken off of Jerk.com and I think their business practices should be investigated. Thank you. [REDACTED] PhD --- Specified Other Payment: I didn't go so far as to pay

Comments: My photo was taken from facebook and an account was created with my name. I did not give permission for any of this to take place, it is illegal. --- Additional Comments: Remove my photo and profile immediately. This website is encouraging cyber bullying and is unethical and immoral. It should be shut down completely and invades the privacy of others. Strangers should also not be allowed to create profiles for other people. This is a form of abuse and it is a complete monstrosity to have a website that promotes this type of behavior. It is degrading, robs people of their self esteem and makes you feel threatened and unsafe. REMOVE MY PROFILE NOW.'

On looking at it I found to remove yourself that you had to pay a sum of money. I chose not to do that as on searching online revealed that this site would take money and not remove the offending page. I would like this page to be removed as it is defamatory and vilifying of myself and yet I can't defend myself from the poor comments made. I noted online the many complaints that photos are taken from their Facebook page which is private. Therefore is it Facebook themselves a rogue employee stealing peoples information and charging money to remove details? Is it a rogue application that is stealing photos? This website needs to come down and quick. It claims that it must be dealt with Arizona so I hope something can be done. --- Specified Other Payment: [REDACTED] password [REDACTED] My friend accidentally claimed it as hers and she has provided me with the password she created. [REDACTED] informed me of the following: "as i was looking through it it had a button to say claim this site..... stupid me clicked it and now it wants $90 from me to forward the page elsewhere." Therefore this is a scam at a higher $$$ level than what I previously stated. I shouldn't have to pay $90 to remove the vile information and photo of myself.

Less than 5% of the millions of people on Jerk are jerks. Jerk is where you find out if someone is a jerk, is not a jerk, or is a saint in the eyes of others. No one's profile is ever removed because Jerk is based on searching free open internet searching databases and it's not possible to remove things from the Internet. Comments: I googled my name just to check and see if there was anything I should know about out on the internet. I do not know how long this site has been up as I havent googled my name in a while. My name showed up on something called Jerk. Am I a jerk or not? People can vote. No one had voted on my name. I did read some other comments from people about how they had been voted on and were a certain percentage a jerk. I went into the site which contained information from my facebook account. There was a choice to have my name removed from this website, so I checked it. I had to put in my name and email address and then it said that it would remove me if I bought one of the three conflict resolution courses or information available. It would cost me $90.00. As far as I am concerned this is a form of bullying or extortion. I do not believe that I should have to pay to have my name removed from an offensive website. I do believe that voting people as jerks is offensive. I tried to contact Google, but since this problem does not fall into any of their categories, I was unable to contact them. I tried Facebook, which also uses categories, and not one of them related to this problem. I could not find a fitting contact for either Google or Facebook. I am not sure how this Jerk website got my information, but it was information from my facebook account. I will continue to try to contact Google and Facebook and find addresses for them and send them a written letter. Thank you very much for looking into this. You may want to check www.jerk.com and see if you are there. Thanks again [REDACTED]

Dear Maria:

Thank you for your help thus far, with respect to the Jerk.com postings about our client and its employees.

There are some outstanding questions and issues we'd like to discuss with you, and counsel for the account holder of the posts in question (he has agreed to ma call).

Are you available today (Friday Nov. 23) for a call with us and account-holder's counsel? If so, please propose some times, or let us know what times you are not available. If today does not work for you, please let us know when you might be available on Monday (Nov. 26).

Thank you in advance.

Importance: High

Dear Maria:

Thank you for your e-mail below. I've been unsuccessful reaching you by telephone, but I understand you must be inundated. I am following up in writing because this is an extremely important and time-sensitive issue for our client, [REDACTED].

While we recognize and appreciate that the Communications Decency Act (specifically, 47 U.S.C. §230, the "Act") protects your client from the status of "publisher" or "speaker" of offensive Internet posts on its site, we also point out that the very aim of the Good Samaritan clauses of the Act is to facilitate (and shield from liability for) the good faith removal of user-generated content that may be considered obscene, lewd, filthy, harassing, or otherwise objectionable, whether or not such material is constitutionally protected. Under the Act, your client also would not be civilly liable for taking action to enable or make available to information content providers or others the technical means to restrict access the objectionable material.

Importantly, it appears your client's own Terms & Conditions contemplate the Act. Specifically, Paragraph 2 states: [Account holder] will NOT post on jerk.com any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, offensive, threatening, harassing ... material ..." The Terms & Conditions also call for termination of the account holder's account.

PUBLIC

This letter is not intended as a threat to Jerk, by legal action or otherwise. We are merely requesting that your client adhere to its own Terms & Conditions and act in a manner consistent with the spirit of the Act under which it claims immunity. We repeat our request that the offending account be terminated, and the account holder information released to [REDACTED]. We further request that the offending posts be made invisible.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience with any questions you might have. Otherwise, I look forward to hearing from you with information and confirmation of action taken in response to the above requests.

Thank you,

Thank you for getting back at me regarding this request. I already checked your site and find ways to request for removal of post, however there is a charge that I should pay. I would like to know if there are other ways to remove my husband's profile other than paying?

I hope to hear from you soon.

Thank you.

I've been having sleepless nights since the day I saw his profile in your website and I keep on crying on why there are people who never stop torturing me. My family and my husband's family are very affected. They want to know who is the person responsible for this post. I don't want to reach this issue in court and I hope you can help us regarding this matter.

I am pleading from your kind heart to hear me.

Ms. Maria Crimi Speth, Esq.
JABURG & WILK, P.C.
3200 North Central Avenue
Suite 2000
Phoenix, AZ 85012

Ms. Speth:

I am writing to follow up on our telephone conversation of Wednesday, November 28, 2012. It is my understanding that you represent Jerk.com LLC, which you confirmed. As we discussed, my law firm represents [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Under penalty of perjury, I declare by my signature below that I am authorized to speak on [REDACTED] behalf in this matter.

Our client recently discovered that a search for his name in the Google® search engine returns a result that is highly visible in the top two listings which states: "Jerk :: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] * is a jerk". See attached Exhibit 1.

When a user then clicks the hyperlink displayed in the Google® search results, he is brought to a profile page on Jerk.com. This profile prominently displayed several images, including the first, third and fourth images, which were images of [REDACTED]. See attached Exhibit 2. The second image displayed was not of [REDACTED].

JERK 00234

CX0748-02

Please be advised that the unauthorized copying and display of the fourth image violates [REDACTED] exclusive rights under the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq.

[REDACTED] does not concede that Jerk.com LLC may avail itself of the safe harbor in Section 512(c) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") for several reasons.

First, Jerk.com is not merely an online or Internet "service provider" as defined by the DMCA. It clearly benefits directly and financially from the infringements occurring thereon. Id; see A&M Records, Inc. v. Napster, Inc., 239 F.3d 1004 (9th Cir. 2001)(“drawing” customers to a website to receive a direct financial benefit deprives OSP of safe harbor.)

Second, as discussed further below, it is not clear that the profile of [REDACTED] depicted in Exhibit 1 attached hereto was “user generated content.”

However, solely for the purposes of expeditiously resolving this particular matter, please be advised that we possess a good faith belief that Jerk.com’s display of the fourth image violates [REDACTED] exclusive rights in that image, and we demand that it be permanently removed.

Without waiving or relinquishing his rights in any way, solely to mitigate the damages caused by the ongoing existence of this profile, [REDACTED] opted to pay Jerk.com to designate this profile as “private” and to forward visitors to an innocuous website.

However, even utilizing this process does not remove the offending profile from continued visibility in search engine results, which continue to prominently display the statement “Jerk :: [REDACTED] • is a jerk” devoid of further context. Consequently, [REDACTED] continues to be harmed by Jerk.com’s continued conduct in this regard.

Further, I had inquired during our telephone conversation of yesterday whether [REDACTED] profile and the images displayed constituted “user generated” content, or content unilaterally created by Jerk.com.

The reasons for our client’s belief that this profile was not user generated are as follows.

First, there is no textual content. One would expect that user generated content would contain critical statements.

Second, the display of the various images in the profile mirrors those of images displayed in the Google® image search results, which include photographs that are not of [REDACTED]. See attached Exhibit 1. One would expect that any user generating such content would recognize [REDACTED], and filter such images out. Therefore, this fact strongly suggests that Jerk.com itself created this profile using images that were automatically harvested from Google® or other sources for the purpose of generating traffic and soliciting financial payments from targeted individuals.

You stated that you believed that all profiles on Jerk.com are user generated, because you believed that Jerk.com does not have the technical capacity to unilaterally create content. You also stated that you would ask your client about this fact, and confirm it. However, we have not yet received any response from you.

Please be advised that if Jerk.com is unilaterally creating content, it is clearly not provided with any form of immunity under the DMCA, and would be directly liable for, inter alia, copyright infringement, as well as for state law violations for misappropriation of likeness and invasion of privacy, as well as casting [REDACTED] in a false light.

Please inform us in writing by no later than Thursday, December 6, 2012 whether [REDACTED] profile was a "user generated" profile.

This letter does not constitute a complete statement of the facts, law, claims, rights or remedies with respect to this matter, all of which are hereby reserved.

We look forward to your timely response.

Very Truly Yours,

The screenshot shows a dark-themed web page for a platform called "Jerk". At the top right, there's a "Get Our News, Everywhere!" section with links to RSS, Twitter, Facebook, and Email. Below that are navigation links: POST A JERK, REMOVE, SCHOOLS, CITIES, more ▾, sign in, and a search bar. On the left, there's a sidebar with a "Report" button, a "Jerk of the Day" section featuring a placeholder image and a poll ("Do you think [REDACTED] is egomastic?"), and a "Jerk of the Week" section with a placeholder image and a poll ("Do you think [REDACTED] is a jerk?"). The main content area has tabs for Online, About, and Character, followed by a large blacked-out section. Below that is a "reports and stories" section with a "+ post a report" button. Maria -

Thanks for getting back to me.

In the interest of full disclosure, what we have is two parties on opposite sides of a dispute, about postings made on Jerk.com. Our client was the subject of the offending posts, the other side was the party posting. The parties are in the process of resolving the issues, but the final piece is the requirement that the other side remove the offending posts. The other side, through its counsel, has agreed to remove the posts, but needs to know from Jerk exactly what steps it can (and must) take to remove them. My understanding is that they've been unsuccessful in getting through to Jerk Support, to get its assistance with take-down (or other remedy).

As I mentioned to you before, I am not the poster - I created an account with Jerk in the effort to dispute or report the posts, but had no luck. I've also e-mailed Jerk Support (they were previously responsive), but... crickets. Surely, it is not the $25 that is the issue - it is simply our firm policy not to use credit cards for such things. Further - if I or the other side enter credit card or other payment information, we want some assurance that we would be afforded the benefit of Jerk Support's help in removing the posts.

We just want to speak to Jerk Support to determine what steps the parties can take to remove the offending posts, and then have a discussion with counsel for the other side on the line to discuss each needed step. If we have to pay $25 to speak with Jerk Support about this - or $90 for a year subscription to deal with this - so be it.

Lawyer-to-lawyer, we are asking that you please facilitate the communication with Jerk Support and let us know what costs are involved.

Christiane

Christi:

I do not understand. What happens when you try to reach support? When you say that you are uncomfortable with entering a credit card and making a payment, do you mean that you haven't done that? My understanding is that support is $25. So, are you saying that you are willing to charge your client for the time you have taken in these communications and comfortable with me billing my client for my time in this, but not comfortable with paying $25?

Maria -

Per my voice mail of a few moments ago:

Following our discussion last Friday, we've tried repeatedly - without success - to reach Jerk Support, to ask how a subscriber to its site might go about removing or at least hiding certain posts. We are contacting you again because Jerk Support has been unresponsive (and contacting Jerk Support through the Jerk site requires entry of a credit card number and payment, something we are obviously not comfortable with).

We ask that you please forward this on to Jerk and ask that they get in touch with me directly, or please provide me with contact information I can use to reach someone in a position that can assist.

We note that we are working closely with the offending poster, to resolve these issues. They are cooperating but we need Jerk's help to complete the final pieces.

Thank you,
Christi Campbell

Dear Maria:

Thank you for your help thus far, with respect to the Jerk.com<<http://Jerk.com>> postings about our client and its employees.

There are some outstanding questions and issues we'd like to discuss with you, and counsel for the account holder of the posts in question (he has agreed to ma call).

Are you available today (Friday Nov. 23) for a call with us and account-holder's counsel? If so, please propose some times, or let us know what times you are not available. If today does not work for you, please let us know when you might be available on Monday (Nov. 26).

Thank you in advance.

Dear Maria:

Thank you for your e-mail below. I've been unsuccessful reaching you by telephone, but I understand you must be inundated. I am following up in writing because this is an extremely important and time-sensitive issue for our client, [REDACTED].

While we recognize and appreciate that the Communications Decency Act (specifically, 47 U.S.C. §230, the "Act") protects your client from the status of "publisher" or "speaker" of offensive Internet posts on its site, we also point out that the very aim of the Good Samaritan clauses of the Act is to facilitate (and shield from liability for) the good faith removal of user-generated content that may be considered obscene, lewd, filthy, harassing, or otherwise objectionable, whether or not such material is constitutionally protected. Under the Act, your client also would not be civilly liable for taking action to enable or make available to information content providers or others the technical means to restrict access the objectionable material.

Importantly, it appears your client's own Terms & Conditions contemplate the Act. Specifically, Paragraph 2 states: [Account holder] will NOT post on jerk.com<<http://jerk.com>> any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, offensive, threatening, harassing . material ." The Terms & Conditions also call for termination of the account holder's account.

This letter is not intended as a threat to Jerk, by legal action or otherwise. We are merely requesting that your client adhere to its own Terms & Conditions and act in a manner consistent with the spirit of the Act under which it claims immunity. We repeat our request that the offending account be terminated, and the account holder information released to [REDACTED]. We further request that the offending posts be made invisible.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience with any questions you might have. Otherwise, I look forward to hearing from you with information and confirmation of action taken in response to the above requests.

Thank you,

Why isn't there a function to protect people's privacy if they need it is my question then? This is so upsetting my health and safety are in jeopardy at this point in time.

Where, How and Who can I contact to address this issue? This is extremely important and I have tried every address, etc online to let them know this is serious matter and every letter has been returned unopened. I need a way to contact Jerk.com to get this resolved as quickly as possible. I should not have to "pay" them to have my private pictures removed. It should just be done if someone is in need.

As I mentioned before I've already had to cancel my facebook page where they got the original picture from in the first place because of my safety issues.

I would deeply appreciate any help with this matter.

Thank you,

Subject: Please take my pictures/name off of Jerk.com

I have tried repeatedly to contact Jerk.com with NO response whatsoever.

I have written letters, emailed and even tried phone numbers to no avail.

My picture from facebook was taken by Jerk.com about a year and half ago. Now they have somehow taken private, personal family photos and posted them on my name.

My safety is in jeopardy. I have also contacted Google regarding privacy/security.

I would appreciate a response from someone soon and have my name and pictures removed as soon as possible. I do not wish to have to take legal action.

Please contact me as soon as you can.

Most sincerely,

Jerk Support:

We have made repeated good faith efforts to contact you, via e-mail and the Jerk.com support function. Indeed, we even created an account with Jerk.com, to be afforded the benefit of the "support function," and used the same to request removal of posts made to <http://www.jerk.com/> [REDACTED] Despite Jerk's own promises that it will respond to support requests within 24 hours, we've yet to have any success in removing the objectionable posts from the above profile.

We understand that support and a subscription to Jerk.com, to enable us to dispute or report abuse for certain postings, may carry a $25 and $30 or $90 fee, respectively. If this is required, even where we've created a Jerk.com account, please advise. We are willing to pay the support fee or subscription fee if it means we can have the offending post removed once and for all.

If only the post-er can remove the disputed posts, please confirm this and please let us know exactly what steps must be taken for the posts to be removed.

If you prefer to discuss on the phone, please get in touch with me at 215.979.1817.

Jerk Support:

Thank you for assistance thus far, with respect to the removal of certain posts from Jerk.com, where those posts pertained to our client, [REDACTED], and its executives.

There are additional posts - made by the same account-holder as the previously removed posts - that are of concern to our client, and to the account-holder, who has agreed to take the necessary steps to remove, retract, or make invisible the subject posts. To date, the account-holder has been unsuccessful, despite its apparent efforts.

We'd appreciate the opportunity to discuss with you the steps that the account-holder can take to remedy the situation. We would like to include counsel for the account-holder in the dialogue, at some point. The parties are looking to resolve this matter as quickly and amicably as possible, without resorting to litigation. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Please let me know, at your earliest convenience, how we can get in touch and speak with you directly.

Thank you,

Christiane Campbell

Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. McLeod-Lofquist:

I am in receipt of your letter of November 27, 2012. The content on Jerk.com was posted by a third party user. Your letter threatens legal action against the operators of the website despite the immunity provided by the Communications Decency Act, 47 U.S.C. §230. Claims based upon Minnesota law and privacy rights may be applicable to the user who posted the content, but are completely inapplicable to the operator of the website.

Your letter also seeks disclosure of the user who posted the content. The First Amendment provides a right to anonymous free speech. Pursuant to case law, for example the Mobilisa case in Arizona, the operator of a website need not turn over author information without compliance with the process set forth in Mobilisa.

It may be helpful for you to know that Jerk.com does have a paid online support feature through which your client can request removal.

Can you please clarify what do you mean by $ 25 for service? I don't want any service from the website, I want the profile to be gone. If I opt in and pay the money how will you help me removing it? Will it then not be the case that I cannot close the profile for ever? Please let me know what the process is/

2012/12/14 Maria Crimi Speth <mcs@jaburgwilk.com>

Here is all I know. The website assures me that if you pay $25 for service they are almost always able to help you handle your particular issue. I have not received any complaints from people who have paid for service. There is also a link forwarding feature that costs a little more. If you try the support service and it does not work, let me know and I will take the issue up with my client.

Hi Maria,

I understand you're very busy and I am sorry to be bothering you again but I really need your help with this issue. I am pretty sure you understand me. This is a very frustrating issue and I want to resolve it as soon as possible. I never created any profiles and I don't accept the fact that my personal details have been used in such a manner against me. I don't own any social pages myself and I don't know how my personal picture ended up online. I really need your help. I have no one else to turn to about this issue. Please do help me with issue.

Thanks

2012/12/13 [REDACTED] >

Excellent! Can you please guide me step by step because I cannot see anything coming up that would suggest a removal of a profile. I understand that you have dealt with similar cases before so please let me know how can I remove it completely. I want to remove my profile. Let the information stay where it stays. Please, Maria, I am being entirely serious. You don't understand how much I want this to go away.

2012/12/13 Maria Crimi Speth <mcs@jaburgwilk.com>

[REDACTED]
You are misconstruing the wording, which probably should be clearer. The statement that it will not be removed is a statement that it will not be removed from the Internet. In other words, even if you removed it from Jerk.com, the source of the information is still on the internet. I was not trying to be cute, it is my understanding that you can request removal through support despite the language that seems to suggest otherwise.

The profile has been removed again. Users are able to repost and may do that. There may be other profiles. Users have in fact made similar profiles under other names. So long as the support payment is up to date your client can email support requesting removal of any additional profiles she discovers. If the support request is not handled to your satisfaction feel free to email me.

Maria:

Your e-mail to me yesterday stated "The profile has been removed." Any reasonable inference that can be drawn from this statement, made by counsel, would lead us - and our client - to believe that [REDACTED] profile and posts located at <http://www.jerk.com/> [REDACTED] (the "Profile") was removed. Based on our prior exchanges, it is also reasonable to infer that the removal was permanent. As mentioned yesterday, the site and the Profile were indeed down for a time (see attached screen images), went back up, and then appeared to be down again. However, I learned late in the afternoon that while the site and Profile were not visible or accessible to me, they were very much live and active for others.

Today, the site and Profile remain up.

What your client apparently views as a game, our client takes very seriously. This is our client's company and reputation. Meanwhile, we see no legitimate benefit to your client in leaving the Profile up. It already received payment from our client seeking support and removal of the Profile, for which our client obviously received no return on its investment.

Understanding that you may not have control over your client, and they may not be forthcoming with you, we will give you and Jerk the courtesy of until close of business (5pm) our local time (Eastern Standard Time) today, January 11, 2013, to communicate and get the Profile permanently removed. If this is not done, we will advise our client to take legal action with no further notice to you.

Thank you. About an hour ago, immediately after receiving your e-mail, I checked the site and the disputed profile and posts were down. I checked again just a moment ago, and they are back up. See: <http://www.jerk.com/>. As you know, we are seeking permanent removal of the profile and posts.

Thank you,

Christi

We note, with great appreciation, that as of the end of last week, the photograph of [REDACTED] children was removed or hidden from the Jerk.com site. Thank you for your assistance in accomplishing this first step.

JERK 00346

While the posts and profile remain at <http://www.jerk.com/>, we understand these may take some time to remove. We appreciate any and all information and updates you can provide with respect to their removal. Again, if there is something that needs to be done at our end, or by the original posters, to make this go away, please let us know. We are happy to help in any way we can.

Thank you,

Christi

This includes, but is not limited to, creating accounts, entering credit card information (and paying for accounts/support), requesting removal, and using the "support," "dispute," and "abuse" functions. The best we were able to do was have our client post a comment and get confirmation that it was received (see attached). We've attempted to communicate the issues to Jerk Support directly, and have been unsuccessful. Indeed, we have not received any communication from Support since the initial DMCA take-down on October 22, 2012.

postings made on Jerk.com. Our client was the subject of the offending posts, the other side was the party posting. The parties are in the process of resolving the issues, but the final piece is the requirement that the other side remove the offending posts. The other side, through its counsel, has agreed to remove the posts, but needs to know from Jerk exactly what steps it can (and must) take to remove them. My understanding is that they've been unsuccessful in getting through to Jerk Support, to get its assistance with take-down (or other remedy).

dispute or report the posts, but had no luck. I've also e-mailed Jerk Support (they were previously responsive), but... crickets. Surely, it is not the $25 that is the issue - it is simply our firm policy not to use credit cards for such things. Further - if I or the other side enter credit card or other payment information, we want some assurance that we would be afforded the benefit of Jerk Support's help in removing the posts.

> We just want to speak to Jerk Support to determine what steps the parties can take to remove the offending posts, and then have a discussion with counsel for the other side on the line to discuss each needed step. I have confirmed that there is a support function that does not include a monthly fee where you can explain your situation and ask for relief.

Maria,

thank you for continuing the correspondence.

There is a one time fee of $90 plus a "maintenance" fee.

All I want is my information taken down. I don't know who would be so cruel to add it (perhaps an angry ex boyfriend) but having my name connected to this site has caused serious professional consequences.

I am not wealthy nor can afford to spend money to hire an attorney to fight the owners of the site.

I like everyone else who has been added to this site just want the bullying to stop and have our names taken down.

What recourse do I have outside of pleading my case to you?

Outrageous. I shouldn't have to pay to not be cyber bullied.

Subject: Please Remove My Underage Son's Profile

Hello,

I would like to write to you about my son's profile on "Jerk.com." It has recently been called to my attention, and as my son is being bullied in school it causes him great distress that one of his bullies seemed to have created a page on your website. I am appalled to learn that your website promotes bullying; especially when there is already a major issue with bullying in schools across America as I am sure you are aware. My son is also under the age of 14, and I read that Jerk.com should remove a page in this case. I am very worried about my son, and would very much appreciate if you remove his page and ban his name from ever appearing on your website again. As a parent I am worried about my son developing PTSD later on in life, or another severe psychiatric illness as a result of bullying. It's difficult enough that he gets bullied in school, so he shouldn't have to deal with it at home as well. I am especially worried due to the articles I read about which often state that bullying can lead to suicide; even in very young victims despite the help they can get. Please have some sympathy and remove his page, as well as ban his name from ever showing up on your website again. Thank you.

Thank you for responding to our email. The link is www.jerk.com/[REDACTED]. Please remove it from google search as well. When you type in the name [REDACTED] it is the third posting down. Once again this is an under age child and in no way should her name be showing up on your site or in a google search that forwards to your site. We check daily to see if it has been removed. Once again thank you for responding to our email. Please inform us when you remove this link and name.

Dear Ms. Speth:

Re: Removal of copyright material on Jerk.com re [REDACTED]

I am legal counsel for [REDACTED]. Your client, Jerk LLC on their website Jerk.com, is infringing on at least one copyright owned by [REDACTED].

A photograph and other information concerning [REDACTED] were copied onto their website without permission. The original photo, to which [REDACTED] owns the exclusive copyrights, can be found at:

The unauthorized and infringing copy can be found at:

[http://www.jerk.com/\[REDACTED\]](http://www.jerk.com/[REDACTED])

This letter is official notification under Section 512(c) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA"), and we seek the removal of the aforementioned infringing material from your servers. I request that you immediately notify the infringer of this notice and inform them of their duty to remove the infringing material immediately, and notify them to cease any further posting of infringing material to your server in the future.

Please also be advised that law requires you, as the site owner, to remove or disable access to the infringing materials upon receiving this notice. Under US law a service provider, such as yourself, enjoys immunity from a copyright lawsuit provided that you act with deliberate speed to investigate and rectify ongoing copyright infringement. If you do not investigate and remove or disable the infringing material this immunity is lost. Therefore, in order for you to remain immune from a copyright infringement action you will need to investigate and ultimately remove or otherwise disable the infringing material from your servers with all due speed should the direct infringer, your client, not comply immediately.

This notice is provided in good faith and with the reasonable belief that rights my client owns are being infringed. Under penalty of perjury I certify that the information contained in the notification is both true and accurate and that I have the authority to act on behalf of [REDACTED], the owner of the copyright(s) involved.

Should you wish to discuss this with me please contact me directly at the above noted address.

> Your e-mail to me yesterday stated "The profile has been removed." Any reasonable inference that can be drawn from this statement, made by counsel, would lead us - and our client - to believe that [REDACTED] profile and posts located at <http://www.jerk.com> [REDACTED] (the "Profile") was removed. Based on our prior exchanges, it is also reasonable to infer that the removal was permanent. As mentioned yesterday, the site and the Profile were indeed down for a time (see attached screen images), went back up, and then appeared to be down again. However, I learned late in the afternoon that while the site and Profile were not visible or accessible to me, they were very much live and active for others.

I understand and respect that you are not willing or able to help until we've exhausted all possible options for trying to remove the posts ourselves.
>> Since our last e-mail exchange, and together with our client , we have taken every possible known

step to try and remove the disputed posts from Jerk.com. This includes, but is not limited to, creating accounts, entering credit card information (and paying for accounts/support), requesting removal, and using the "support," "dispute," and "abuse" functions. The best we were able to do was have our client post a comment and get confirmation that it was received (see attached). We've attempted to communicate the issues to Jerk Support directly, and have been unsuccessful. Indeed, we have not received any communication from Support since the initial DMCA take-down on October 22, 2012.

>> In the interest of full disclosure, what we have is two parties on opposite sides of a dispute, about postings made on Jerk.com. Our client was the subject of the offending posts, the other side was the party posting. The parties are in the process of resolving the issues, but the final piece is the requirement that the other side remove the offending posts. The other side, through its counsel, has agreed to remove the posts, but needs to know from Jerk exactly what steps it can (and must) take to remove them. My understanding is that they've been unsuccessful in getting through to Jerk Support, to get its assistance with take-down (or other remedy).

>> As I mentioned to you before, I am not the poster - I created an account with Jerk in the effort to dispute or report the posts, but had no luck. I've also e-mailed Jerk Support (they were previously responsive), but... crickets. Surely, it is not the $25 that is the issue - it is simply our firm policy not to use credit cards for such things. Further - if I or the other side enter credit card or other payment information, we want some assurance that we would be afforded the benefit of Jerk Support's help in removing the posts.

>> We just want to speak to Jerk Support to determine what steps the parties can take to remove the offending posts, and then have a discussion with counsel for the other side on the line to discuss each needed step. If we have to pay $25 to speak with Jerk Support about this - or $90 for a year subscription to deal with this - so be it.

>> Lawyer-to-lawyer, we are asking that you please facilitate the communication with Jerk Support and let us know what costs are involved.

My understanding is that support is $25. So, are you saying that you are willing to charge your client for the time you have taken in these communications and comfortable with me billing my client for my time in this, but not comfortable with paying $25?

Under the Act, your client also would not be civilly liable for taking action to enable or make available to information content providers or others the technical means to restrict access the objectionable material.

The Terms & Conditions also call for termination of the account holder's account.
